GUY MORRISS

HEAD COACH

One of only two current I-A coaches to have played in a Super Bowl, Lone Star state native Guy Morriss' first season on the Baylor sideline saw the Bears show marked improvement on and off the playing field. In 2003, Morriss' Bears put together the program's first three-game win streak since 1996, which was highlighted by a 42-30 victory over two-time defending Big 12 North champion Colorado; produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in Rashad Armstrong; recorded the program's highest one-season sack total (29) since 1994 and held the nation's No. 1 team, Oklahoma, to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards. Along the way, there were enough moments of youthful brilliance to give hope for the future as Morriss and his staff continue the process of rebuilding the tradition-rich Baylor program.

IN MEMORY ... FRANK FALLON, "THE VOICE OF THE BEARS"

By John Morris
Baylor Director of Broadcasting

I could walk you to the spot today in the old Heart 'O Texas Coliseum where I stood with Frank Fallon one cold Baylor basketball practice in the winter of 1987. It was that day, at that spot, where Frank very nonchalantly in the course of our conversation said "I'd like you to join me on the Baylor football broadcasts this fall." You tend to remember where you were when life-changing moments occur in your life.

Prior to working with Frank on the football broadcasts, he allowed me to fill in for him and work with Pat Nunley on some Baylor basketball broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Frank was doing a Southwest Conference television game every Saturday and I would fill in for him if he couldn't get to where the Bears were playing. In February of 1985, Pat and I did a game in Waco knowing that Frank and Ed "Stats" Burleson were listening driving back from a game they worked in Houston. They arrived at the Coliseum at some point in the second half and were waiting to visit as soon as we signed off the Baylor broadcasts. In his serious mode, Frank told Pat and I that we did a good job, then for emphasis, repeated, "You really did a good job." In my mind, there could be no greater compliment and no better affirmation that we were at least on the right track professionally than those six words. Such is the influence of Frank Fallon.

I had the pleasure and professional good fortune to work with Frank for eight years before succeeding him in this position upon his retirement in 1995. A sports broadcaster could not ask for any better learning environment than to sit beside Frank Fallon, on air and off. Outside of my immediate family, I can honestly say that I love him and respect him more than any person I've known.

So many people have similar feelings toward Frank and that was evident as family, friends, and colleagues gathered for a celebration of his life May 5, 2004, at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit in Waco. Everyone there had a favorite story to share about Frank. Every one of them were positive and uplifting reflecting the impact the life of Frank Fallon had on so many of us.

Jordan Cox tells the story of saving a message on his answering machine as a student from "Mr. Fallon" because it sounded so official. De Hansen recalls the experience as a student of being gently corrected, on the air, working Baylor baseball games with Frank. Bill O'Connell remembers Frank being a calm, gentlemanly figure in the formation of the SWC Radio Network. Troy Dungan remembers meeting Frank the first day he came to work at KWTX in Waco in 1957.Craig Harper loves telling the story of a motorized Arkansas Razorback helmet driving out onto the field after a Hogs touchdown and Frank, without missing a beat, adding to his play-by-play, "There's an anteater on the field."

Fact of the matter is, if Frank Fallon in that rich, authoritative voice said there was an anteater on the field, who among his listeners or even those in the booth with him could disagree?

For 42 years, Baylor athletics benefited from its association with Frank Fallon and we are all better for having a slice of our lives intersect with "The Legend."

Editor's Note: Frank Fallon served as Baylor's director of broadcasting from 1953 to 1995. He passed away in his sleep April 30, 2004, at his home in Waco, Texas. For more information on Fallon's legacy, see page 161.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Working press and photographer credentials for Baylor's home games against Texas State, North Texas, Missouri, Iowa State, Texas A&M and Oklahoma will be handled by Baylor Associate AD for Media Relations Nick Joos.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Nick Joos, Associate AD/Media Relations, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711. ... FAX (254) 710-1369.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium, or at press will call in the elevator lobby of Floyd Casey Stadium.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF PRESS CREDENTIALS

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working press is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head coach Guy Morriss, defensive coordinator Bill Bradley, offensive coordintor Brent Pease and selected Baylor football players meet with the media each Tuesday preceding a game in the Galloway Suite in the end zone of Floyd Casey Stadium. Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with players or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m., Sunday preceding the press luncheon.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor players and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Tuesday through Thursday. Interview requests should be directed to Nick Joos.

Player interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office at least one day in advance. If a telephone interview is desired, the player will be provided with the number and will telephone the interviewer at a time that does not interfere with the student-athlete's academic schedule.

BIG 12 COACHES TELECONFERENCE

Big 12 Conference coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference each Monday at 10:00 a.m.-Noon (CT) beginning Aug. 30 and concluding Dec. 6.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should consult the Big 12's weekly release or contact the Big 12 Media Relations Department for further details.

Each coach will be on the teleconference for 10 minutes, according to the following schedule:

10:00 a.m.	MARK MANGINO, Kansas
10:10 a.m.	BOB STOOPS, Oklahoma
10:20 a.m.	LES MILES, Oklahoma State

11:40 a.m.	GARY BARNETT, Colorado
11:50 a.m.	BILL CALLAHAN, Nebraska
Noon	Selected student-athletes

For those needing to hear a replay of the briefing, it will be available after 4 p.m. CT.

DAVE CAMPBELL MEDIA CENTER

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Press meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs, media guides and statistics will be provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also will be provided. Complete sets of all information will be available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

Several "0-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working area. On game day, Baylor communications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

Baylor will provide a FAX machine for complimentary use on a first-come, first-served basis. Should you need assistance in sending, please contact a media relations staff member.

BAYLOR ON THE WEB

Stats and news releases on Baylor football and all 17 Baylor athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at www.BaylorBears.com, the official website of Baylor Athletics and a member of the Official College Sports Network.

BAYLORBEARS.COM

SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Baylor locker room is located below the North end zone. The visiting locker room is located beneath the east stands.

Baylor coach Guy Morriss and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

WEBSITES

Fan-based websites, containing at least one or more of the following: chat rooms, message boards, recruiting information, scouting reports and links to news sites, as well as other fan-based features, shall not be issued credentials. Local and national organizations which maintain a news-based website in connection with its regular newspaper or magazine, as well as radio or television broadcast, shall be issued credentials on a game-by-game basis. Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such will not be permitted.

BAYLOR RADIO NETWORK

A new voice joins the Baylor football radio broadcasts in 2004 as former Baylor Academic All-American and all-time leading passer J.J. Joe joins the broadcast crew as color analyst.

John Joe, better known to Baylor fans as J.J., was the Bears' leading passer for four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993. He graduated as Baylor's career passing and total offense leader and is one of the school's most decorated student-athletes as a three-time Academic All-American. He currently works as a Vice President-Client Manager for Bank of America in Dallas and resides in Hurst, Texas. Joe fills the vacancy created when Walter Abercrombie moved into the full-time position of associate athletic director and executive director of the Baylor "B" Association, the 700-member organization of former letterwinners. Abercrombie, however, will continue to be a part of the broadcasts by hosting a Baylor Legends segment during the pre-game show.

Ricky Thompson returns for his fifth season providing sideline color and analysis.

Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and the Bears' leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson is a member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame and is currently Executive Vice President and Director of the First National Bank of Central Texas.

In his 18th year broadcasting Baylor Football, John Morris serves as the play-by-play "Voice of the Bears" for football, as well as men's basketball. The 45-year old Morris also produces the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat," daily Big 12 reports, and co-hosts the award-winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show. The Kentucky native also serves as moderator for "Guy Talk," with head football coach Guy Morriss, during the season and the "State Farm Baylor Hour" January through May. This is Morris' 10th year as the signature voice of Baylor athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon. In November 2002, John was presented the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award by the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce.

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 18th year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award-winning Director of Engineering for the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas.

Bobby Reynolds returns as broadcast engineer. Reynolds has extensive experience engineering for the Host Communications/ NCAA Radio Network.

Game-day broadcasts begin with "Countdown to Kickoff, presented by State Farm," two hours prior to kickoff each Saturday. The "Fifth Quarter Call-in Show, presented by Alltel" follows the network sign-off on flagship station 1660 ESPN Radio.

J.J. JOE, RICKY THOMPSON, JOHN MORRIS

Every play of Baylor Football 2004 plus "Guy Talk" and the "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" are available worldwide on the internet at the official Baylor Athletic web site www.BaylorBears.com.

THIS IS BAYLOR

BAYLOR 2012

Baylor's Vision 2012

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year vision, called Baylor 2012. Baylor's vision for the future, though continuous with its cherished past, aspires to what few institutions, if any, have ever achieved. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming and deepening its distinctive Christian mission. Go to www.baylor.edu/vision for the vision's full text.

The following 12 imperatives, which reflect Baylor's foundational assumptions and core convictions, are designed to push the University to a new level of excellence, and will propel us into the ranks of the nation's Tier One colleges and universities.

Imperative I – Establish an environment where learning can flourish.

Imperative II – Create a truly residential campus.

Imperative III – Develop a world-class faculty.

Imperative V – Initiate outstanding new academic programs in selected areas.

Imperative VI – Guide all Baylor students, through academic and student life programming, to understand life as a stewardship and work as a vocation.

Imperative VII – Provide outstanding academic facilities.

Imperative IX – Enhance involvement of the entire Baylor family.

Imperative XI – Emphasize global education.

Imperative XII – Achieve a $2 billion endowment.

BAYLOR CAMPUS

- Baylor University is Texas' oldest existing university.
- Baylor's nationally recognized academic divisions offer 164 baccalaureate degree programs, 72 master's degree programs, 19 doctoral degree programs and five professional degree programs.
- U.S. News and World Report ranked undergraduate business programs in Baylor's Hankamer School of Business in the top 16 percent in its 2005 guide to "America's Best Colleges" while ranking the graduate entrepreneurship program 28th in the nation and the School's Executive MBA program 20th.
- Baylor's Law School ranked 50th nationally, one of just three Texas schools in the top 50, while its trial advocacy program rated seventh nationally.
- The Princeton Review includes Hankamer's MBA program in its "Top 80 Business Schools of America."
- At Baylor, 92 percent of all classes are taught by full-time professors.
- Baylor's student-to-faculty ratio is 16-to-1.
- The number of National Merit Scholars enrolled at Baylor places the University in the top 1 percent among higher education institutions in America.
- Baylor students have study abroad opportunities through 56 programs in 24 countries including Russia, China, Spain, Australia and Great Britain.

WACO
GATEWAY TO TEXAS HISTORY™

Little-Known Brags

- Waco is the only city in Texas to claim four hometown governors: Richard Coke (1874-76), L.S. (Sul) Ross (1887-91), Pat M. Neff (1921-25) and Ann Richards (1990-94).
- Waco's 22-story ALICO building, constructed in 1910, was the first skyscraper west of the Mississippi River.
- Cameron Park offers great hiking and cycling trails which Bike Magazine touts as a "best kept secret."
- 80% of Texas' population is located within 300 miles of Waco.

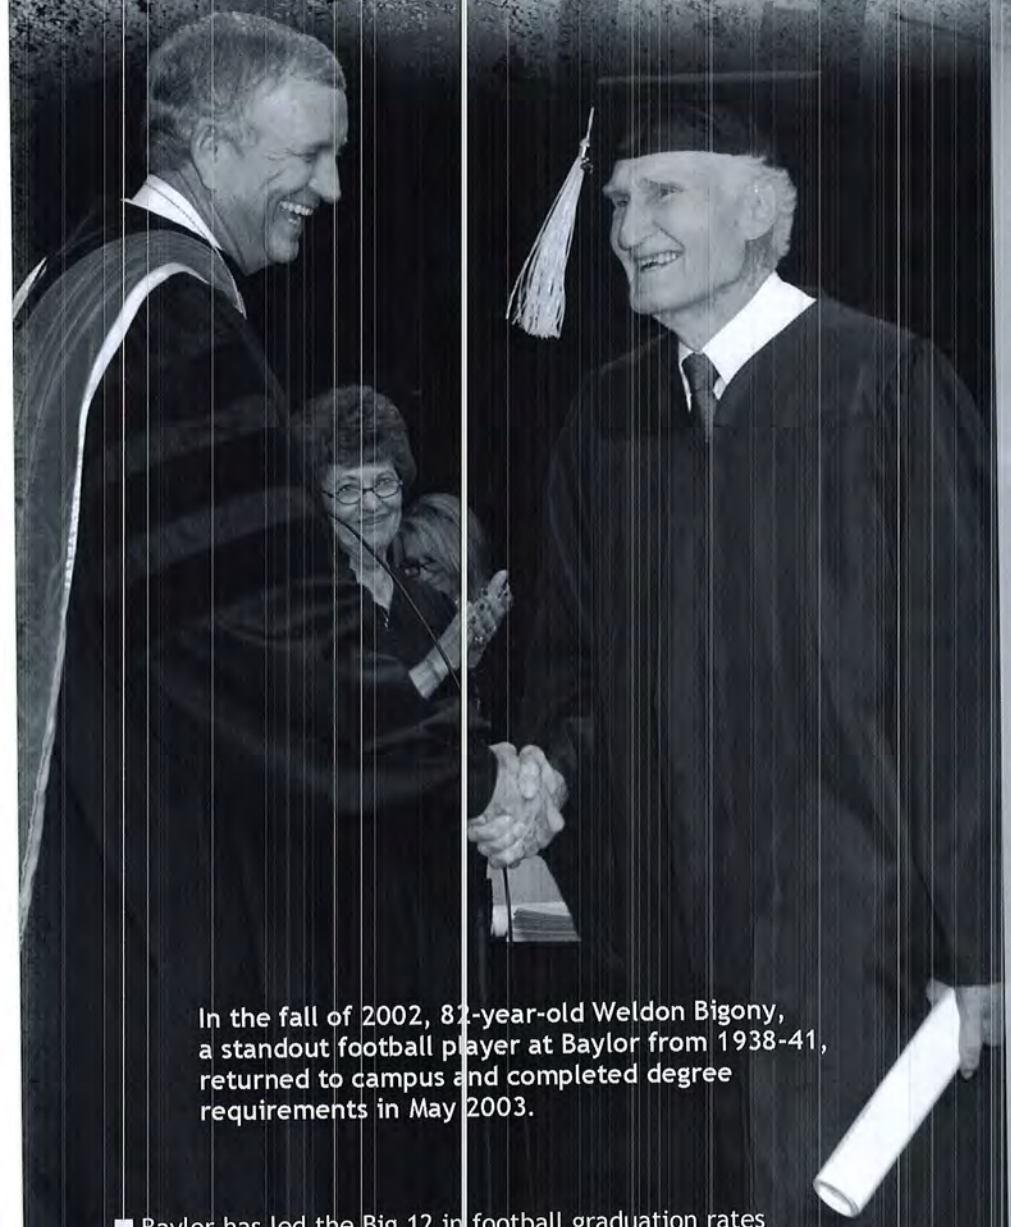
Harry & Anna Jeanes Discovery Center: Opened in May 2004, the exciting Harry & Anna Jeanes Discovery Center brings together the resources of the Sue and Frank Mayborn Natural Science and Cultural History Museum Complex at Baylor University. This 143,000 square foot building is expected to attract nearly 100,000 visitors in its first year of operation.

ACADEMICS



In the fall of 2002, 82-year-old Weldon Bigony, a standout football player at Baylor from 1938-41, returned to campus and completed degree requirements in May 2003.

■ Baylor has led the Big 12 in football graduation rates four times in the league's eight-year history, producing the conference's highest mark in 2003, 2002, 2000 and 1998.

■ Since the NCAA began tracking graduation rates in 1991, the Baylor football program has averaged a graduation rate of nearly 65 percent. Over the last six years, more than 73 percent of the Bears' football players have left with degree in hand.

■ During the 2002-03 school year, Baylor graduated a record 104 student-athletes at its three commencement ceremonies.

■ Since the Big 12's beginning, Baylor has led the league in student-athlete graduation rates four times, finished second three times and fourth once.

■ Baylor had 56 student-athletes earn academic All-Big 12 accolades in 2003-04, with 47 of those students receiving first-team recognition.

ACADEMICS

The Department of Student-Athlete Services is responsible for the academic welfare of Baylor's student-athletes. The department monitors each student-athlete's academic progress, class attendance, class scheduling as well as NCAA and Big 12 rules regarding academic eligibility. In addition, Student-Athlete Services is responsible for study hall attendance, and providing each student-athlete with tutoring, academic counseling and mentoring.

A total of 71 hours each week at the Neill Morris Learning Center are dedicated specifically to Baylor student-athletes. The Learning Center is used to assist with studying, tutorials and assignments to be completed in the computer lab.

- Baylor placed 58 football players on the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll during the 2003-2004 school year.
- Baylor football placed four players on the 2003 Academic All-Big 12 team.
- In 2003, Baylor led the Big 12 with a 75% football graduation rate, well above the NCAA I-A average of 54%.

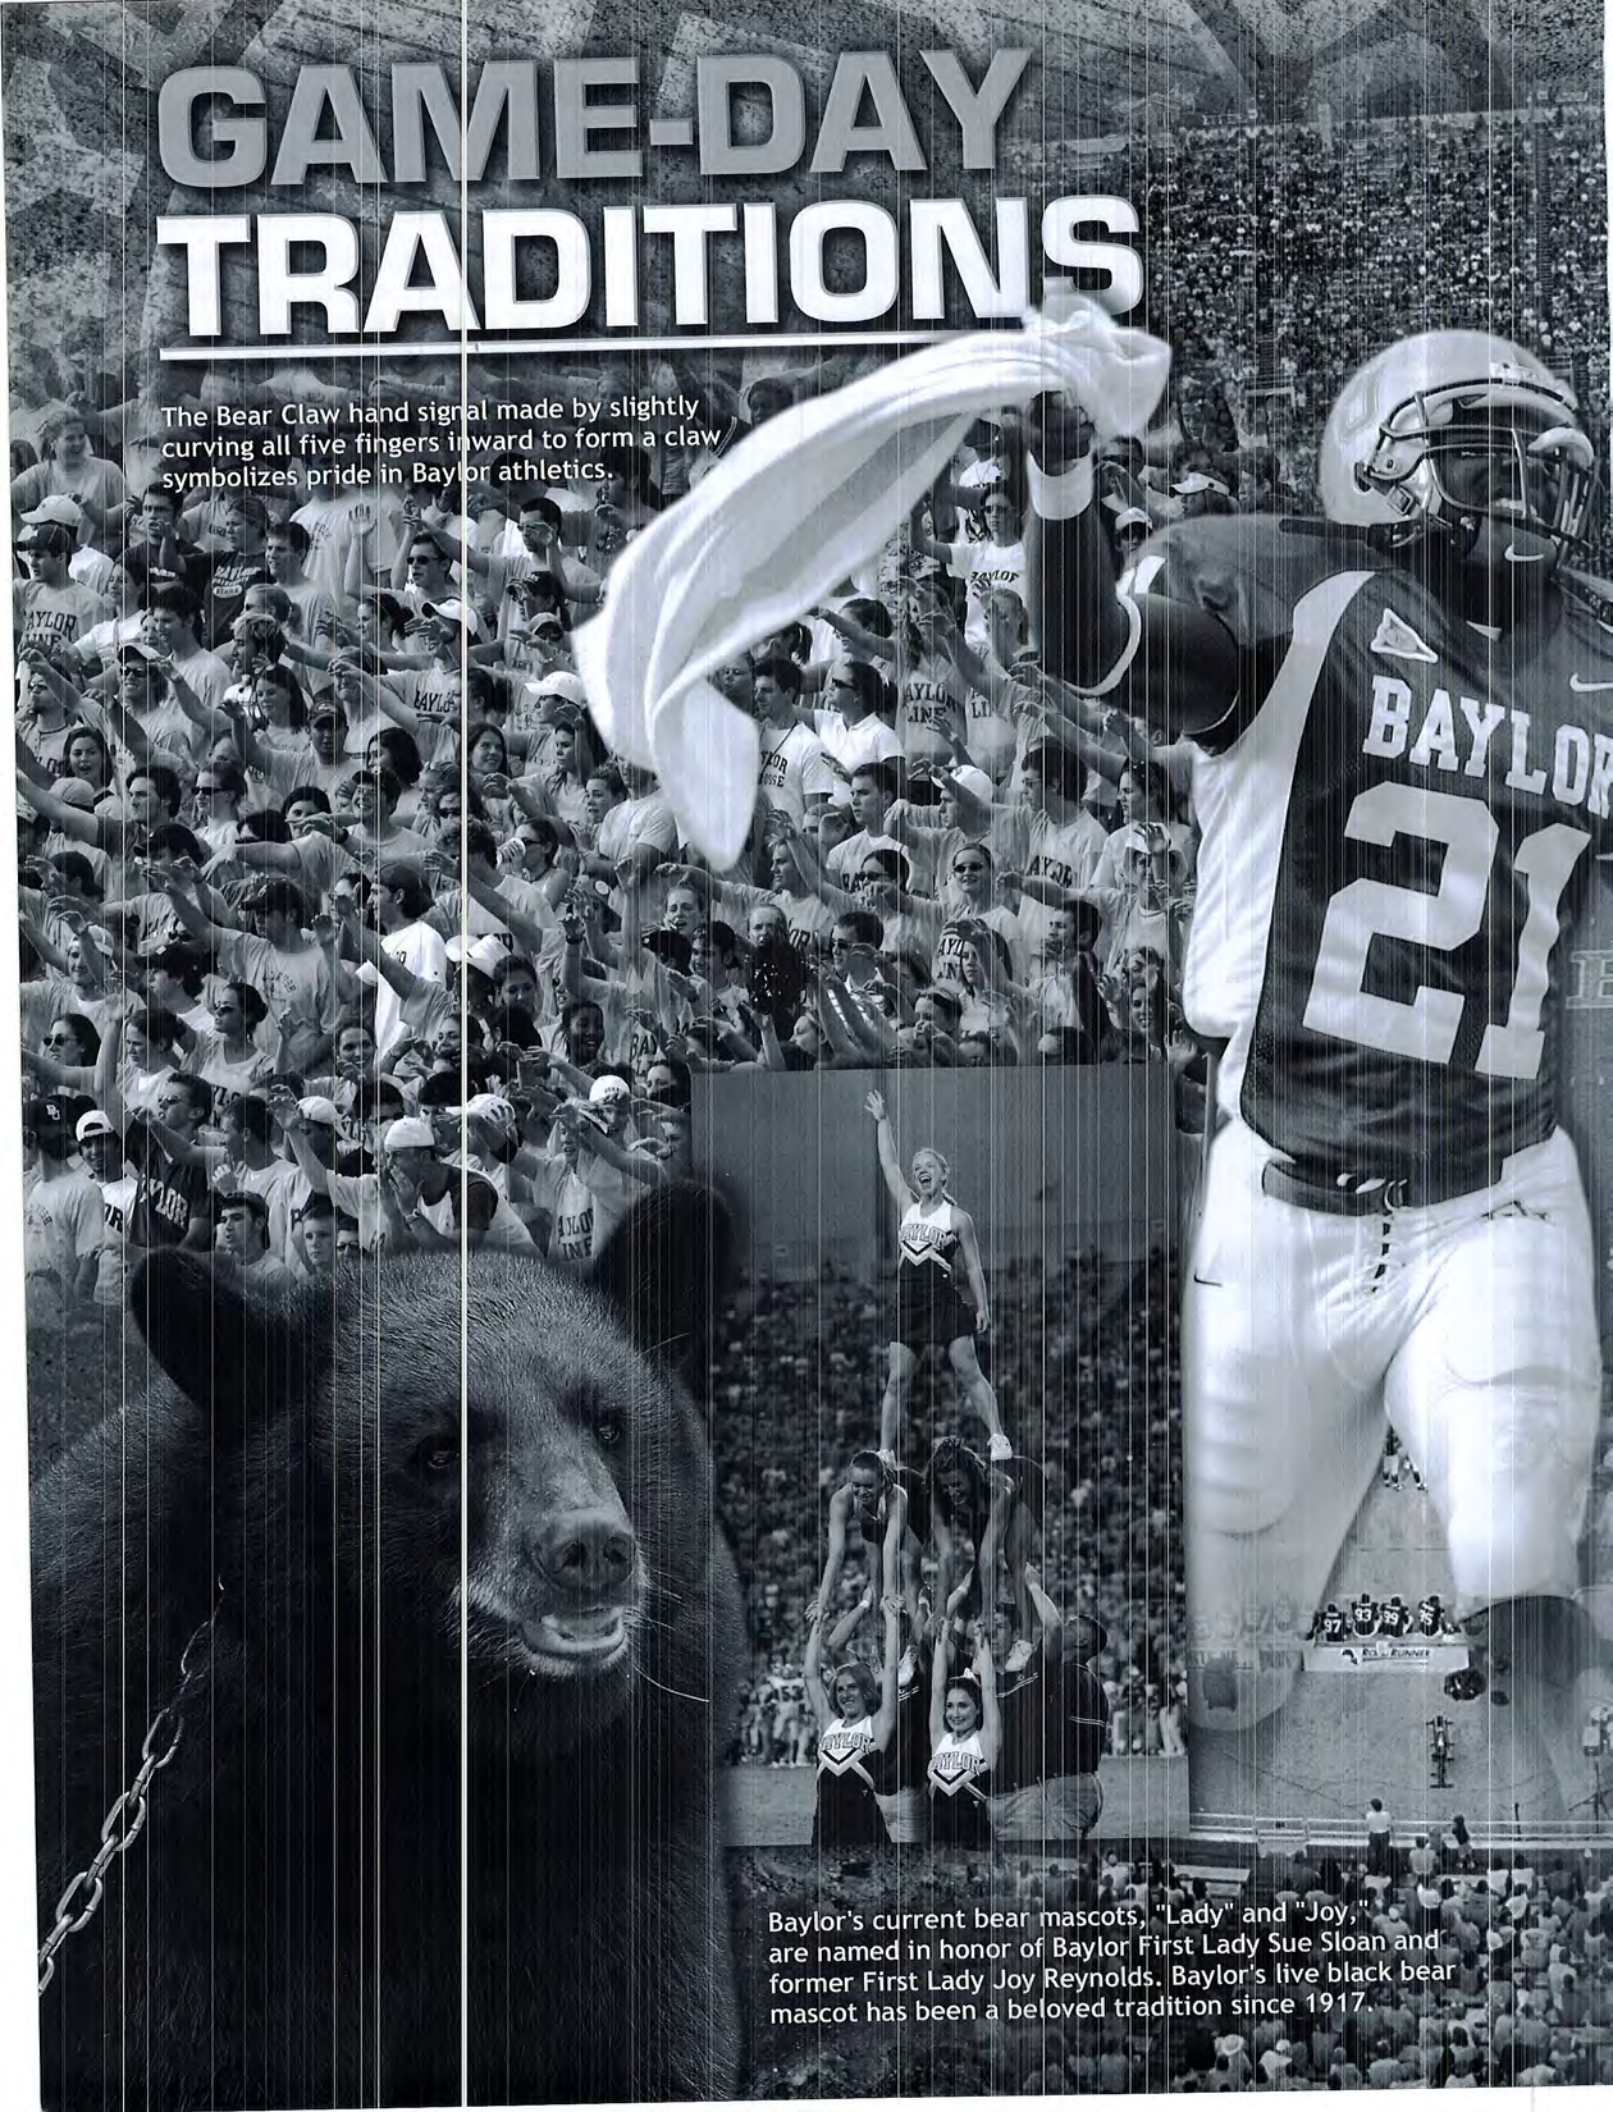
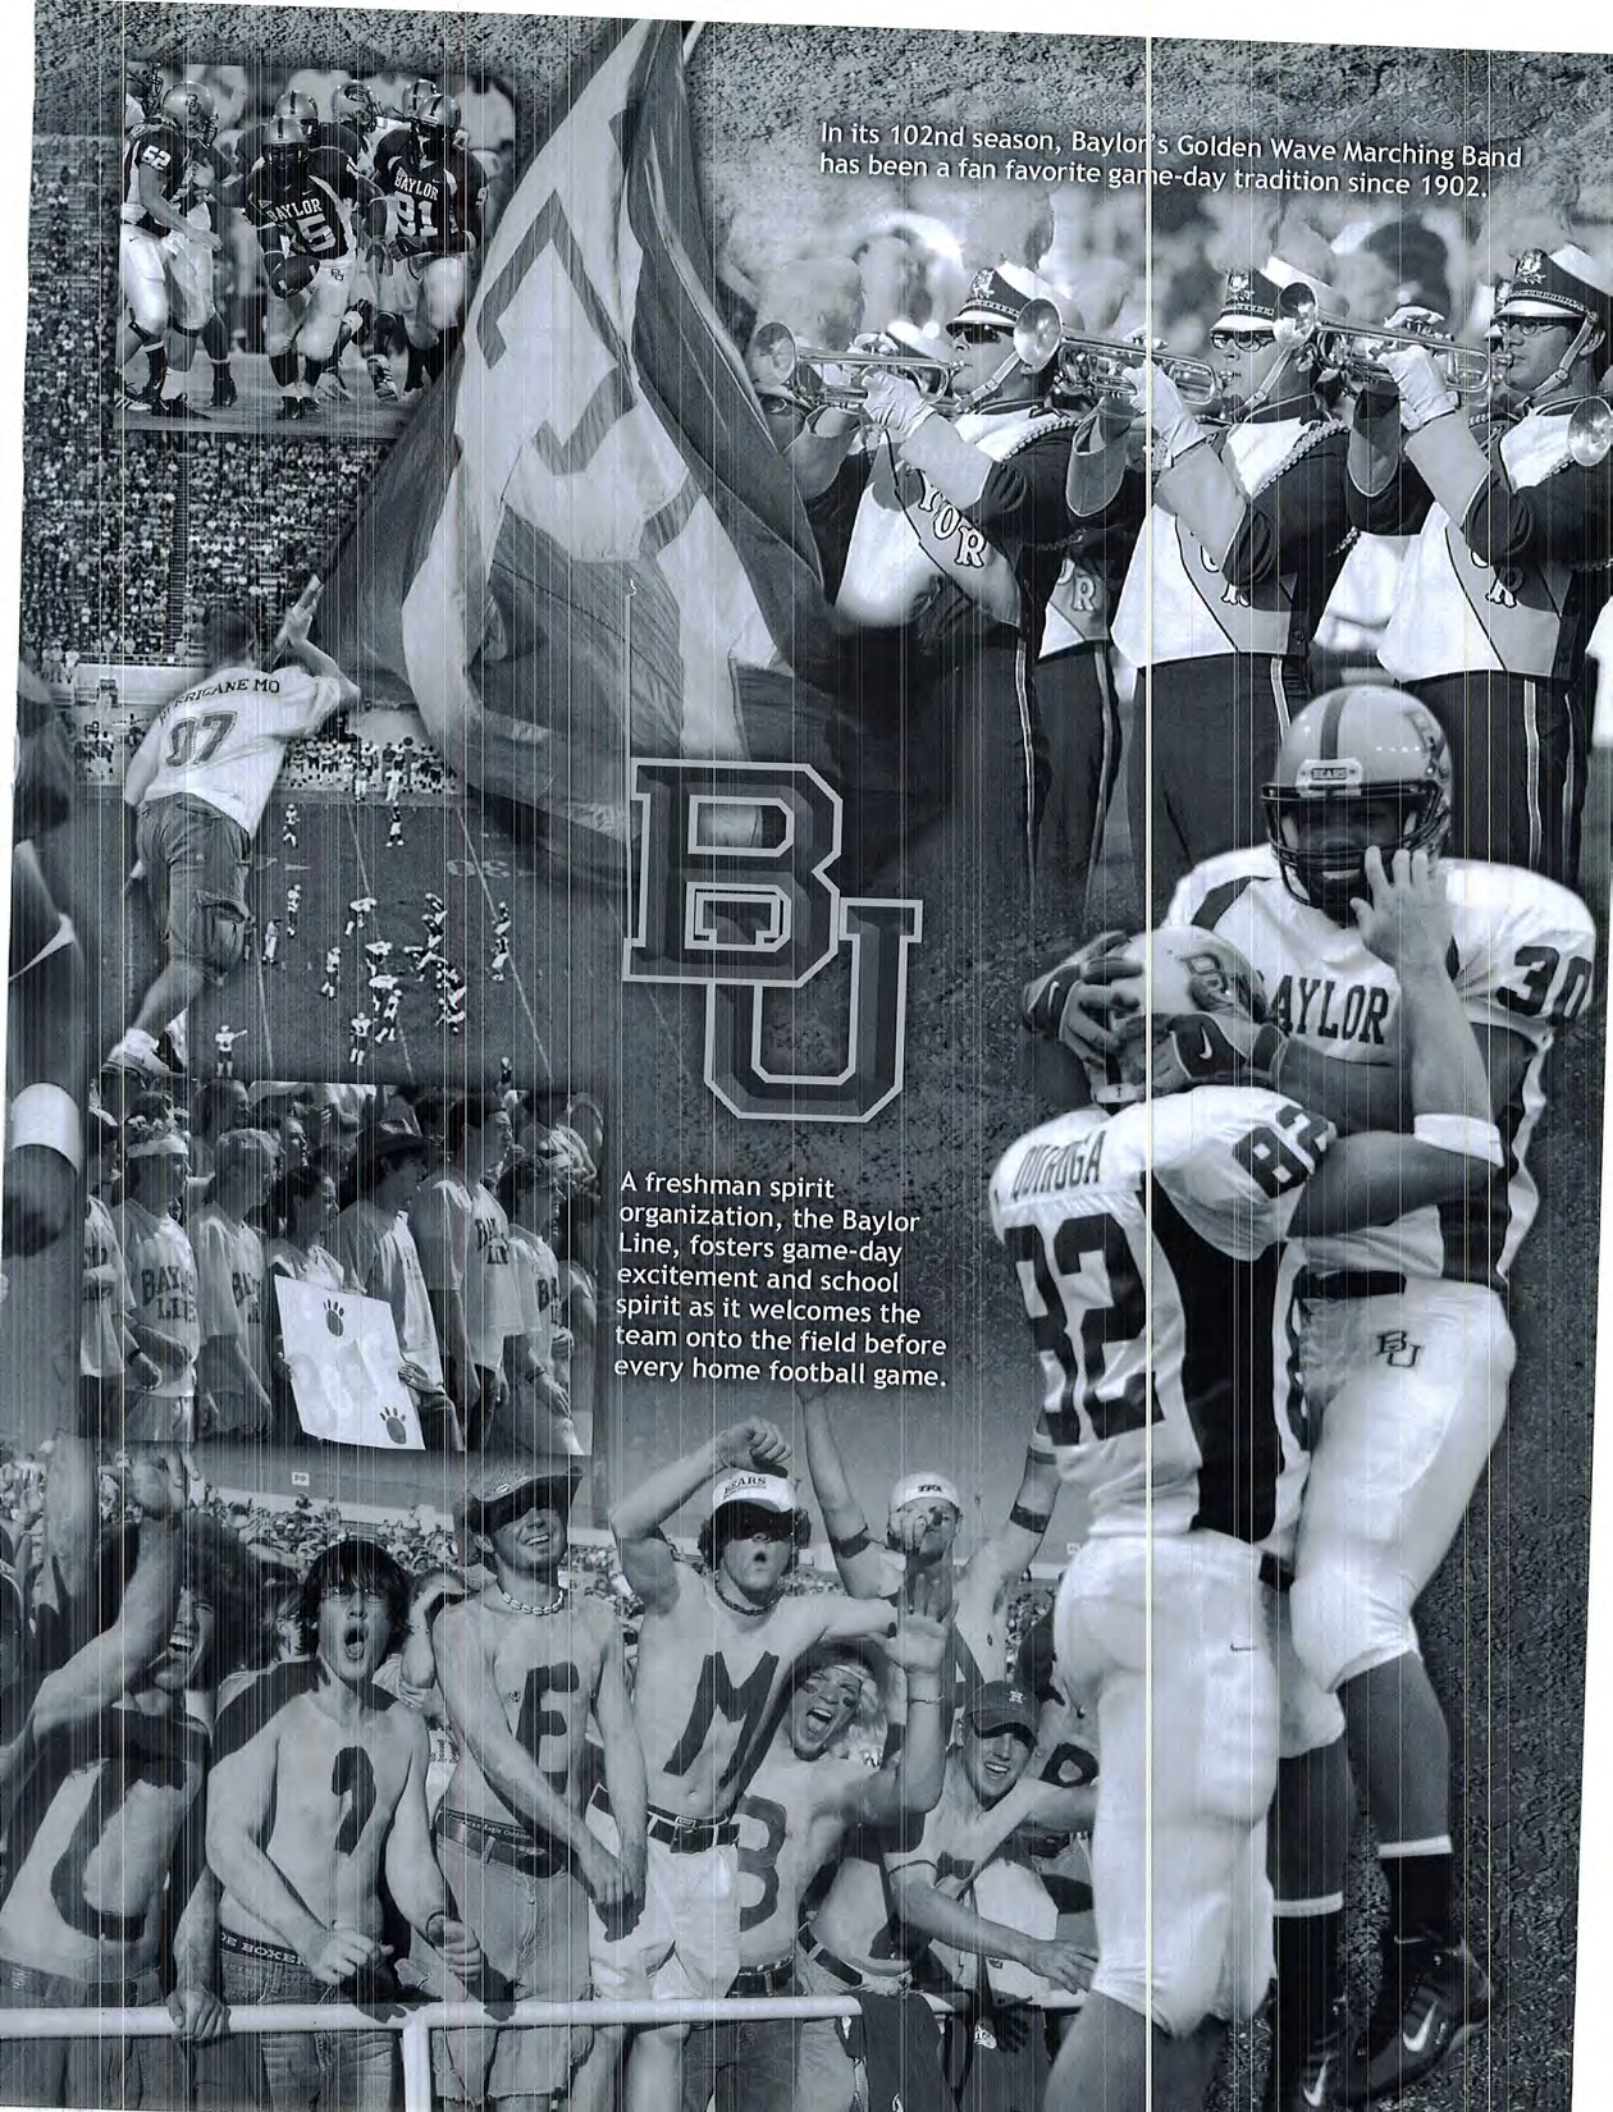
GAME-DAY TRADITIONS

The Bear Claw hand signal made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw symbolizes pride in Baylor athletics.



Baylor's current bear mascots, "Lady" and "Joy," are named in honor of Baylor First Lady Sue Sloan and former First Lady Joy Reynolds. Baylor's live black bear mascot has been a beloved tradition since 1917.



In its 102nd season, Baylor's Golden Wave Marching Band has been a fan favorite game-day tradition since 1902.
A freshman spirit organization, the Baylor Line, fosters game-day excitement and school spirit as it welcomes the team onto the field before every home football game.

EXPERIENCED COACHING STAFF

Mark Nelson
Special Teams Coordinator/ Linebackers
His special team units were the strength of Baylor's 2003 team, producing three touchdown returns in the kicking game, a blocked punt recovered for a safety and the Big 12's third-best punter in redshirt freshman Daniel Sepulveda, who averaged 43.1 yards per kick. BU return specialist Robert Quiroga, who returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2003, and Sepulveda each earned All-Big 12 honors.

Guy Morriss
Head Coach

Wesley McGriff
Cornerbacks/Recruiting Coordinator
Produced outstanding defenses while serving as defensive coordinator at Savannah State and Kentucky State.

Brent Pease
Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
An outstanding offensive mind, his Baylor signal callers completed a school single-season record 56.7 percent of their passes in 2003.

Tom Adams
Defensive Line

BU
Harold Jackson
Wide Receivers
Five-time All-Pro receiver still ranked among the NFL's top 20 in career receiving yards (10,372) and touchdown receptions (76).
Chris Lancaster
Offensive Line
Versatile line coach was a three-year starter on bowl teams at Clemson and is in his third tour of duty at Baylor.
Larry Hoefer
Safeties
Abilene native has over 20 years of coaching experience in the Lone Star state.
Bill Bradley
Defensive Coordinator
Three-time All-Pro free safety and Lone Star native was the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons. He brings 21 seasons of coaching experience into his first year as Baylor's defensive coordinator.
Gerald Carr
Assistant Head Coach/
Running Backs
His first season at Baylor saw running back Rashad Armstrong earn All-Big 12 honors and become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 and just the sixth all-time. He coached 2001 Big Ten Player of the Year Antwaan Randle El and the SEC's leading rusher (Artose Pinner) in 2002.

STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

■ A state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure was constructed on Floyd Casey Stadium's west side in 1999.

■ Completed in 2001, the new 8,000 square foot locker room contains 130 pro-style wood lockers, two big-screen televisions, eight 36-inch televisions and three skylights to provide natural lighting.

■ To enhance the game-day experience at Floyd Casey Stadium, a state-of-the-art video board was installed at the stadium in 2002. BaylorVision video-replay boards are also installed at the Ferrell Center, Baylor Ballpark and Getterman Stadium.

■ The 2004 season will mark the debut of the Prestige Playing surface at Floyd Casey Stadium. The newest generation of artificial turf on the market is similar to rubber infill fields currently in use at several Big 12 and NFL stadiums. Baylor's Floyd Casey Stadium featured a grass playing surface from 1950 through 1971, then utilized various artificial surfaces from 1972 through 1997 before returning to natural grass in 1998.

■ Expanded and renovated in 2001, Baylor's weight room features state-of-the-art equipment suited to fit every demand of the Bear football program.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

For Baylor football players, giving back to Waco and surrounding communities is as much a part of coach Guy Morriss' program as touchdowns and tackles. The Bears take time to reach out to Central Texas youths through appearances at local schools, hospital visits and participation in special events such as the Compassion Ministries Adopt an Angel program.

Prior to the spring TAKS Tests at Marlin Elementary school, Baylor football players Nick Pace, Maurice Linguist, Trent Shelton and Nick Fellows gave a pep talk to the students encouraging them to do well on their annual achievement tests.

Running back Paul Mosley serves drinks to those in attendance at the 2003 HEB Feast of Sharing.

As part of the Bears 'n' Books program, Baylor two-sport standout Dominique Zeigler took time to visit South Waco Elementary School.

Running back Phil Tran takes time for a special moment with a young Bear fan at the 2004 Hewitt ISD Carnival.

Several Baylor football players, including C.J. Wilson, Marcus Foreman and Brannan Moton, participated in the 2003 Santa's Workshop to benefit young people in the Waco community.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The methodology employed in John Williams' strength and conditioning program is based on the future development of the athletes to ensure that they become the best possible players on the field. The program considers the physical attributes that directly impact the athlete's performance during competition.

It is the intention of the program to evaluate, improve and maximize each athlete's individual potential through strength, speed, power, agility, skill and flexibility training. In addition to these areas, the motivation and discipline needed to produce a positive work environment that reinforces good character traits in the student-athletes remains an integral part of the strength and conditioning program.

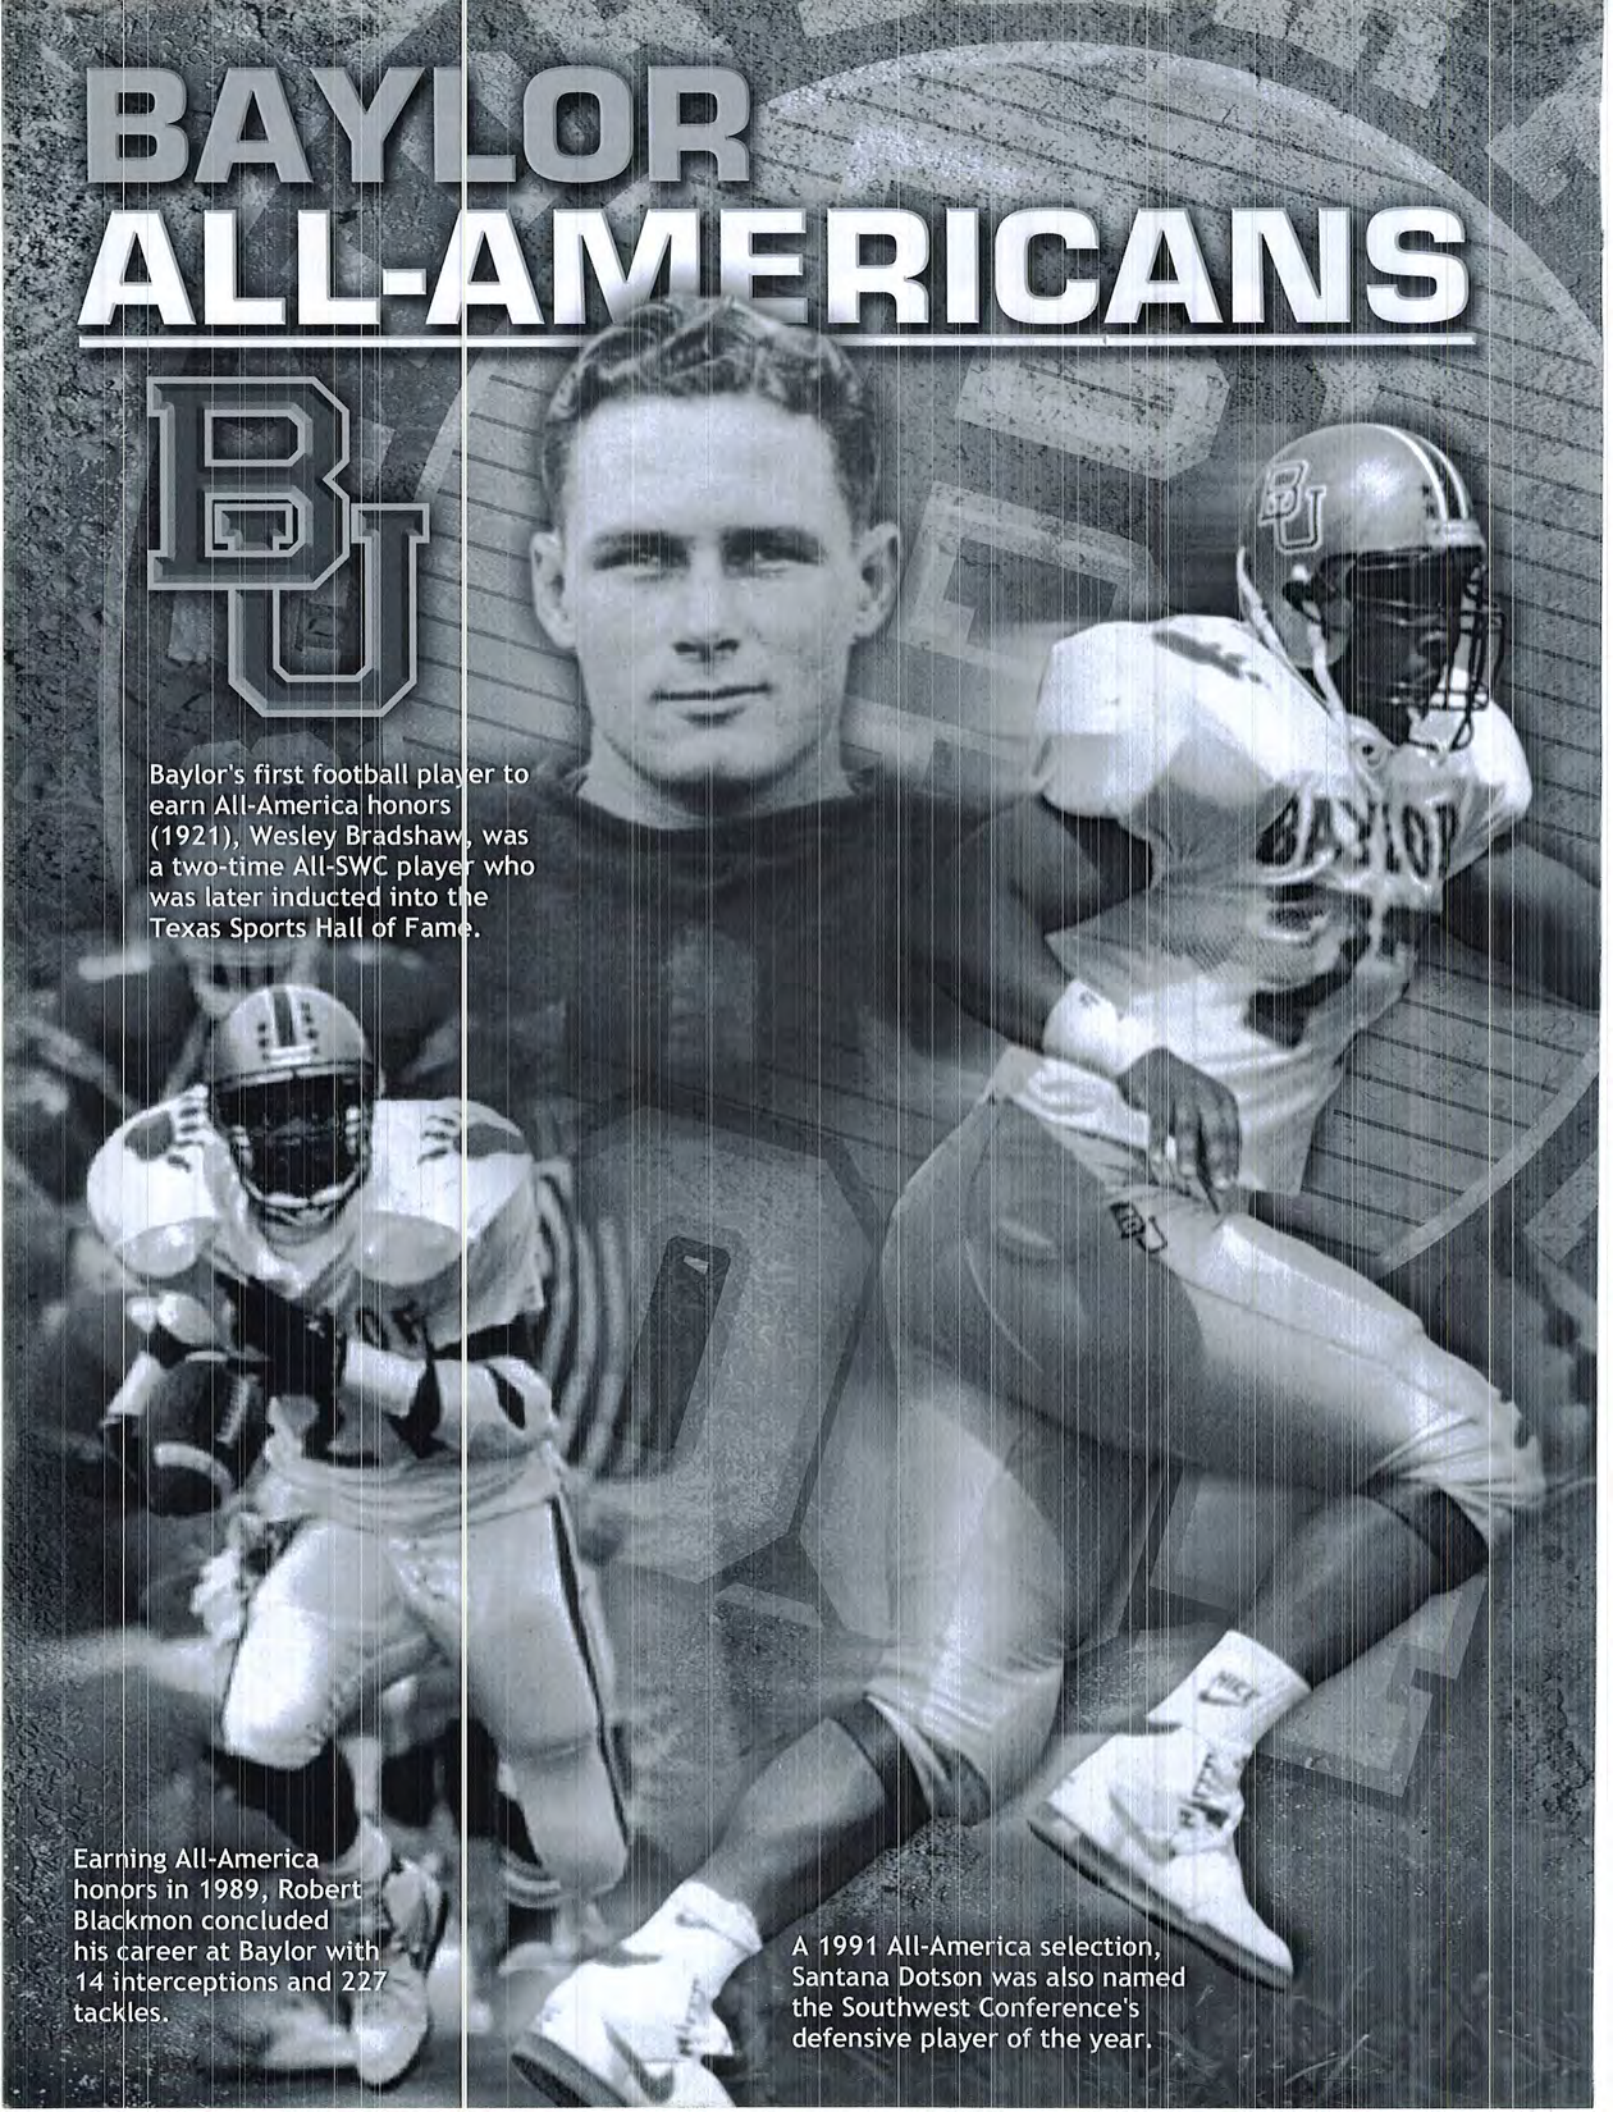
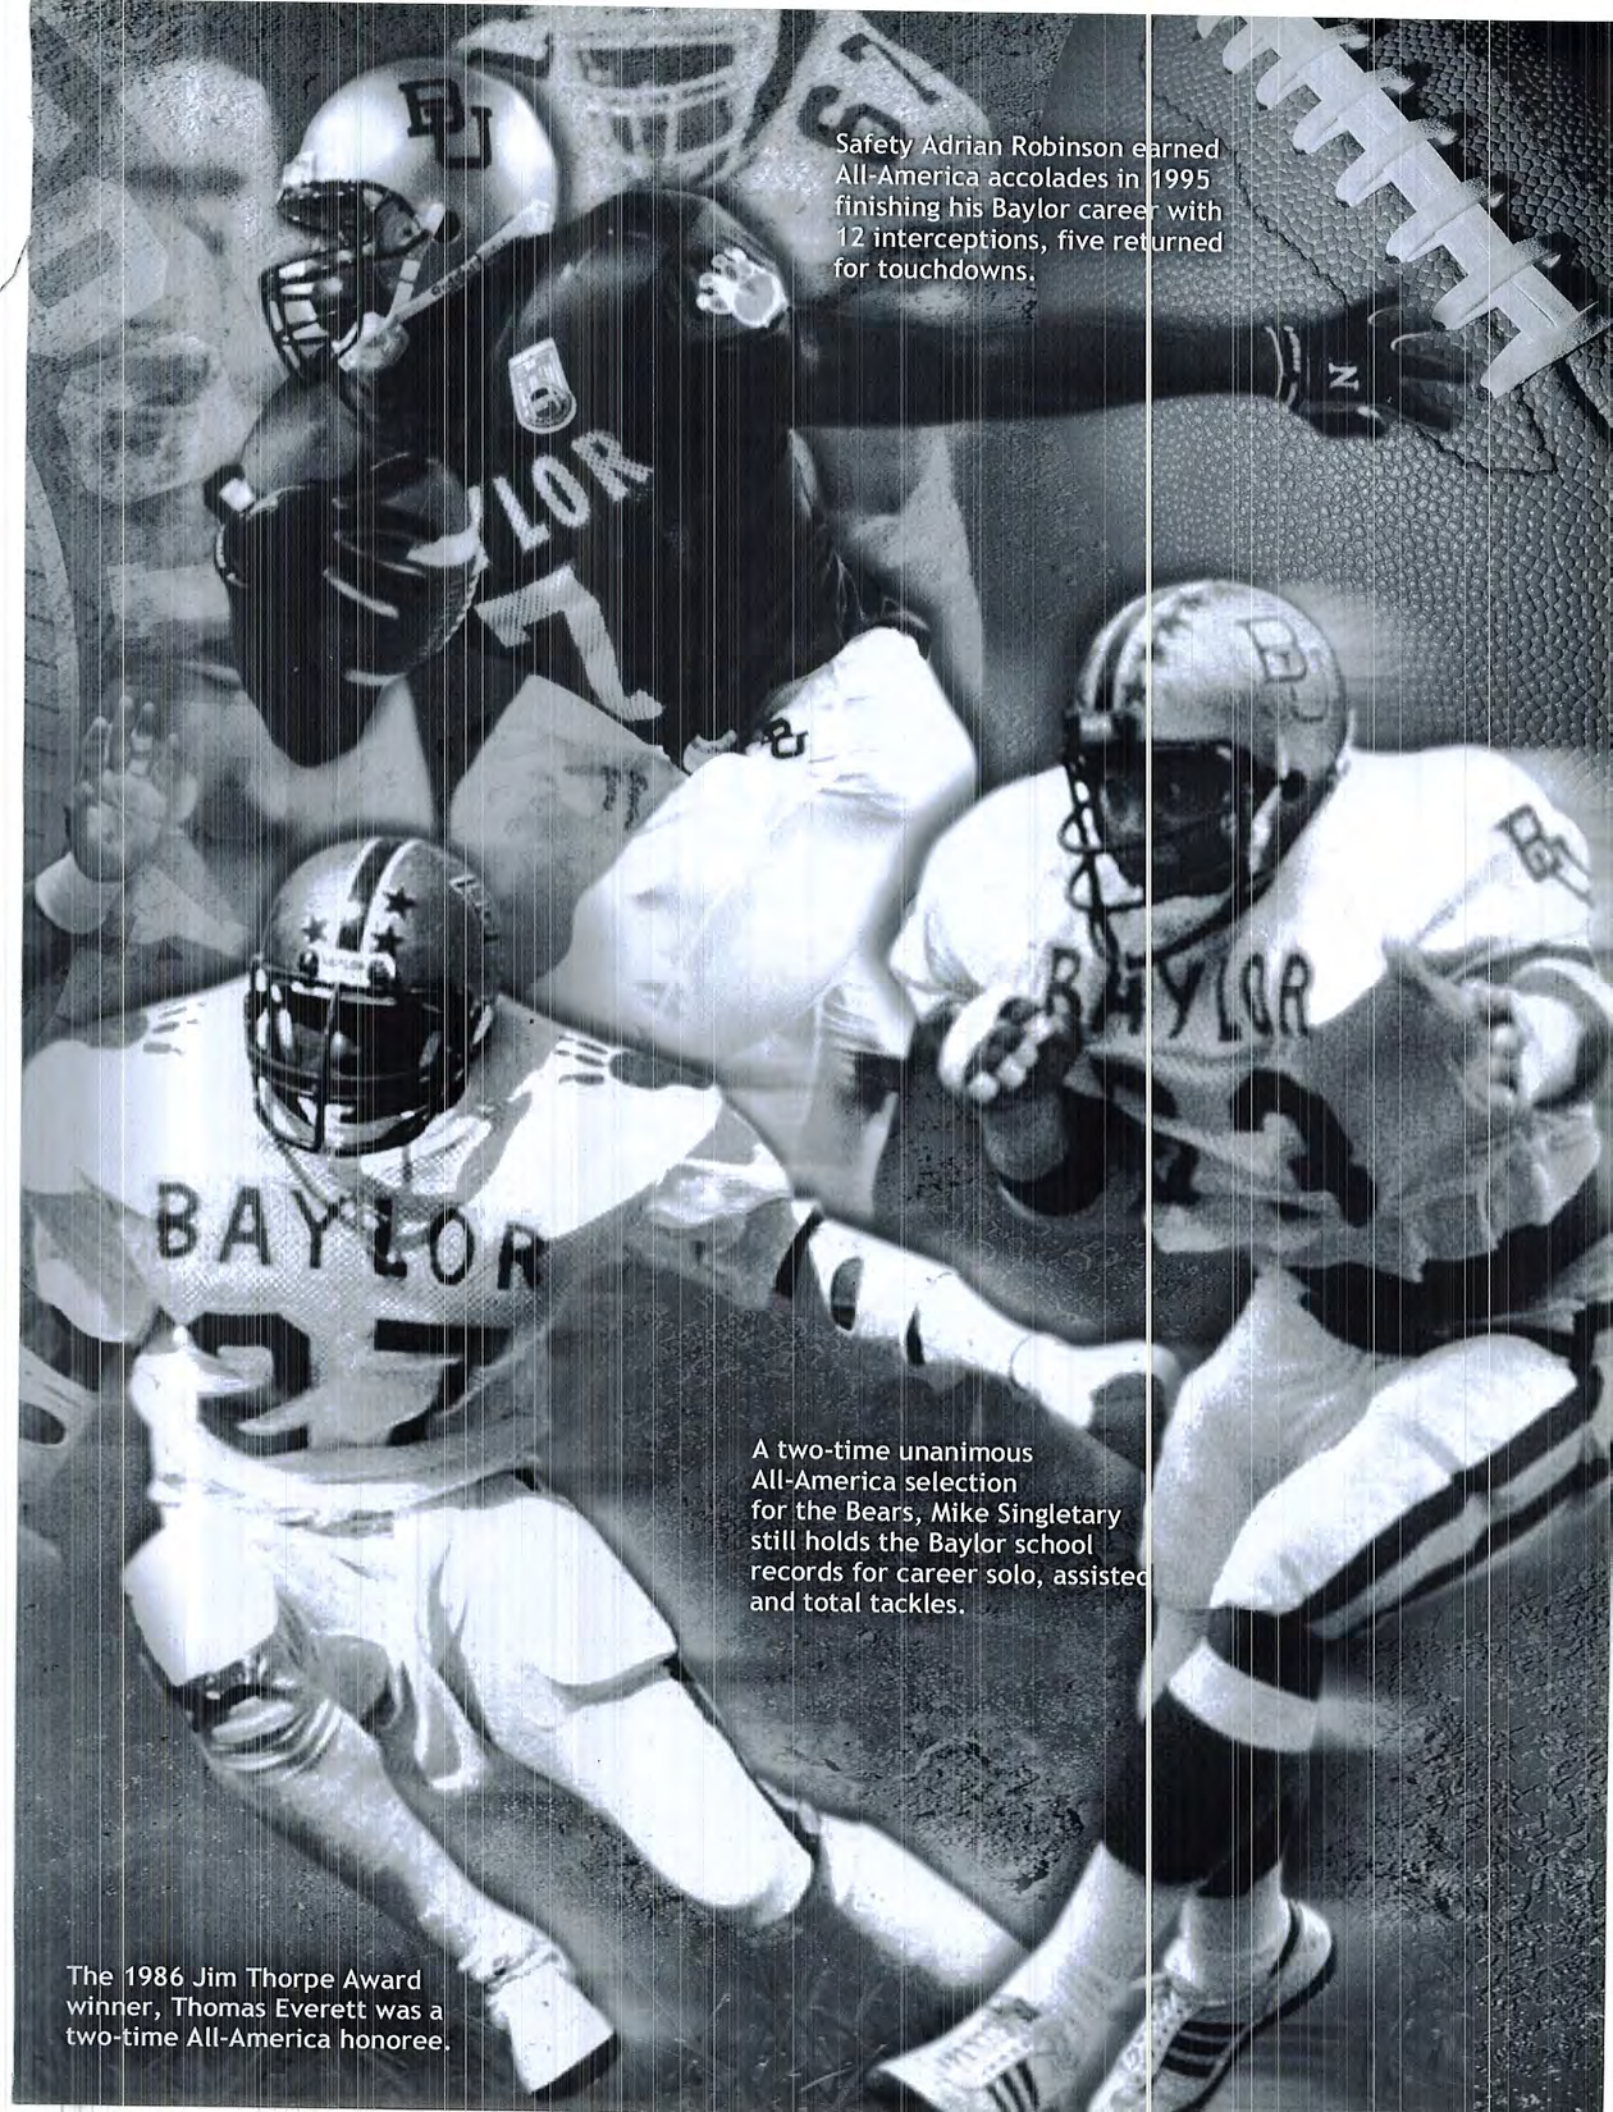
BAYLOR ALL-AMERICANS



Baylor's first football player to earn All-America honors (1921), Wesley Bradshaw, was a two-time All-SWC player who was later inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Earning All-America honors in 1989, Robert Blackmon concluded his career at Baylor with 14 interceptions and 227 tackles.

A 1991 All-America selection, Santana Dotson was also named the Southwest Conference's defensive player of the year.

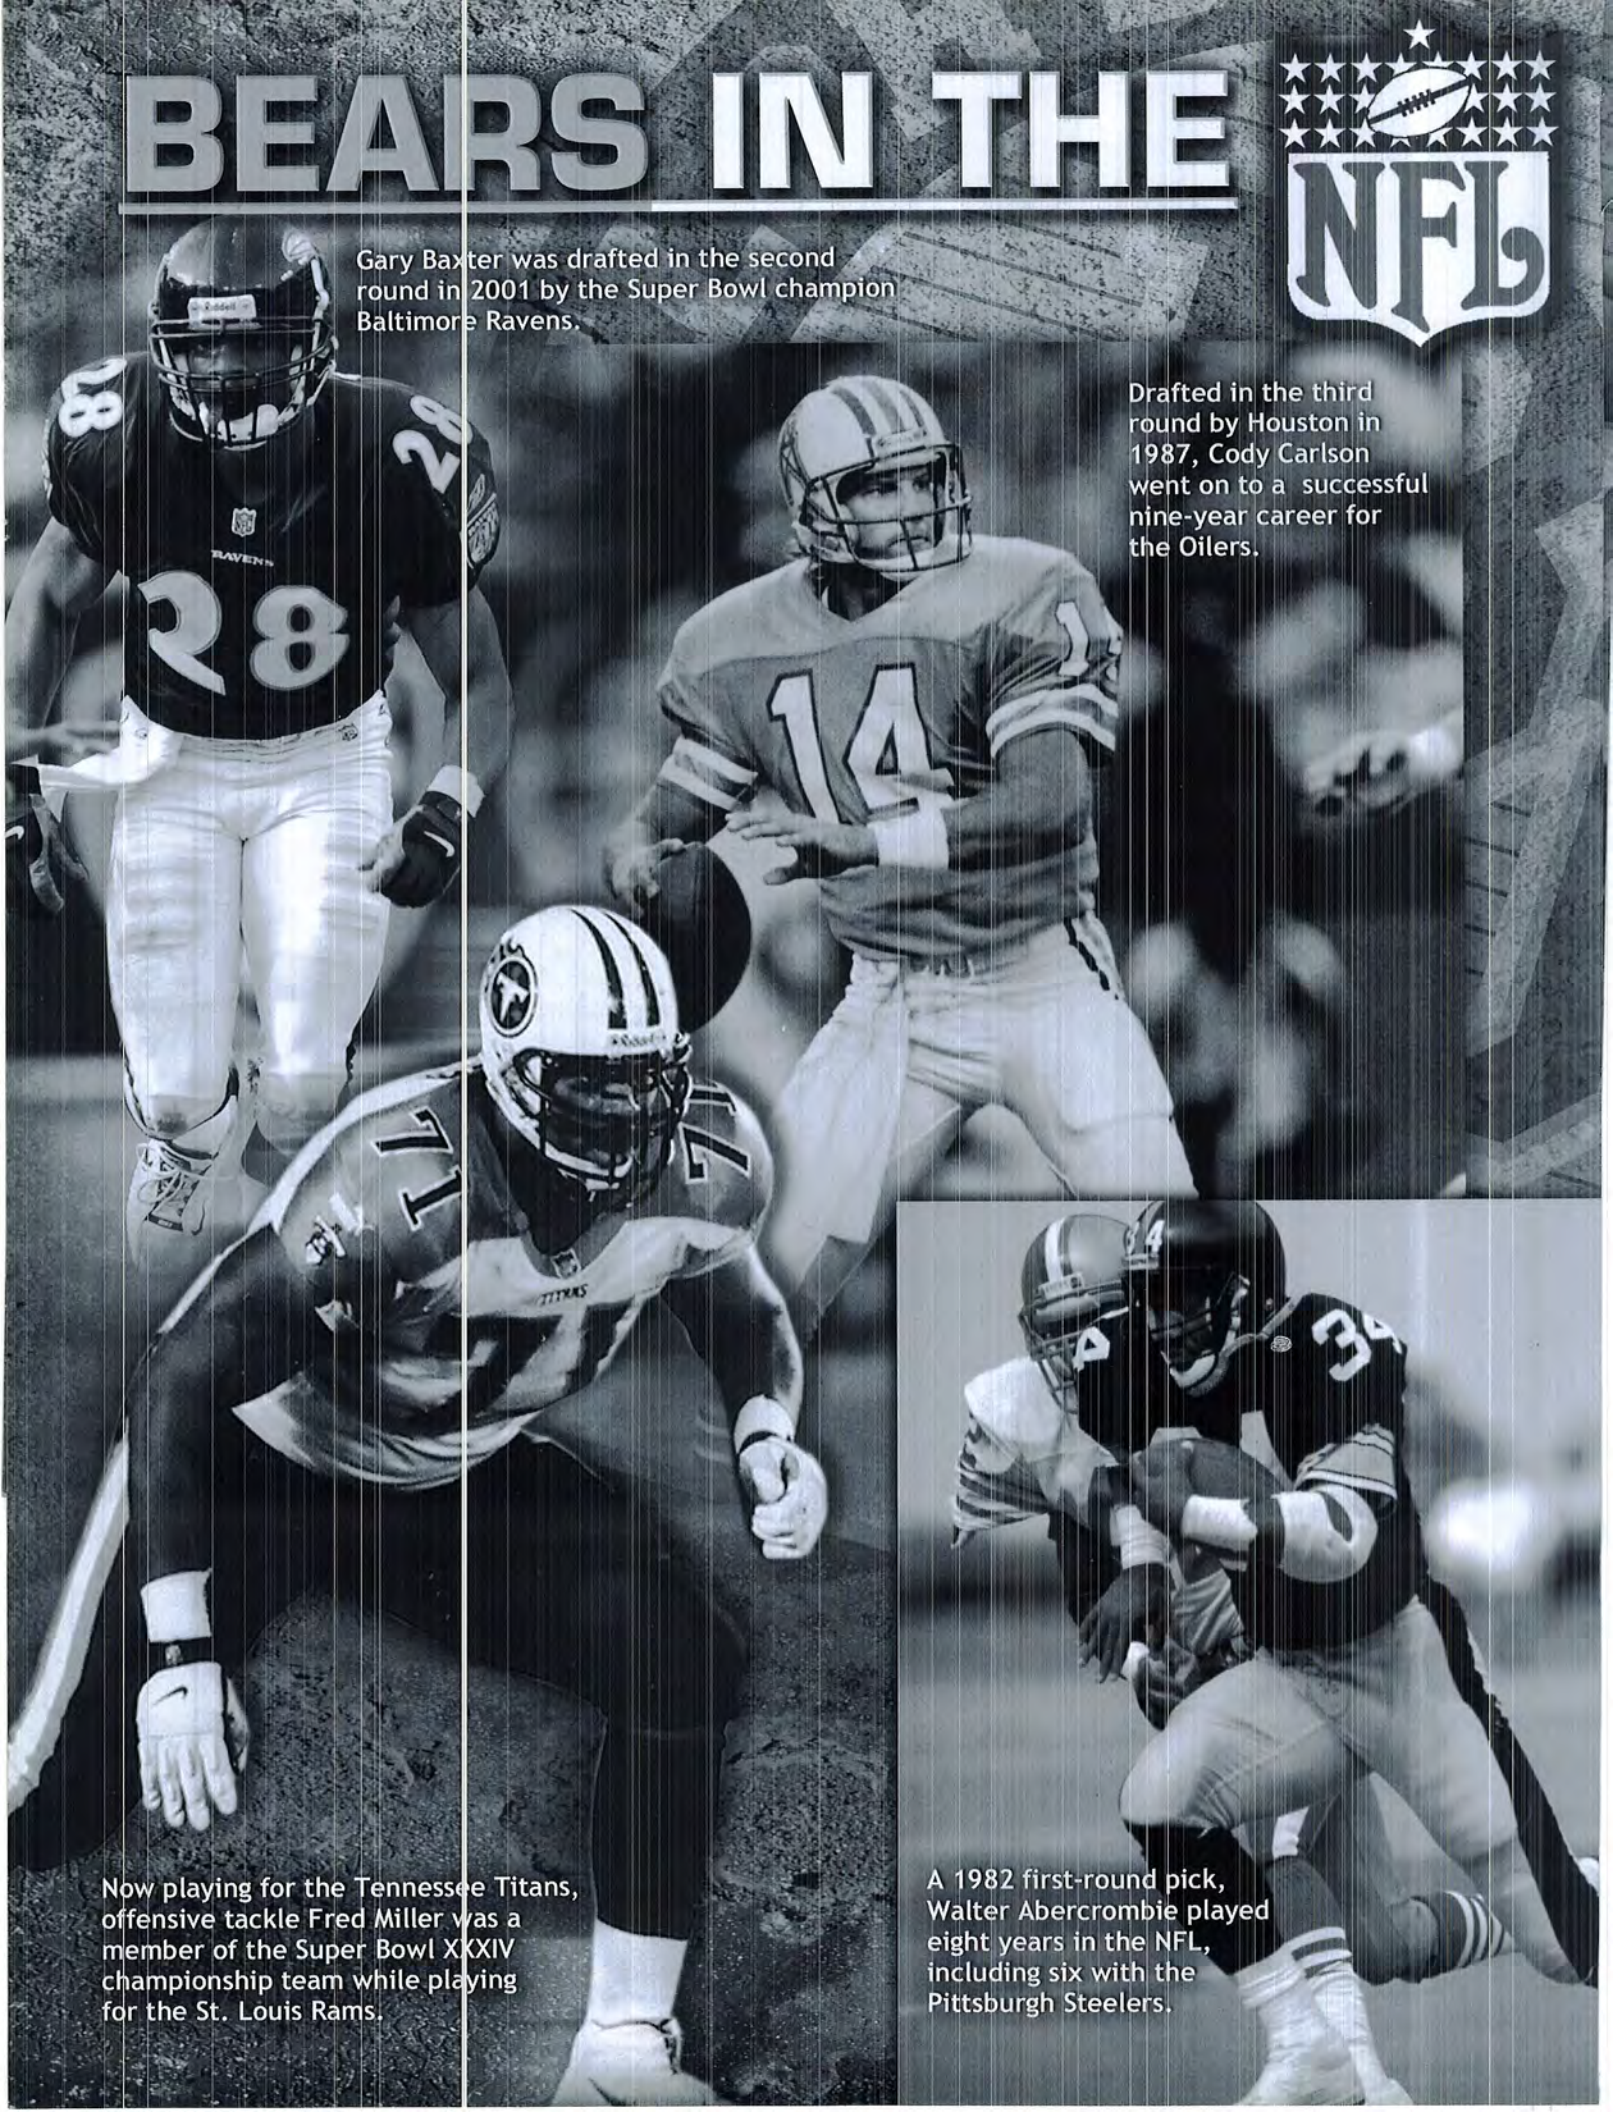


Safety Adrian Robinson earned All-America accolades in 1995 finishing his Baylor career with 12 interceptions, five returned for touchdowns.

A two-time unanimous All-America selection for the Bears, Mike Singletary still holds the Baylor school records for career solo, assisted and total tackles.

The 1986 Jim Thorpe Award winner, Thomas Everett was a two-time All-America honoree.

BEARS IN THE NFL

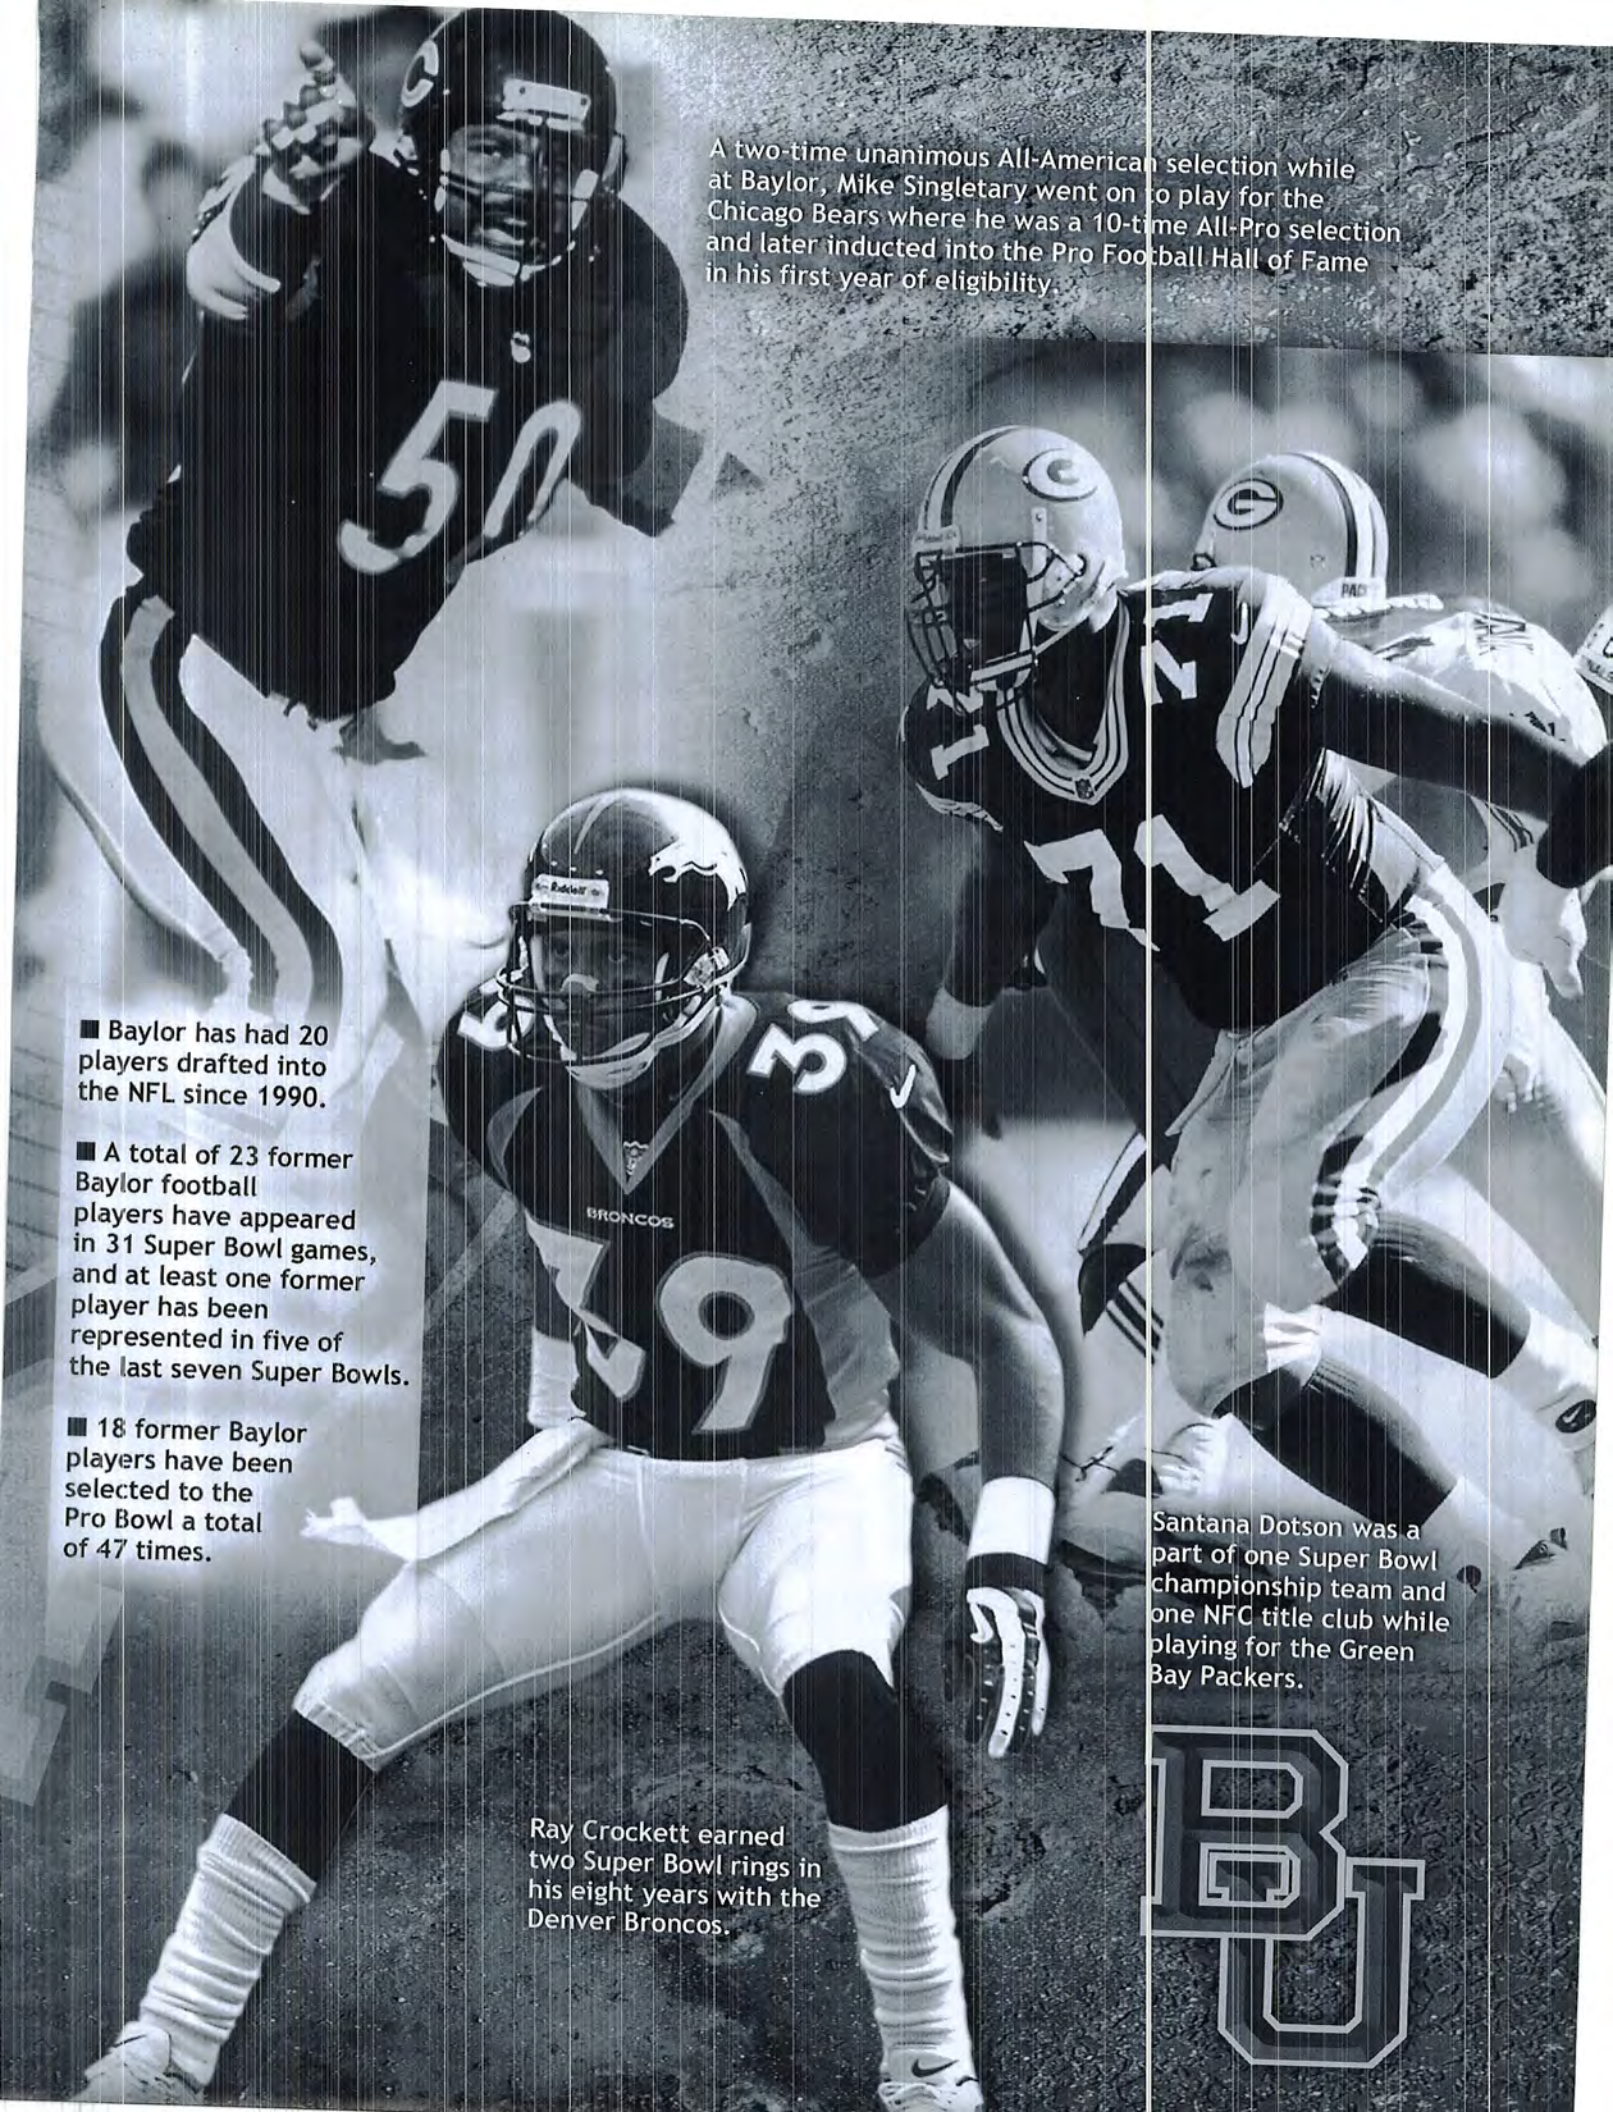


Gary Baxter was drafted in the second round in 2001 by the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens.

Drafted in the third round by Houston in 1987, Cody Carlson went on to a successful nine-year career for the Oilers.

Now playing for the Tennessee Titans, offensive tackle Fred Miller was a member of the Super Bowl XXXIV championship team while playing for the St. Louis Rams.

A 1982 first-round pick, Walter Abercrombie played eight years in the NFL, including six with the Pittsburgh Steelers.



A two-time unanimous All-American selection while at Baylor, Mike Singletary went on to play for the Chicago Bears where he was a 10-time All-Pro selection and later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

- Baylor has had 20 players drafted into the NFL since 1990.
- A total of 23 former Baylor football players have appeared in 31 Super Bowl games, and at least one former player has been represented in five of the last seven Super Bowls.
- 18 former Baylor players have been selected to the Pro Bowl a total of 47 times.

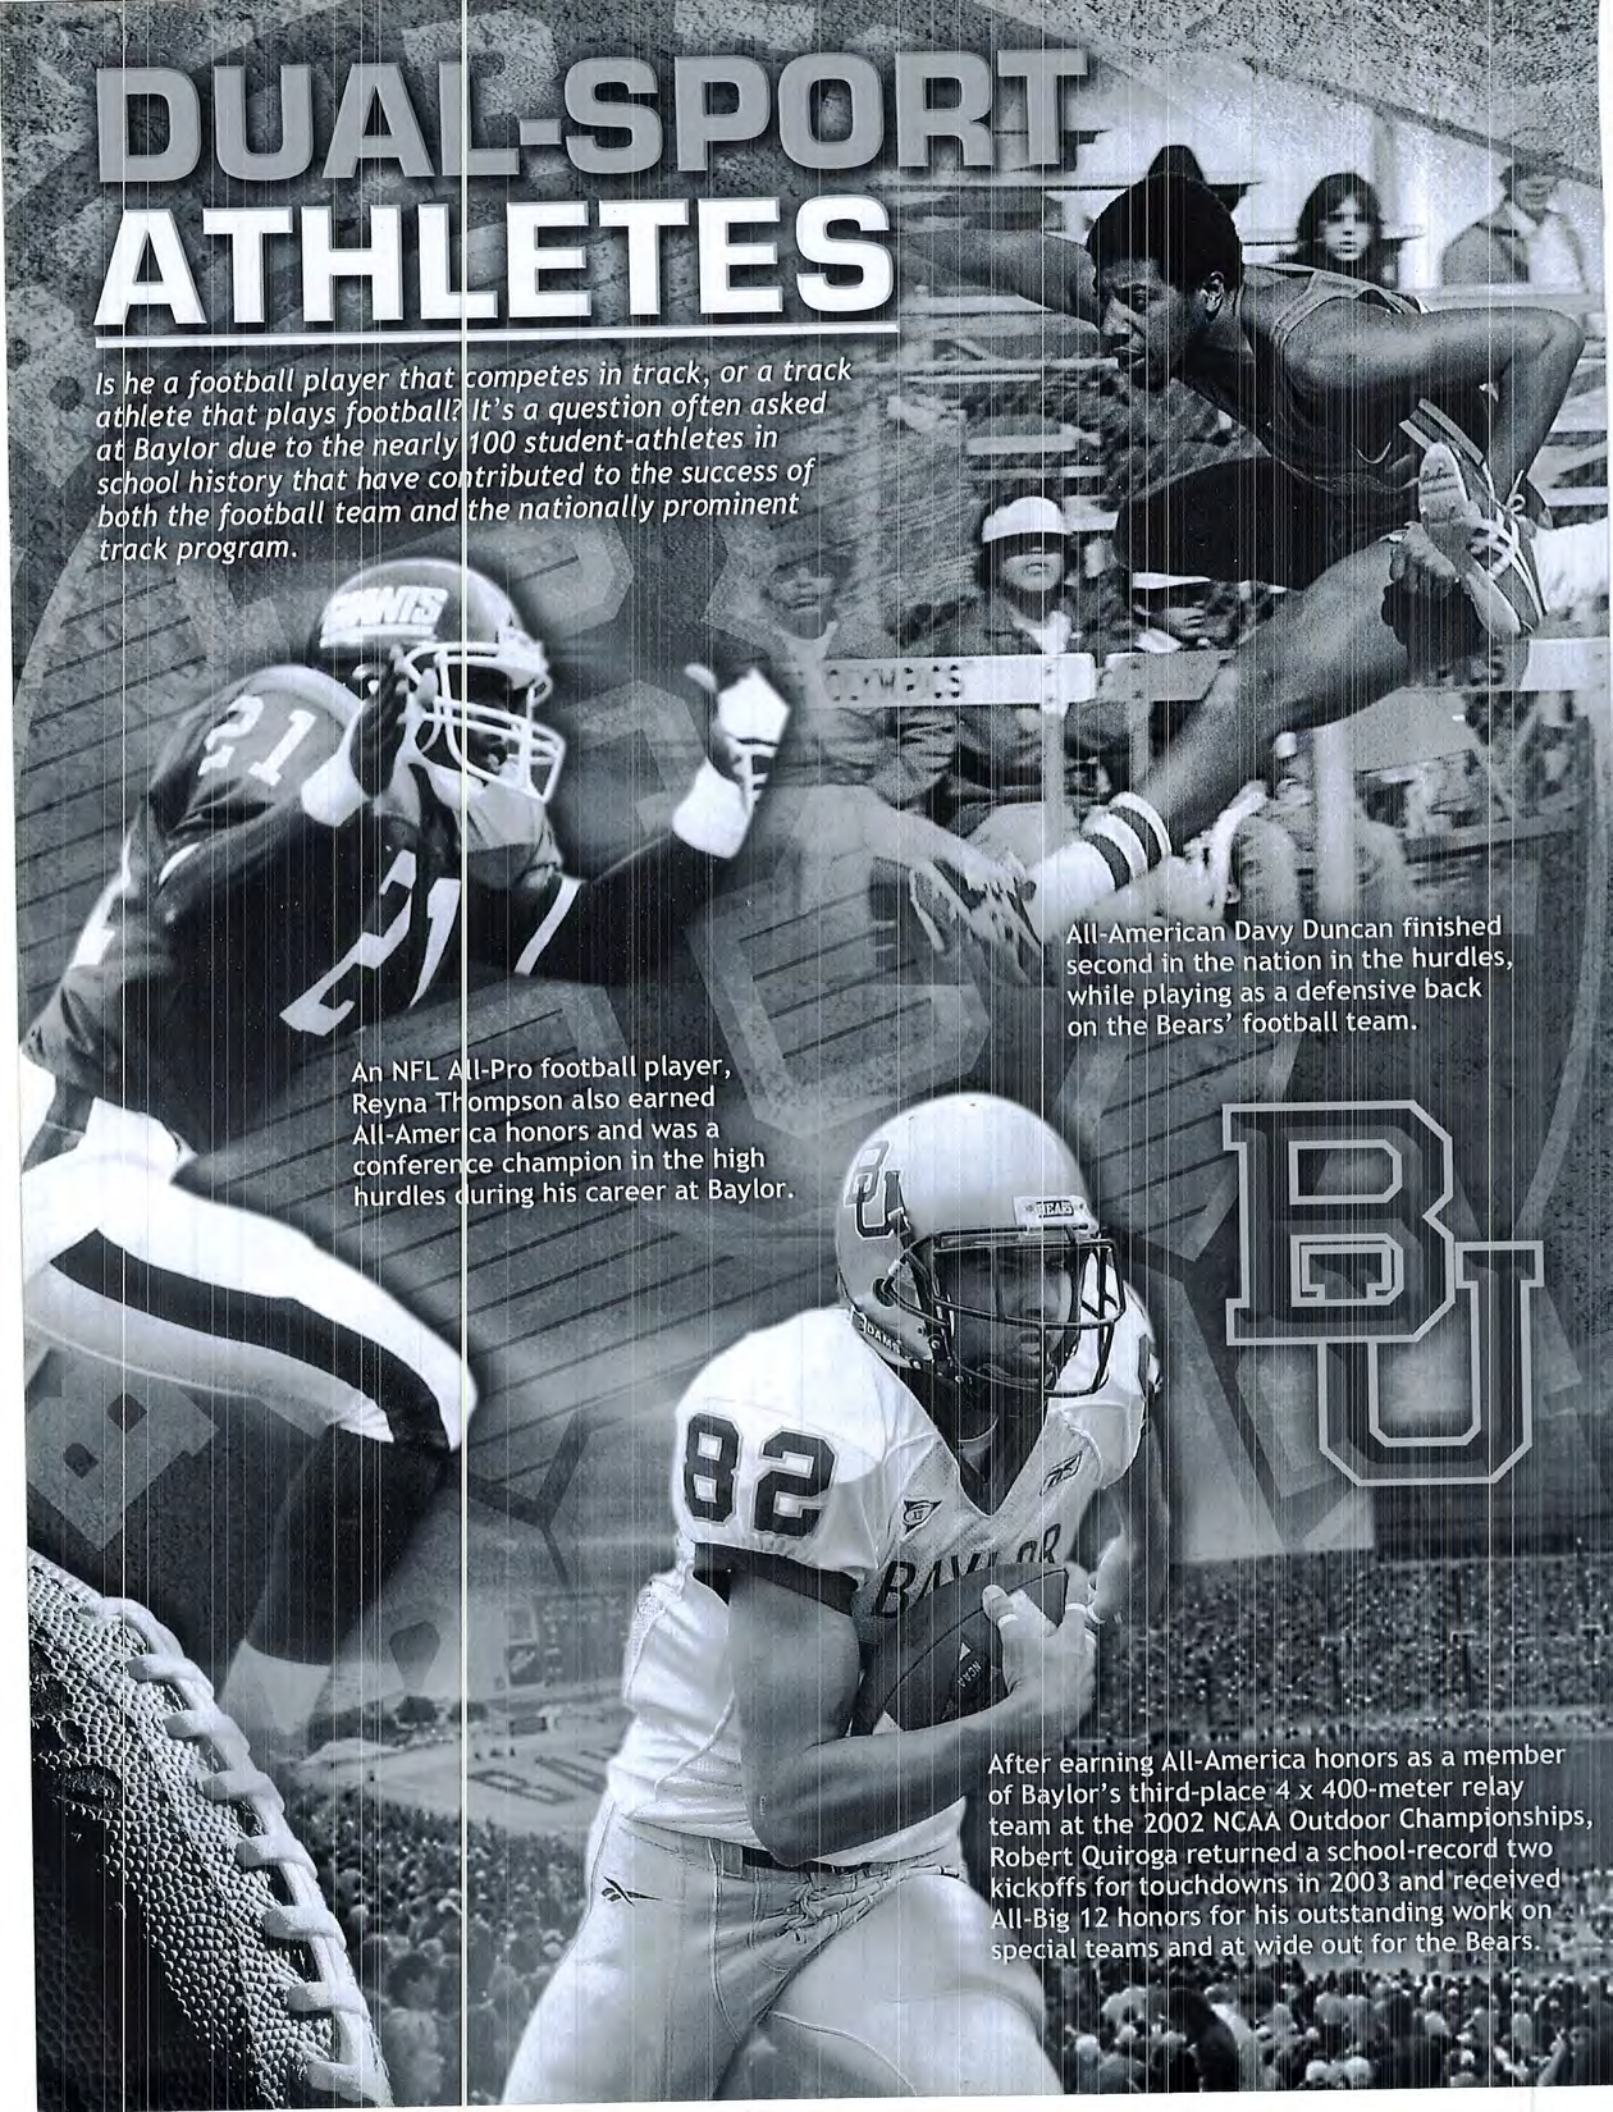
DUAL-SPORT ATHLETES

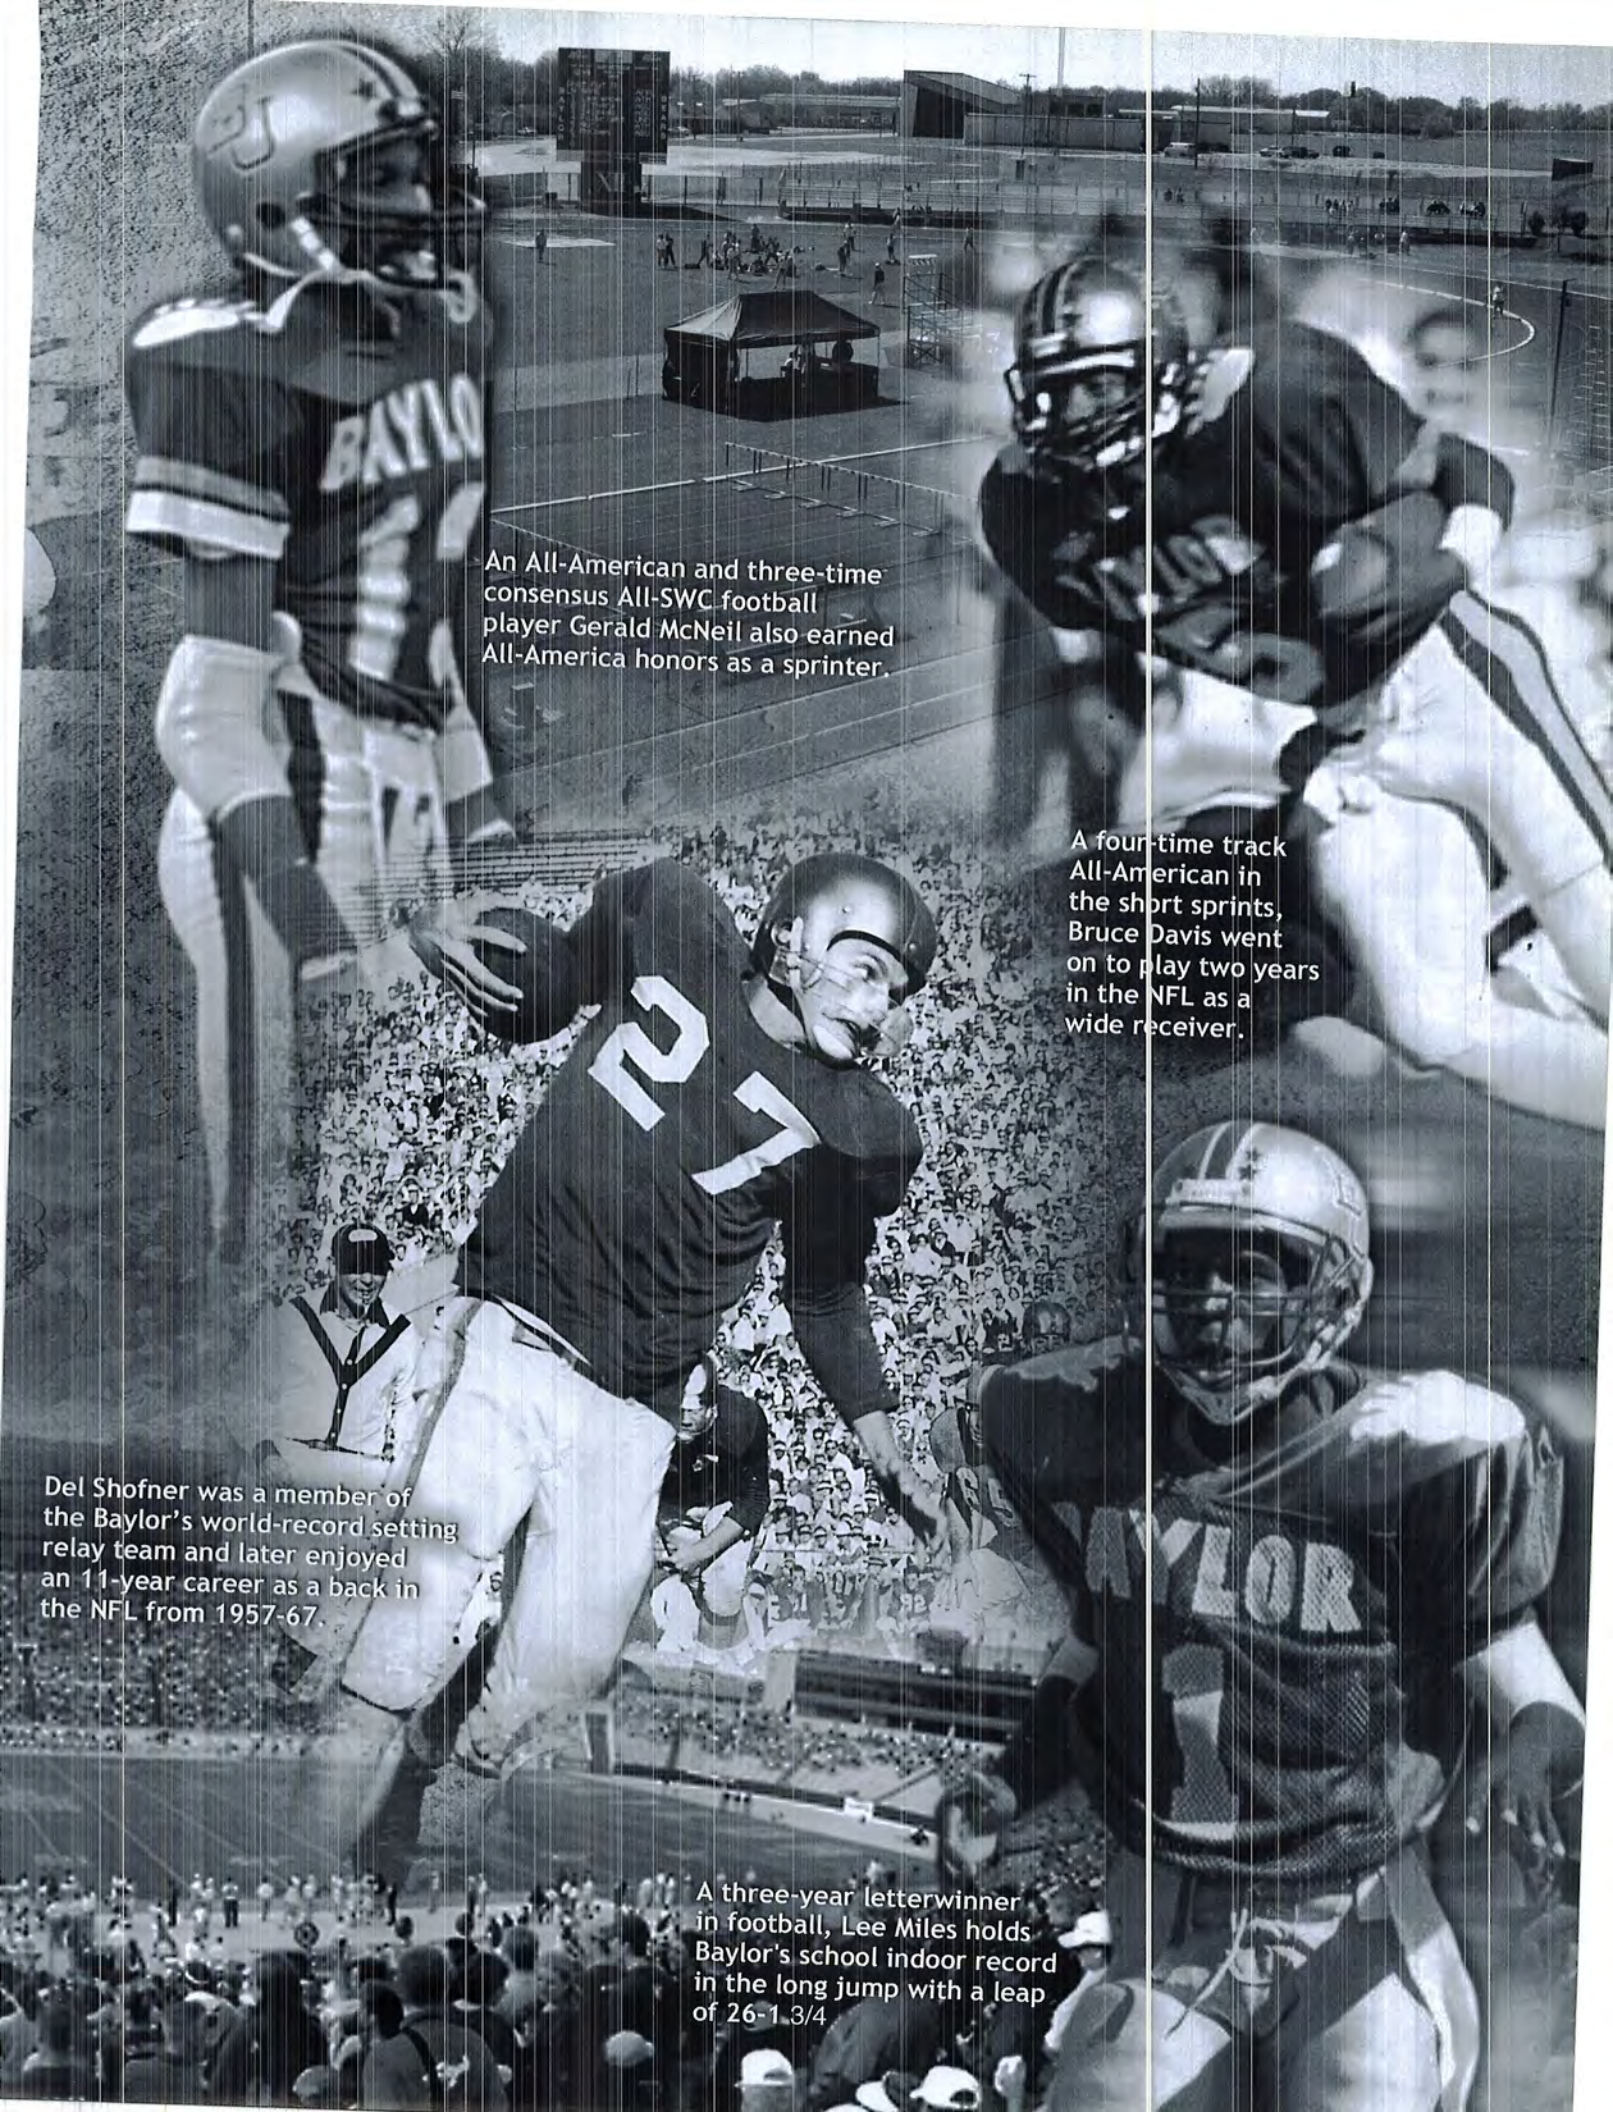
Is he a football player that competes in track, or a track athlete that plays football? It's a question often asked at Baylor due to the nearly 100 student-athletes in school history that have contributed to the success of both the football team and the nationally prominent track program.



All-American Davy Duncan finished second in the nation in the hurdles, while playing as a defensive back on the Bears' football team.

An NFL All-Pro football player, Reyna Thompson also earned All-America honors and was a conference champion in the high hurdles during his career at Baylor.

After earning All-America honors as a member of Baylor's third-place 4 x 400-meter relay team at the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Robert Quiroga returned a school-record two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2003 and received All-Big 12 honors for his outstanding work on special teams and at wide out for the Bears.



An All-American and three-time consensus All-SWC football player Gerald McNeil also earned All-America honors as a sprinter.

A four-time track All-American in the short sprints, Bruce Davis went on to play two years in the NFL as a wide receiver.

Del Shofner was a member of the Baylor's world-record setting relay team and later enjoyed an 11-year career as a back in the NFL from 1957-67.

A three-year letterwinner in football, Lee Miles holds Baylor's school indoor record in the long jump with a leap of 26-1 3/4

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

- Since its inception in 1996, the Big 12 Conference has quickly established itself as one of the nation's elite football leagues. Big 12 schools have combined to produce 17 national champions, 237 first-team All-Americans and 11 Heisman Trophy winners.
- The Big 12 has placed eight teams in bowl games each of the last three seasons.
- Featuring the conference's top teams from the South and North Divisions, the 2004 Big 12 Championship Game will be played Dec. 4 at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, Mo.
- National television coverage is routine in the Big 12. The league has agreements with ABC, Fox Sports Net and TBS Superstation to show games in 2004.

In eight years competing in the ultra-competitive Big 12 Conference, Baylor has won eight league championships (an average of one title per year). Contrast that to the 24 Southwest Conference titles won in the 81 years the school was in that league (one title every three years).

BAYLOR ATHLETICS

■ A charter member of the Big 12 Conference, Baylor teams have captured 11 Big 12 championships, eight regular season titles and three tournament crowns.

■ Baylor is one of seven Big 12 schools to have won at least 11 league titles in the conference's eight-year history.

■ In 2003-04, the Baylor men's tennis team won the school's first-ever national team title in any sport with a 4-0 victory over UCLA in the championship match.

■ Baylor has finished among the nation's top 70 athletic programs in the final Directors' Cup rankings eight times in the Cup's 11-year history.

■ The 2003-04 academic year saw 11 Baylor teams participate in their sport's respective NCAA Championships. In addition to the school's first-ever NCAA team championship, the Lady Bear basketball team reached the NCAA's Sweet 16 for the first time ever and Baylor's softball and women's golf teams made their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearances.

■ Baylor's Jeremy Wariner captured the 2004 NCAA indoor 400-meter title and helped the Bears to a gold medal in the 4x400-meter relay, feats he repeated at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Bears' Benjamin Becker also won the 2004 NCAA men's tennis singles title to give Baylor five NCAA individual championships to go with its one NCAA team title in 2003-04.

BAYLOR GOLD

■ The Baylor Gold is a group of students selected to represent Baylor University in various recruiting activities while also generating spirit for the football team. Their primary duties include hosting football recruits and their families at all home games as well as on their official visits to Baylor.

■ These students are vital to the football program and the whole recruiting process. They spend countless volunteer hours promoting Baylor University and its first-class academic and athletic reputations.

AIMING 4 MORE

BEARS HOPE HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF IN 2004

Historically, years that end in 4 have been good to the Baylor football program, a trend second-year Bears' coach Guy Morriss would like nothing better than to continue in 2004 as he rebuilds the school's tradition-rich program in the rugged Big 12 Conference.

Just how good have those 4-ending years been for the Bears? Since 1924, in seasons that ended in 4, Baylor has claimed three conference titles (1924, 1974, 1994), played in three bowl games (1954, 1974, 1994) and posted a .500 or better record five times (1924, 1954, 1964, 1974, 1994).

Morriss' proven track record of success, taking Kentucky from a 2-9 mark in his first season on the sideline to a 7-5 mark in year two, and the return of 16 starters (seven on offense, seven on defense and two specialists), give further hope that the Bears' gridiron fortunes are about to change for the better.

JUSTIN CROOKS

"We've got a good nucleus back and in that are a bunch of players who want to win," said Morriss, whose 2004 roster has 86 underclassmen on it, including some 49 freshmen.

"I believe this is a group of kids we can rally around," he added. "The players are familiar with the coaching staff and they know our schemes. We are just so much further ahead (than last year). I have some guarded optimism (about 2004) and feel a lot better about our football program right now than I did at this time last year."

In Morriss' first season in Waco, the Bears enjoyed their longest win streak since 1996, a three-game string punctuated by a 42-30 win over two-time Big 12 North champion Colorado; produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in Rashad Armstrong; recorded the school's highest sack total (29) since 1994 and held the nation's then-No. 1 team, Oklahoma, to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards. Baylor, though, ended the season on a seven-game losing streak, but, Morriss and his staff believed the Bears showed promise in their final two outings at No. 1 Oklahoma and against No. 24 Oklahoma State in Waco.

BU's defense harassed the Oklahoma offense all day and was credited with eight tackles for loss, including five sacks, in the 41-3 setback. The Bears' defensive game plan was later credited by some in assisting Kansas State's upset of the Sooners in the Big 12 title game. The next week against the Cotton Bowl-bound Cowboys, Baylor took OSU deep into the fourth quarter before falling 38-21.

"Our best game last year was against Oklahoma because we came away from it with some confidence," Morriss said. "We didn't win the game, but the kids learned they could play with a team like Oklahoma. How lasting that confidence will be, we'll see pretty quick."

That new-found confidence will be tested early and often in 2004 as the Bears will play seven of their 11 games, including six of eight in Big 12 play, against teams which earned bowl invitations in 2003.

"It is important that we have some success early in the year," Morriss said. "We have to stay healthy and upset some folks we aren't supposed to beat in order to reach our goals.

"I thought I could see the Baylor football program starting to learn to play hard by the end of last year," Morriss continued. "We've come a pretty good ways. But, everything about resurrecting a program is a slow process. We aren't trying to turn around 130 kids, but the mindset of a whole University."

OFFENSE

Baylor returns seven starters on offense including four along the offensive line. Spring practice didn't produce a clear-cut No. 1 at quarterback, so the four-way battle among sophomore Shawn Bell, junior college transfer Dane King, fifth-year senior Aaron Karas and redshirt freshman Terrance Parks will continue during fall camp. In addition, a replacement for Armstrong needs to be found at running back and depth at tight end must be developed.

Under the leadership of first-year offensive coordinator Brent Pease, Baylor's signal callers completed a school single-season record 56.5 percent of their passes in 2003 while the Bears produced their best ground attack (110.0 ypg) since 1998.

SEASON OUTLOOK

QUARTERBACKS

Bell started the Baylor's final two games a year ago and came out of the spring sharing the top spot with King. He threw for 465 yards with one touchdown and one interception over Baylor's final three games in 2003, while connecting on 63.0 percent of his passes over that stretch.

"Shawn is real smart," Morriss said. "He won't do things that get you beat, and that'll take him a long way."

The heralded King earned second-team All-America honors a year ago at Blinn (Texas) College. He led the National Junior College Athletic Association in both passing (310.8 ypg) and total offense (322.3 ypg) and completed 59.2 percent of his passes for the 2003 Bucs.

"Dane has the swagger you like to see in a quarterback," Morriss said. "He leveled off at the end of spring practice, but he had a good spring."

Then there's Karas, a 21-game career starter who holds the school's all-time record for completion percentage (.591) and ranks among the Bears' top 10 in 11 career offensive categories, and Parks, an athletic performer who showed play-making abilities during spring practice, applying the pressure behind Bell and King.

"We probably won't decide on a starter until we get on the plane for Birmingham (for the season-opener at UAB)," Morriss said. "We'll just have to see how things shake out during two-a-days and go from there. But, we have some options and competition (for the starting job) tends to bring out the best in players."

RUNNING BACKS

All-Big 12 performer Armstrong and the school's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign since 1995 are gone, but the Bears have four players, seniors Anthony Krieg and Jonathan Golden, as well as sophomores Paul Mosley and Brandon Whitaker, pushing for Armstrong's job.

Krieg was the team's second-leading rusher a year ago with 222 yards on 56 carries and is listed first on the depth chart. Golden, who elected to take a redshirt year in 2003, has nine career starts in the backfield and needs just 303 yards to reach the 1,000-yard plateau for his career. He shares the second position on the depth chart with Mosley.

Mosley, one of the biggest surprises of spring practice, impressed the Baylor staff with his power-running ability despite recording just one carry in 2003. Whitaker, meanwhile, saw action in eight games a year ago as a true freshman and carried 31 times for 42 yards.

The most-experienced player in the Bears' backfield is senior fullback Jonathan Evans, who has made 13 career starts. Evans was the team's third-leading rusher a year ago with 65 yards on 25 carries and ranked as the squad's fifth-best receiver with 15 receptions for 136 yards.

Behind Evans are sophomores Jonathan Sisk and Damon Dotson. Neither player has a Baylor rush attempt to his name, and Dotson was moved from linebacker during spring practice.

"I'd say Mosley was a standout and had a good spring," said Morriss. "He really came along. If we end up running the ball quite a bit, he's going to be prominent. If we can't open any holes up front and have to throw the ball all the time, his blocking and passing game knowledge isn't the same as an Anthony Krieg or a Jonathan Golden.

"We have enough talent in the backfield, it's just a question if they can all come through for us back there when the lights go on."

RECEIVERS

Baylor's top receiver from a year ago, Robert Quiroga, completed his eligibility, but the Bears return a strong group headlined by senior Marques Roberts and fifth-year junior John Martin.

One of the Bears' most-experienced players, Roberts started all 12 games a year ago and tied for second on the squad in receptions with 25 for 224 yards and two scores. He needs 26 receptions to crack Baylor's top 10 and 348 yards to become the school's 21st career 1,000-yard receiver.

The sure-handed Martin, meanwhile, missed eight 2003 games due to illness but still finished as the team's sixth-leading receiver with 12 catches for 139 yards. He has missed nearly two full seasons with injuries and illness over his career was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA last summer. Like Roberts, he's also making a run at BU's all-time receptions chart, where he's just 23 catches shy of cracking the top 10.

Sophomore Trent Shelton is listed second behind Roberts after catching 25 passes for 298 yards and one touchdown a year ago. Junior J Fields is Martin's back-up after hauling in nine passes for 141 yards a year ago and averaging a team-high 15.7 yards per reception.

Sophomore Dominique Zeigler and junior Shaun Rochon rank 1-2 at Baylor's third wide out position, and enjoyed strong springs. Zeigler, who doubles as a standout jumper on the Baylor track and field team, made nine receptions for 83 yards as a true freshman. An All-America wide out at Mary Hardin-Baylor, Rochon sat out the 2003 campaign as a transfer, but the speedster impressed enough to earn scout team MVP honors.

"I believe there are five or six players in this group that can really play," Morriss said. "There is not just one guy that jumps off the page at you right now, but the group is solid.

"We are just going to have to put them in the right place at the right time to be successful," he added. "We know their strengths, so now we have to try and take advantage of them."

Baylor's top tight end a year ago, Shane Williams, completed his eligibility, leaving a big void. Senior Marcus Venus caught five passes for 70 yards in seven appearances as a junior and is listed first on the depth chart. But behind him are two redshirt freshmen, Mike Miller and Jeff Ward, so developing depth at this position will be a priority during fall camp.

LINEMEN

Four starters return from an O-line that helped pave the way for Armstrong's 1,000-yard season, but Morriss listed this position as his biggest concern heading into the fall because of nagging injuries to some key performers and the fact that seven of the 12 players listed on the preseason depth chart are underclassmen.

Senior All-Big 12 candidate Quintin Outland is the team's most experienced lineman, with 26 career starts, and returns for his third season as the Bears' first-team left tackle. Junior Glen Oskin started eight games at left guard a year ago and returns to that position after spending much of the spring working at center.

With four-year starter Cedric Fields gone, senior Joseph DeWoody is listed as the Bears' top center. However, junior college transfer Yancy Boatner is expected to push for the top spot during fall camp.

On the right side, junior All-Big 12 candidate Lequalan McDonald started all 12 games a year ago at guard and he'll again hold down that spot. Sophomore Nick Pace started all 12 games as a true freshman at right tackle but missed all of spring practice while recovering from back surgery. The All-Big 12 candidate is expected to be near full-speed when practice begins.

"I think we're playing faster, we're stronger and we're in better shape, but we've got to get healthy," Morriss said. "The offensive line is the area that concerns me more than any other (heading into the season). We've got some good talent there, but the inexperience and injury factors both are working at the same time."

ANTHONY KRIEG

DEFENSE

Seven starters return for a defense which will be guided by first-year coordinator Bill Bradley, who brings 21 years of professional and collegiate coaching experience into the Baylor program. A trio of All-America candidates, senior linebacker Justin Crooks, junior free safety Maurice Lane and junior outside safety Willie Andrews, headline the Bears' defense which will continue to feature a 4-2 look under Bradley.

"I want us to play more aggressively (on defense)," he added. "We may have to take a few more risks to make things happen and do a couple of things differently in the secondary."

LINEMEN

One of the areas that drew rave reviews during spring ball was the defensive line, where three starters return. The D-line will be anchored by fifth-year senior end and All-Big 12 candidate Khari Long, who started all 12 games as a junior and ranked 10th on the team in tackles with 31 stops. Behind Long will be sophomore Marcus Foreman and fifth-year senior Luke Groth, both of whom saw considerable playing time a year ago.

Baylor returns both of its 2003 first-team defensive tackles in sophomores M.T. Robinson and Quincy Jenkins. Robinson, who started all 12 games in 2003, had seven tackles for loss. Sophomores Julian Hill and Corey Ford are listed behind Robinson.

Jenkins drew six starts a year ago and shares the top spot on the BU depth chart with junior Michael Gary, who saw action in eight games a year ago and had an impressive spring. Iowa State sophomore transfer Klayton Shoals, who sat out the 2003 season, will also be in the hunt for playing time at defensive tackle.

Junior Montez Murphy is expected to replace Dominick Cravens as the Bears other first-team defensive end. He practiced with the team a year ago, but did not play.

KHARI LONG

The athletic Murphy was a standout during spring practice and should push for All-Big 12 honors in his final two seasons at Baylor. Sophomore Anderson Horn backs up Murphy.

"This is an area where we should be a lot better than we were a year ago," Morriss said. "We need to see dramatic improvement at the end spots, and Khari Long and Montez Murphy give us a pair of quality players there. We will have a little more depth than we did last year, which should help us, too."

LINEBACKERS

Two players, Stephen Sepulveda and John Garrett, completed their eligibility, but All-America candidate Crooks returns. Sepulveda started 11 of 12 games a year ago and Garrett finished his career as one of Baylor's all-time sack leaders.

Crooks was Baylor's second-leading tackler a year ago with 72 stops, including 9.5 tackles for loss. Junior Tyler Lindstrom and fifth-year senior James Irwin should challenge Crooks.

Junior Colin Allred emerged from spring practice as BU's other first-team linebacker. He saw action in 11 games a year ago and was credited with 14 stops. Fifth-year senior Michael Tolbert, who owns five career starts, and junior Jamaal Harper, who had 26 tackles last year, will push Allred.

"We've got four veteran guys in the mix and some talented freshmen coming in, so I feel pretty good about our linebackers," Morriss said.

SAFETIES

Baylor must replace outside safety Derrick Cash, the team's fourth-leading tackler (62) who started all 12 games at that position a year ago, but it returns starters Lane and Andrews.

An honorable mention Associated Press All-Big 12 pick, Lane made 12 starts and led the Bears in tackles (129), solos (89) and assists (40). He ranked fifth in the Big 12 and 30th nationally with 10.75 tackles per game, while his 7.42 solo tackles per game led the Big 12 and ranked 13th nationally.

Two redshirt freshmen, Kyle Seals and Bennett Hoefer, are listed behind Lane.

Andrews also turned in a strong sophomore campaign, not only in the secondary, but on the Bears' kick off and punt return teams, too. He shares the top spot on Baylor's depth chart with senior Michael Boyd, who is also listed second to Anthony Arline at cornerback. Andrews was third on the team in tackles with 67 stops and recorded a team-high two interceptions. Redshirt freshman Nick Fellows stands behind Andrews and Boyd.

Sophomore Maurice Linguist has emerged as Cash's replacement and is listed first on the depth chart. His 38 stops a year ago ranked seventh on the team. Two redshirt freshmen, Brannan Moton and Zach Zachry, are listed second and third on the depth chart behind Linguist.

CORNERBACKS

Five of the six players listed on Morriss' preseason depth chart at cornerback are underclassmen, as sophomore James Todd and Arline are the only returnees with starting experience.

Sophomore C.J. Wilson is listed first at one corner position after recording 13 tackles a year ago. Todd, a six-game starter as a rookie, is second behind Wilson and redshirt freshman Josh Bell is third.

Arline, who started two games a year ago and finished the year with 19 tackles, tops among returning BU corners, has taken over for the departed Matt Johnson at the other cornerback spot. Boyd is listed behind Arline with redshirt freshman Braelon Davis, a member of Baylor's 2004 NCAA national champion 4x400-meter relay team and the son of former Baylor standout Bruce Davis, third.

"C.J. Wilson, Nick Fellows, Kyle Seals, Brannan Moton, Braelon Davis, they all looked good in the spring," Morriss said. "Davis is going to be a player. That kid can flat run, and being out for track has helped him.

"Our safeties and corners are the strongest positions we have on defense," he added.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Arguably the 2003 team's strength under the direction of special teams coordinator Mark Nelson, Baylor returns its starting place-kicker in senior Kenny Webb and its top punter in sophomore Ray Guy Award and All-America candidate Daniel Sepulveda. In addition, Andrews returns after setting school single-season records for total kick returns (59) and kick return yardage (875), and several of the Bears' fleet-footed defensive backs should bolster the Bears' kick return and coverage units.

Webb was the Bears' leading scorer a year ago with 45 points, connecting on all 24 PAT attempts and 7-of-13 field goals. A fifth-year senior, he has made 26-of-26 career PATs.

Despite not having any previous punting experience, Sepulveda averaged 43.1 yards per kick en route to first-team All-Big 12 honors from College Football News and second-team recognition from the Big 12 coaches. His 43.1 yard average is second among returning Big 12 punters and 18th among returning 2003 NCAA leaders. A BU one-year record 26 of Sepulveda's 87 punts went 50 yards or farther and he averaged 43.0 yards or better eight times.

"Daniel has a major-league leg," Morriss said. "He's more of a value to us as a punter than he would be at linebacker."

Not only did the Bears show improvement in the kicking game, put their kick off and punt return units were also better. Baylor's kick off return average increased from 16.3 yards in 2002 to 22.9 yards last, while its punt return mark grew to 8.1 yards from its 2002 average of 8.0.

PRESEASON NOTES

TOUGH SCHEDULE AWAITS BEARS

After playing seven of 12 games a year ago against teams that earned bowl invitations, the 2004 Baylor football team will again tackle seven bowl opponents, six of which must be faced in Big 12 play.

The Bears' 2004 foes fashioned a combined record of 81-59 (.579) a year ago and seven earned bowl bids: North Texas (New Orleans), Texas (Holiday), Missouri (Independence), Nebraska (Alamo champion), Texas Tech (EV1.Net champion), Oklahoma State (Cotton) and Oklahoma (Sugar).

According to the web site www.nationalchamps.net, Baylor's 2004 schedule ranks as the nation's 20th-toughest and the fourth most-difficult in the Big 12 behind Kansas (No. 4), Texas A&M (No. 5) and Texas Tech (No. 9) heading into the season.

BRADLEY NAMED DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bill Bradley, a 21-year college and professional football coaching veteran who has been a member of staffs which have guided 15 teams to winning records, was named Baylor's new defensive coordinator on March 1, replacing John Goodner, who retired from coaching. Despite the change in coordinators, the Bears will continue to play a 4-2 defense in 2004.

Bradley joins coach Guy Morriss' staff from the NFL's New York Jets, where he spent the past three years (2001-03) as the team's defensive backs coach. Prior to working for the Jets, he served in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills from 1998 to 2000. Before moving into the NFL, he worked in the CFL, USFL and at the University of Texas.

An outstanding NFL player, Bradley was selected in the third round of the 1969 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and went on to earn three All-Pro awards (1971-73) as a free safety.

Morriss' other eight assistants all made the move to Waco with him from Kentucky in December 2002 and are on the 2004 staff.

BAYLOR COACHING STAFF BOASTS 186 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

The 2004 Baylor football coaching staff boasts a combined 186 years of coaching experience in the professional, collegiate and high school ranks. Seven members of this year's Baylor staff have worked for Guy Morriss since he first became a Division I-A head coach in 2001 at Kentucky.

Not only is the Baylor staff steeped in sideline experience, but it features three men, Morriss (one), Bill Bradley (three) and receivers coach Harold Jackson (five), who combined to earn nine NFL All-Pro awards between them. Two others, Mark Nelson and Brent Pease, also enjoyed professional football playing careers.

BEARS' OFFENSIVE LINE IS EXPERIENCED

While Baylor searches for a starter at quarterback, the Bears' offensive line returns four of five starters from a 2003 group that helped Rashad Armstrong become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

The strongest facet of Baylor's 2003 team was the play of its special teams, which produced four scores on the season. The Bears' special team units provided two kickoff return touchdowns and a pair of blocked kicks returned for points (one for a safety and one for a touchdown).

Sophomore Daniel Sepulveda, who had never punted prior to the 2003 season, ranked third in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally (fifth among freshman punters) with his 43.1 yard average. The 2004 Ray Guy Award and All-America candidate's average ranks second among returning Big 12 punters and 18th among returning NCAA leaders.

In addition, junior cornerback Willie Andrews returns to solidify the Bears' return game. He ranked fourth in the Big 12 and 29th nationally in kickoff returns with his 24.65 average, and his 8.0 mark on punt returns was good for 10th in the Big 12 and 71st nationally.

Baylor averaged 22.9 yards per kickoff return in 2003, its highest average since a school-record 24.7 mark in 1995, and its 1,212 yards was a school record.

BAYLOR AGAIN RANKS HIGH IN FOOTBALL GRADUATION RATES

According to the most-recent NCAA Graduation Report, the Baylor football program's 75 percent graduation rate again led the Big 12 Conference, marking the second consecutive year and the fourth time in the league's eight-year history that the program posted the league's best rate. BU also recorded the Big 12's top graduation rate for football student-athletes in 2002, 2000 and 1998.

Since the NCAA began tracking graduation data in 1991, the Baylor football program has averaged a graduation rate of nearly 65 percent. Over the last six seasons, however, more than 73 percent of the Bears have left with degree in hand.

Overall, Baylor owns a 72 percent rate for its student-athletes according to the most-recent NCAA's figures, which places it fourth in the Big 12 Conference. BU has led the Big 12 in overall student-athlete graduation rates four times and finished second on three occasions.

Three members of this year's team, fifth-year seniors Jonathan Evans and Michael Tolbert and fifth-year junior John Martin, have already earned their degrees.

MAURICE LANE, TACKLE MACHINE

Junior free safety Maurice Lane should contend for All-Big 12 and All-America honors in his final two seasons as a Baylor Bear after an outstanding sophomore campaign which saw him lead the team in tackles.

An honorable-mention All-Big 12 performer in 2003, Lane led the Bears in tackles (129), solo tackles (89) and assisted stops (40) as a sophomore when he made 12 starts. His 10.75 tackles per game ranked fifth in the Big 12 and 30th nationally with 10.75, while his 7.42 solo tackles per game led the Big 12 and ranked 13th nationally.

His 129 total stops equaled the seventh-best one-season total in school history (and were the most since James Francis' 129 total tackles in 1989), while his 89 solo tackles ranked as the third-best single-season total in school history behind Mike Singletary's performances in 1978 and 1979.

CROOKS IS BU'S DEFENSIVE LEADER

Senior linebacker Justin Crooks came on strong a year ago and the Baylor coaching staff is counting on him to assume an even bigger role in 2004. Recognized as an outstanding team leader, Crooks should contend for 2004 All-America and All-Big 12 Conference honors after ranking second on the team in total tackles as a junior with 72 stops (45 solo).

He also finished second on the team in tackles for loss with 9.5 and was credited with five or more tackles in each of the Bears' final 10 games a year ago. Crooks had a career-high-tying 10 stops against Texas and tallied a career-high five tackles for loss at Kansas State.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED

Baylor was arguably the Big 12's youngest team a year ago, as its depth chart entering the 2003 season finale against Oklahoma State featured nine true freshmen, including starters Nick Pace at right offensive tackle and defensive tackle Quincy Jenkins, and its 2004 team may be even younger with 86 underclassmen listed on its 124-man roster. No team in the Big 12 had more true freshmen on its depth chart than Baylor, as it featured a Big 12-leading 15 freshmen among the 25 underclassmen on the final 2003 two-deep.

The Bears' 2004 roster includes 49 freshmen, and its preseason depth chart lists 40 underclassmen on it, nine of whom are sophomores and listed No. 1 at their position – Shawn Bell (QB), Dominique Zeigler (WR) and Pace (RT) on the offensive side of the ball and M.T. Robinson (DT), Jenkins (DT), Maurice Linguist (OS), C.J. Wilson (CB), Anthony Arline (CB) and Daniel Sepulveda (P), on defense.

21 MAURICE LANE

KILLEEN, TEXAS (KILLEEN)

2004: The Bears' leading tackler as a sophomore, Maurice Lane will contend for All-America and All-Big 12 honors in his final two seasons after starting all 23 games he has played his first two years at Baylor ... Lane enters the season listed No. 1 on the Baylor depth chart at free safety and has more career starts (23) than any other returning BU defender.

2003: Earned honorable mention Associated Press All-Big 12 honors after leading the Bears in tackles (129), solo tackles (89) and assisted stops (40) as a sophomore when he made 12 starts ... Also had six pass breakups, 1.5 tackles for loss totaling four yards and a quarterback sack ... Ranked fifth in the Big 12 and 30th nationally with 10.75 tackles per game, while his 7.42 solo tackles per game led the Big 12 and ranked 13th nationally ... His 129 total stops equaled the seventh-best one-season total in school history (and were the most since James Francis' 129 total tackles in 1989), while his 89 solo tackles ranked as the third-best single-season total in school history behind Mike Singletary's performances in both 1978 and 1979 ... He recorded double-digit tackles in nine of 12 starts, including a career-best 23 tackle performance against Texas Tech (15 solo stops) ... His 23-tackle effort against the Red Raiders equaled the fifth-highest one-game total in school history, most by a Bear since Singletary's 23-tackle performance against Texas Tech in 1979 ... Had 14 tackles at Texas A&M, 13 at No. 1 Oklahoma and 12 three times ... Made just three tackles in the Colorado victory, but one came as he teamed with Justin Crooks to stop the Buffs' Brian Calhoun for a two-yard loss on a fourth and goal play early in the fourth quarter at the one-yard line with the Bears holding a 35-30 lead ... Named Baylor's best defensive skill player ... Received second letter.

2002: The redshirt freshman started 11 games at free safety to earn his first letter ... Missed the Kansas State game due to a death in the family ... Finished the season with 48 tackles and a team-high-tying two fumble recoveries ... Ranked third on the squad in solo tackles (39) and was sixth in total stops ... Had a season-high eight tackles against Tulsa ... Collected seven tackles versus Texas A&M ... Also had seven stops at Texas Tech ... Made six tackles and recovered two fumbles at New Mexico ... Had six stops at No. 23 Colorado ... Recorded five or more tackles five times.

COACHES

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

When Baylor introduced its 24th head football coach, the University selected an individual with strong Texas ties, successful playing and coaching experiences at the game's highest levels and the respect of the state's former players and high school coaches.

On Dec. 11, 2002, Baylor welcomed Guy Morriss as its new head football coach and he immediately began the daunting challenge of rebuilding the Bears' gridiron fortunes.

"The opportunity to return home to Texas and to do so at a great institution like Baylor were the primary factors in my decision to take this job," Morriss said upon his hiring. "I know there is a lot of work ahead and the challenges are great, but I have confidence that we can help Baylor win again. Football is so important to the state of Texas and to people who love Baylor; those are two pretty good ingredients for success."

Morriss' resume includes 15 years of experience as a coach at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. He spent 18 years in the National Football League, where he was an All-Pro performer, played in two Super Bowls and coached for three seasons. A Colorado City, Texas, native and two-time All-Southwest Conference lineman at TCU, Morriss is certainly no stranger to the Lone Star state's football landscape.

Known for his no-nonsense approach and his aggressive recruiting, Morriss' Bears finished 3-9 in his rookie season. However, there were enough moments of youthful brilliance along the way to give Baylor's tradition-rich program hope for the future.

"WE HAVE EXPERIENCED A TRANSITION ONCE BEFORE AND WE KNEW WHERE THE PITFALLS WERE GOING TO BE AND THE CHALLENGE OF WHAT IT WAS GOING TO BE LIKE. I THINK IN OUR PARTICULAR CASE WE FEEL LIKE WE HAVE A GOOD PLAN. YOU HAVE TO STAY TRUE TO THE PLAN. YOU CAN GO OFF AND PANIC AND GO IN A THOUSAND DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS: 'WELL, LET'S TRY THIS,' OR 'LET'S DO THAT.' OUR SCHEMES ARE PROVEN, AND WE'RE NOT GOING TO CHANGE. THE THINGS WE HAVE BEEN TALKING ABOUT SINCE WE GOT HERE ARE STILL IN PLACE AND THEY ARE GOING TO STAY IN PLACE."

— Guy Morriss

After dropping the first two games of the 2003 campaign, Baylor put together a three-game win streak highlighted by a 42-30 victory over two-time Big 12 North division champion Colorado in the Bears' league opener. The win string was BU's longest in seven seasons and the Colorado triumph allowed Morriss to become just the third Baylor coach since 1950 (and only the sixth ever) to win his conference debut on the Bear sideline.

Morriss' first season in Waco also saw the Baylor defense limit then-No. 1 Oklahoma to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards (only national champion LSU held the Sooners to fewer yards on the ground) and register the sixth-highest one-season sack total (29) in school history and its best mark since 1994. The BU offense produced its first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in All-Big 12 running back Rashad Armstrong and its quarterbacks completed a school-record 56.7 percent of their passes, while the Bears' special team units recorded four scores on the year.

"I WOULD TELL ANY MOM AND DAD WHO HAS A KID INTERESTED IN BAYLOR TO ALLOW GUY MORRISS TO CALL AND TALK TO THEM."

— Craig James
CBS College Football Analyst

"BAYLOR GOT ITSELF A REAL JEWEL WHEN IT GOT GUY MORRISS. HE IS THE KIND OF GUY I'D LIKE MY SON TO PLAY FOR."

— Raymond Berry
NFL Hall of Famer

"MORRISS HAS BUILT A SOLID STAFF THAT'S GOOD AT TEACHING. EVEN MORE VITAL IS THE GROUP'S POSITIVE ATTITUDE DURING REBUILDING."

— Tom Dienhart
The Sporting News

Five Bears earned 2003 all-conference honors and three players participated in season-ending All-Star games, as did Morriss, who served as the head offensive coach for the Gray squad in the 2003 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. He was joined on the Gray's sideline by Baylor offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Brent Pease and Bears' center Cedric Fields.

In addition to the program's improvement on the field, it also made strides in the classroom. The team's grade-point average rose from a 2.38 in the 2003 spring semester to a 2.46 in the fall and 43 of Morriss' players were named to the fall 2003 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for achieving a 3.00 mark or better during the semester. The spring 2004 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll included 40 Baylor football players and the squad's GPA was a solid 2.45.

Off the field, BU players continued to give back to the community by making numerous appearances at local schools and participating in several service projects throughout the area.

Morriss arrived in Waco from Lexington, Ky., where he spent the previous six seasons helping resurrect the Kentucky football program, the last two as head coach.

At Kentucky, Morriss and his accomplished staff were credited with rebuilding Kentucky's relationships with high school coaches, as well as earning the respect of his players with a fair, no-nonsense approach. He beefed up the team's off-season conditioning by instituting stringent 6 a.m. workouts, designed to toughen it physically and mentally.

In 2001, Morriss took over a Wildcat program in disarray. With NCAA probation looming in the school's immediate future, Morriss was introduced as Kentucky's head coach on Feb. 6, 2001, the day before national signing day, and began to stabilize the program.

Despite the inherent obstacles, Morriss confidently rallied the Wildcat players and staff. In his first season as a head coach, he guided UK to a 2-9 record in 2001, which included three losses by four points or fewer to Southeastern Conference opponents.

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

A season highlight included a 56-30 win at Vanderbilt that resulted in National Player of the Week honors for Wildcat quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who threw for 453 yards and six scores against the Commodores.

In the second half of the 2001 season, Kentucky led the SEC in passing offense (376 yards per game) and ranked third in total offense (456.2 per game) while scoring an average of 29.8 points.

Year two saw the fruits of Morriss' leadership become quickly evident. The 2002 Wildcats turned some heads with a 7-5 record, including wins over Mississippi State, eventual SEC West Division champion Arkansas and 17th-ranked Louisville. The seven-win season in 2002 was only the fifth since 1955 for Kentucky, which received votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. UK's defeats included a four-point setback vs. South Carolina, a seven-point loss at then-No. 7 Florida and an unbelievable three-point defeat on the game's final play against then-No. 17 LSU.

In Morriss' two seasons as Kentucky's head coach, 10 Wildcats earned All-SEC recognition, three were named All-American and 43 garnered academic All-SEC honors. In addition, three players were selected in the NFL Draft, including Dewayne Robertson, a 2003 first-round pick of the New York Jets and the first UK defender taken in the first round since Art Still's 1978 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs. In his six seasons all-told in Lexington, four UK offensive linemen were selected first-team all-conference and three earned freshman All-America honors.

The Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 20 in passing offense five of Morriss' six years with the program and in the nation's top 15 in total offense in three of those seasons. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, UK finished 109th nationally in total offense.

Morriss spent four seasons as Kentucky's assistant head coach and offensive line coach before being promoted to head coach. During his time as an assistant, the Wildcats twice earned bowl invitations and their offense scored more points and generated more yards than any previous four-year period in school history.

Recognized as an outstanding teacher of line play, Morriss began his coaching career as an offensive line assistant coach with the New England Patriots from 1988 to 1989 under head coach and NFL Hall of Famer Raymond Berry. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) High School in 1991. Morriss was then selected as the head coach of the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992, but the league ceased operations prior to the start of the season.

From 1992 to 1993, he coached the offensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University before returning to the NFL in 1994 as a member of Buddy Ryan's Arizona Cardinals staff. Morriss then spent the 1995 campaign with the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans, where he worked with current Baylor assistant coaches Bill Bradley and Mark Nelson. That year, San Antonio was second in the CFL in points scored and advanced to the semifinals of the Grey Cup playoffs.

Prior to his Kentucky tenure, Morriss spent one season at Mississippi State, where he coached the offensive line in 1996. Bulldogs' offensive tackle Brent Smith garnered first-team All-SEC honors and was a second-round draft selection by the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Morriss first made headlines as an All-Southwest Conference guard at TCU as a senior in 1972. Following his final collegiate season, he played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray Game, the Senior Bowl, the Coaches' All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. A three-year letterwinner for the Horned Frogs, Morriss was a two-time All-SWC performer and started 28 games in his collegiate career. He captained the team in his final year and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

A 1973 TCU graduate (secondary education), Morriss was a second-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles who went on to play 11 seasons at center for the franchise. He helped the Eagles to four consecutive playoff berths (1978-82) under legendary coach Dick Vermeil, including NFC East crowns in 1979 and 1980, and was a starter on the organization's 1980 NFC championship team that played in Super Bowl XV. Morriss, an Eagles' team captain for five seasons, was selected to the 1981 All-Pro team.

From 1984 to 1987, Morriss played for the New England Patriots, helping Berry's team to playoff appearances in 1985 and 1986. He was a member of the 1985 AFC champion New England squad and played in Super Bowl XX.

When the 2004 Super Bowl was played in Houston, The Dallas Morning News named Morriss to its All-Texas High School Super Bowl Team. He is one of only two active NCAA Division I-A coaches (his Eagle teammate, current North Carolina head coach John Bunting, is the other) to have played in the Super Bowl.

Morriss and his wife Jackie are the parents of five daughters: Colleen, Melanie, Kerry, Savannah Rae and Austin Leigh.

QUOTING GUY MORRISS

ON WHY MORRISS CAME TO BAYLOR:

"It was an opportunity to come home and be closer to my family. I'm a guy that likes competition. Obviously, Baylor is in one of the toughest conferences in America; it is very competitive. I'd say the Big 12 and the SEC are the two best conferences in America. There may be one conference better, and that's the NFL.

"To return to Texas and compete in an extremely competitive conference at a university with the academic tradition that obviously Baylor has, we think that is very unique and should be a strong selling point as far as our recruiting.

"There's a tremendous recruiting base here in Texas. There's probably 350 to 375 Division I prospects every year that come out of the state of Texas. If we can't sign 20 to 25 of them every year then something is wrong."

ON OFFENSIVE PHILOSOPHY:

"In an ideal world, I'd like to throw the ball about 60 percent and run it about 40, depending on our talent and what we're working with. That particular balance is what I'm striving for.

"We like to spread the field. We throw the ball a lot, but I also believe in a strong running game - coming off red zone, short yardage; we want to be very efficient in our running game."

ON DEFENSIVE PHILOSOPHY:

"We'll play an eight-man front, designed to stop the run first. We want to be very aggressive. We'll play with five DBs, and a lot of man coverage. Because of a lack of depth at the D-line position, we may have to play a three-man front.

"The closest thing I could compare us to is like (former Mississippi State defensive coordinator) Joe Lee Dunn's defense with the two outside safeties, the two inside linebackers, the four down linemen and a three-deep shell. We're not a soft, sit back and read, soft cover two, or anything like that and watch people snitch down the field on us. We're going to be more of an aggressive style of defense. We'll blitz a little bit. I think recruits enjoy playing that kind of game: offensively wide open and defensively very aggressive. That's what we'll sell them."

ON HOW HE SELLS BAYLOR TO RECRUITS:

"I think first of all you have to sell the conference because it is one of the two best in the country. If you want to be the best, play against the best. We work real hard on selling our conference, then our University and academics. If you honestly want to get a good degree, you can do that here. I think you can go anywhere in the world and get a job with a degree from Baylor.

"There are some families looking for a wholesome environment for their children to attend school in. We just have to find those 25 guys that are serious about education and being in a good environment. We are a private school and our classes are small with personal attention. At this time right now, we also offer the opportunity to get on the field pretty quick. If you are good enough, we will find a place for you."

ON PRACTICES:

"I'm a high-effort coach. Our staff is that way and they coach that way. We believe in getting our work done. We're not going to waste time. We probably only practice for about an hour and 50 minutes, but for that hour and 50 minutes we're moving.

"I believe that you have to create a practice environment that's as close to game environment as you possibly can so our kids take the field on Saturday and are not in shock by the speed of the game. The tempo is going to be up; the kids enjoy how we practice, and they look forward to coming to practice."

ON SPECIAL TEAMS PLAY:

"It's one third of your whole football program. A lot of people don't see it that way, but they are special to me. I was involved with special teams my whole career. I know how important they are, and how quickly they can win games for you, and how quickly they can get you beat. Our entire staff emphasizes that they are extremely important."

ON OVERALL PHILOSOPHY:

"Our philosophy is not going to change. We may have to make a few adjustments depending on the athletes we have, and that's the process we're in right now: deciding what we have and who best fits where. But our philosophy and the style are probably not going to change much at all."

ON HIS VISION FOR BAYLOR FOOTBALL:

"Winning and competing. There's no reason we can't. There is too much talent in the State of Texas for us not to be able to get this thing turned around."

ON REDSHIRTING PLAYERS:

"I would like to redshirt every kid that comes through the door because I think they need it. I don't care how good of a high school player they are. They may be physically fine, but from a mental standpoint they need to catch up or it could be the other way around. We're not scared to play a freshman, but I believe in the long run the kid will be a better football player."

ON HIS MOST MEMORABLE FOOTBALL MOMENT:

"Going to two Super Bowls and the road we took to get there as a team. We weren't fortunate enough to win either one, but I'll tell you that it was a thrill to walk out there on that field when you are playing for the world championship. There is nothing like it. That's why I always say that football is America's greatest team sport."

ON GRADUATING PLAYERS:

"It's important to me, number one. If it's not important to the guy at the top, it is not going to be important to anyone below him. I go back to when I was in the NFL and I saw a lot of men come into the league with no degree, get hurt and have nothing to fall back on.

"I saw what it did to those guys and I told myself that if I ever coached at the college level, I would do all I could to make sure every player leaves with a degree. It's important to me and my staff."

ASSISTANT COACHES

GERALD CARR

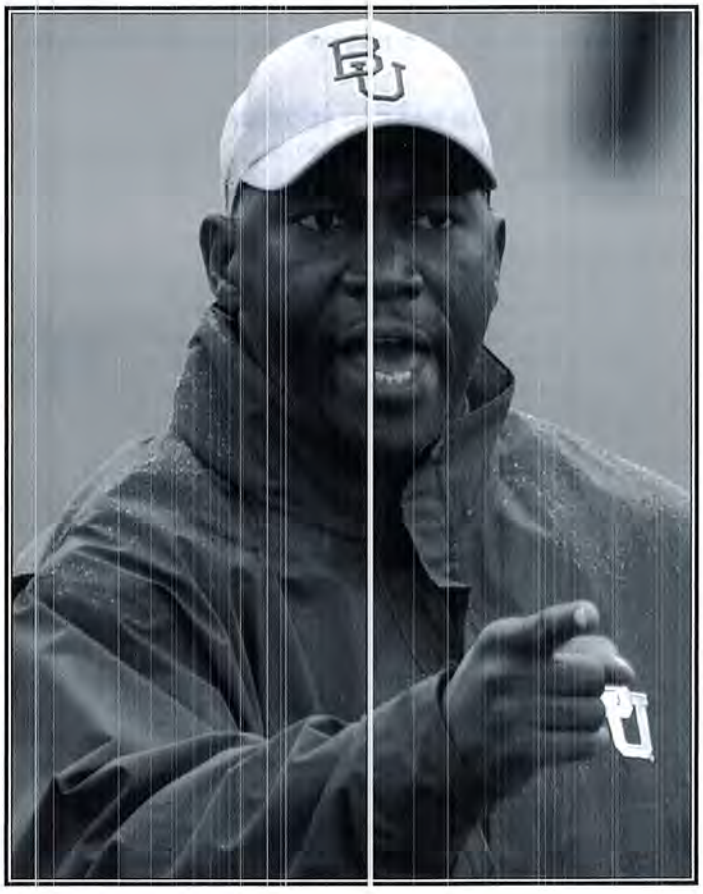
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Gerald Carr, a 23-year veteran of the coaching profession, serves as Baylor's assistant head coach and tutors the Bear running backs. As Baylor's assistant head coach, Carr acts on behalf of coach Guy Morriss when the head coach is unavailable and helps with other duties as needed.

He has worked at nearly every level of his profession, including terms on both the high school and collegiate levels, as well as National Football League and Arena Football League coaching experiences.

His first season at Baylor saw running back Rashad Armstrong earn third-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches and become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 (and just the sixth all-time). Armstrong rushed for 1,074 yards, the fifth-best one-season mark in school history. Carr also directed a 2003 BU ground attack that increased its productivity by nearly seven yards per game over its 2002 output and recorded its highest per-game average since the 1998 campaign.

Hired as Kentucky's running backs coach in February 2002, Carr was promoted to assistant head coach two months later. During his lone season in Lexington, he mentored the Southeastern Conference's leading rusher, Artose Pinner, a consensus first-team all-league performer who also earned Associated Press SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors. Pinner was selected in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.



Prior to his Kentucky stint, Carr spent the 2001 campaign at Indiana University, where he was the Hoosiers' quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. Under his tutelage, IU quarterback Antwaan Randle El earned first-team All-America and Big Ten Most Valuable Player honors. Randle El became the first player in NCAA history to have 40 rushing touchdowns and 40 passing touchdowns in a career and also the only player in NCAA history to pass for more than 6,000 yards and rush for more than 3,000 yards in a career. Randle El, who rushed for more yards than any quarterback in NCAA history and ranks fifth all-time in total offense with 11,364 yards, finished sixth in the 2001 Heisman Trophy voting and was a second-round selection of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Carr has been an offensive assistant for all but one season of his collegiate coaching career, working at Davidson, Akron, Washington State, Arizona, North Carolina, Wake Forest, Indiana, Kentucky and now Baylor. He gained his first bowl experience with North Carolina, helping coach Mack Brown's Tar Heels to the Peach, Gator, and Sun bowls and some 27 victories during his three seasons (1992-94) with the program. He also helped Wake Forest to a victory in the 1999 Aloha Bowl.

He entered the professional ranks as wide receivers coach for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98. The Eagles advanced to the playoffs following the 1995 and 1996 regular seasons. In 1996, Pro Bowl wideout Irving Fryar set the Eagles' single-season record for receptions with 88.

Carr spent the 2000 season with the Carolina Cobras of the Arena Football League, working as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/wide receivers coach.

A native of Davidson, N.C., Carr played quarterback at Southern Illinois and was a Saluki letterwinner from 1978-80 before earning his bachelor's degree (administrative sciences) from SIU in 1981. He and his wife, Vanessa, have two daughters: Ashonti and Miteya.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL BRADLEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
FIRST SEASON AT BAYLOR

Bill Bradley, who has been a member of coaching staffs which have guided 15 teams to winning records in his 21 seasons on the sidelines, was named Baylor's defensive coordinator on March 1, 2004.

Bradley joined Guy Morriss' program from the National Football League's New York Jets, where he had spent three years (2001-03) as the team's defensive backs coach. The Jets ranked among the NFL's top 10 in pass defense during the 2003 campaign, advanced to the playoffs twice (2001 and 2002) and captured the 2002 AFC East title during his tenure on coach Herman Edwards' staff.

Prior to working for the Jets, Bradley served in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills from 1998 to 2000. Buffalo led the AFC in pass defense during the 1999 season and ranked second in 2000. The Bills, who advanced to the AFC playoffs in both 1998 and 1999, led the NFL in total defense in 1999, and ranked third in that category in 1998 and sixth in 2000.

Before moving into the NFL, Bradley served as the defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts in 1996 and 1997, helping the team to Grey Cup victories both years. He also served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the CFL's San Antonio Texans (1995) and the Sacramento Gold Miners (1994), worked as the defensive backs coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders (1991-92) and spent three years with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders (1988-90).

Bradley broke into the coaching ranks with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers in 1983 as the team's defensive backs coach and personnel assistant, then spent the 1984 campaign as the club's secondary coach. He then moved on to serve as secondary coach of the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1985) and spent a year coaching at the University of Texas (1987) before moving into the CFL in 1988.

An outstanding NFL player, Bradley was selected in the third round of the 1969 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and went on to earn three All-Pro awards (1971-73) as a free safety for the franchise. In addition, he served as the Eagles' punter and kick returner. Bradley led the NFL in interceptions in both 1971 (11) and 1972 (nine) and in the process became the first player ever to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons, a feat that has been matched just once since then.

One of Morriss' teammates in Philadelphia from 1973 to 1976, Bradley still holds Eagle team records for career interception return yardage (536) and club single-season marks for interceptions and return yardage (11 for 249 in 1971), as well as sharing the team's all-time interception record with Eric Allen (34). He played in 114 NFL games, spending the 1969-76 seasons with the Eagles and the 1977 campaign with both the Vikings and Cardinals.

A native of Palestine, Texas, Bradley was a high school All-America quarterback who led his team to the 1965 state title and went on to a standout college career as a quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas from 1966 to 1968. He served as a tri-captain of coach Darrell Royal's 1968 Longhorn team which finished the season 9-1-1, tied for the Southwest Conference championship, was ranked third in the final Associated Press poll and fifth in the season-ending United Press International poll, and beat Tennessee 36-13 in the Cotton Bowl.

Bradley recorded a UT single-game record four interceptions in the Longhorns' 35-14 win over Texas A&M as a senior, a record that still stands today and a mark that is the best-ever by a SWC performer. Following his collegiate career, he played in the 1969 Hula Bowl, the Coaches All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Bradley earned UT's 1968 D.H. Byrd Leadership Award.

A member of the Texas High School, University of Texas and Philadelphia Eagles Hall of Fames, Bradley and his wife, Susan, have two children, Matthew and Carissa. Matthew is a senior at Smithson Valley High School, where he is the quarterback of the school's football team.

MARK NELSON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Mark Nelson, recognized as one of the nation's finest special teams coaches, is in his second year as Baylor's special teams coordinator and first as its linebackers coach after directing the Bears' defensive ends and special teams in 2003.

Nelson's special teams units were the strength of the 2003 Bears, producing three touchdown returns in the kicking game, a blocked kick recovered for a safety and the Big 12's third-best punter in redshirt freshman Daniel Sepulveda, who averaged 43.1 yards per kick. BU return specialist Robert Quiroga, who returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2003, and Sepulveda each garnered All-Big 12 honors for their outstanding performances.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Nelson made his mark on the Southeastern Conference in two seasons as Kentucky's special teams coach. Two Wildcats – punter Glenn Pakulak and kick returner Derek Abney – were named first-team All-SEC both years under Nelson. In 2002, Abney also earned first-team All-America honors after setting an NCAA record with six kick returns for touchdowns (four punts and two kickoffs), while Pakulak won the Mosi Tatupu Award as the National Special Teams Player of the Year and also garnered All-America status.

The 2002 Wildcats also led the SEC in net punting (40.1) and punt return average (15.6) and were second in kickoff return average (23.6). In addition to his special teams duties, Nelson coached the Wildcats' tight ends in 2001 and the defensive ends in 2002.

He worked in the Canadian Football League from 1992-96. Nelson was with the Edmonton Eskimos from 1992-94 as special teams coordinator, linebackers coach (1992) and running backs coach (1993-94). Edmonton won the 1993 Grey Cup and Nelson was named CFL Special Teams Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Nelson became acquainted with Guy Morriss when they first coached together with the CFL's San Antonio Texans in 1995. Nelson was the linebackers coach and San Antonio was a conference finalist. He won another Grey Cup in 1996 as defensive line coach for the Toronto Argonauts, where he worked with first-year Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley.

After leaving the CFL, Nelson was defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for three seasons at Valdosta State (Ga.) University. His defensive units were consistently ranked at or near the top of the Gulf South Conference.

Nelson spent the 2000 season as Arkansas Tech's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Tech went 7-3, including a win over Delta State, the only loss suffered by the eventual NCAA Division II national champion.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Nelson was an NAIA All-American during his collegiate playing career at East Central Oklahoma State University. He received his bachelor's degree from East Central Oklahoma in 1980, and earned a master's degree from Pittsburg State in 1988. Nelson played seven seasons in the CFL as a linebacker and fullback with Calgary (1980-85) and Saskatchewan (1986).

He began his coaching career in 1986 at Choctaw High School in Edmond, Okla., then entered the junior college ranks at Independence (Kan.) Community College, where he was an assistant coach from 1987-89, before being promoted to head coach for the 1990 and 1991 seasons. ICC played in the 1987 Dixie Rotary Bowl. He left ICC in 1992 for the CFL and Edmonton.

Nelson and his wife, Lori, have three children, sons Kyle and Kolton, and daughter Kayli.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRENT PEASE

SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Brent Pease, a former National Football League quarterback, assistant coach for a NCAA Division I-AA national championship team and coach of the I-AA Player of the Year, begins his second season as Baylor's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after working in the same position on coach Guy Morriss' Kentucky staff.

Under Pease's guidance, the 2003 Baylor offense produced the program's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 (and just the sixth ever) in running back Rashad Armstrong, who earned All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,074 yards. The Bears' signal callers, meanwhile, combined to complete a school single-season record 56.7 percent of their passes on the season. Following the season, Pease served as Morriss' offensive assistant coach in the annual Blue-Gray All-Star Classic.

At Kentucky, Pease tutored second-team All-Southeastern Conference quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who led a Wildcat offense that averaged a league-leading 32.1 points a game in 2002. Another of the Wildcats' offensive threats during Pease's tenure was the SEC's leading rusher, Artose Pinner, who earned first-team all-conference and league Offensive Player of the Year honors. Pinner was selected in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Pease was the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Northern Arizona University for two seasons, helping the Lumberjacks advance to the 1999 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He coached quarterback Travis Brown, who was MVP of the 1999 Blue-Gray Game. During the 2000 season, NAU running back Marcus King rushed for 1,474 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Pease coached at his alma mater, the University of Montana, from 1991-98. He was the offensive coordinator the last three seasons and also coached the quarterbacks (1994-98), running backs (1991-98) and wide receivers (1991-94).

With generous assistance from Pease's play-calling ability, Montana was a fixture in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs each of his last six seasons. The Grizzlies won the 1995 national I-AA championship, finished as runner-up in 1996 and were semi-finalists in 1994. Montana rolled up 185 points, 46.3 per game, in the four playoff games en route to the 1995 title. Pease's offensive unit generated 191 points, 47.8 per game, in the 1996 playoff series.

Pease's quarterback in 1995, David Dickenson, won the Walter Payton Award as the Division I-AA National Player of the Year and was the Big Sky Conference's MVP from 1993-95. Dickenson's successor, Brian Ah Yat, was a three-year Walter Payton Award finalist and played in the Hula Bowl. Montana quarterbacks won the league's Offensive Player of the Year award five times in Pease's eight seasons at the school. He also coached two All-America wide receivers.

Pease is an alumnus of Montana, receiving his bachelor's degree from the school in 1990. After two seasons at Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College, he played quarterback for the Grizzlies in 1985-86. Pease led the nation in total offense in 1986 and set nine school records.

After college, Pease was drafted by the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and played two years for the Houston Oilers (1987-88), where one of his teammates was former Baylor standout quarterback Cody Carlson. He also has playing experience in the Canadian Football League, the World League of American Football and the Arena Football League. In 1991, he was the first player selected in the inaugural WLAF draft by the Birmingham Fire.

A native of Mountain Home, Idaho, Pease and his wife, Paula, have a daughter, Halle, and a son, Karsten.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TOM ADAMS

ASSISTANT COACH/DEFENSIVE ENDS
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Tom Adams enters his second season on the Baylor staff, and his first coaching the entire Bears' defensive line. Adams, who spent six seasons at Kentucky before returning to the Lone Star state with Guy Morriss, coached BU's defensive tackles in 2003.

His first season at Baylor saw the Bears recorded 29 sacks, their highest one-year total since 1994, and the sixth-best mark in school history. BU's 2003 sack total also ranked sixth among all Big 12 programs.

Adams' final season at Kentucky produced All-Southeastern Conference tackle Dewayne Robertson, who was taken as the fourth overall selection in the 2003 National Football League Draft by the New York Jets. Robertson was the first UK defender chosen in the NFL Draft's first round in some 25 years.

With injuries striking UK's defensive tackles in 2001, Adams brought out the best in senior Derrick Johnson. Seldom-used prior to the 2001 campaign, Johnson proved to be a reliable performer and signed with the Cincinnati Bengals as a free-agent.

Handling the entire defensive line prior to the 2000 season, Adams' 1999 D-line increased its production across the board over the 1998 campaign. The Wildcat lineman totaled 183 tackles, 22 tackles for loss and 18 quarterback sacks. The Kentucky line helped limit opponents to 148.5 rushing yards per game, the best mark for a UK defense since 1987. End Dennis Johnson led the way with 39 tackles and five sacks and was chosen second-team All-SEC.

The play of Adams' 1998 defensive line helped the Wildcats total 88 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, most for a UK team in statistics available since 1985. UK's 29 quarterback sacks ranked third in the Southeastern Conference. Dennis Johnson was named second-team Freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

He coached Kentucky's defensive ends in 1997. Under Adams' guidance, Bamidele Ali ranked third in the SEC in quarterback sacks with seven, even though Ali was in his first season as a defensive lineman. Adams' ends notched 17 of UK's 21 sacks.

Adams went to Kentucky from Southern Methodist University. While at SMU, Adams coached the defensive line for three years, and the defensive tackles one year, including 1993 All-Southwest Conference performers Chad Patton and Adam Voyles.

From 1985-92, Adams guided the defensive line at Sam Houston State. In his final season at SHSU, Adams' defensive line helped set a single-season school record with 47 quarterback sacks. In 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference title and made the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He coached seven all-conference players and one All-American at SHSU.

The El Paso, Texas, native broke into the coaching ranks on a full-time basis at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College, where he led the offensive and defensive lines from 1982-1984.

Adams played his college football at Rice, where he was twice (1979 and 1980) named the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman and served as a team captain during his senior season. He spent the 1981 campaign as a student assistant coach with the Owls' defensive line and completed his bachelor's degree, with a double major in psychology and physical education, in 1982.

Adams and his wife, Rita, have two daughters, Brandi and Beth, a son, Branch, and two grandchildren, Olivia and Cali.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LARRY HOEFER

ASSISTANT COACH/SAFETIES
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Texas native and veteran defensive coach Larry Hoefer enters his second season as Baylor's safeties coach and his 30th year in the coaching profession.

In his first year with the Bears, Hoefer coached the Bears' leading tackler in Maurice Lane, who tallied 129 stops from his free safety spot en route to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, and 2004 Las Vegas Classic invitee Derrick Cash, the team's fourth-leading tackler as an outside safety. Another of his players, outside safety Willie Andrews, led the team in interceptions and was third on the squad in tackles.

Hoefer spent two seasons as safeties coach on Guy Morriss' Kentucky staff before making the move to Waco. He went to UK from Texas-El Paso, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2000 season. The Miners posted an 8-3 regular season record, were co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. The bowl game marked Hoefer's sixth as a coach, in addition to four at Texas Tech and one (1988) during his previous stop at UTEP.

Using an eight-man front under Hoefer's guidance, UTEP reduced its rushing yardage allowed from 208.2 yards per game in 1999 to 153.8 ypg during the 2000 season. UTEP held five of its league opponents under 100 yards rushing. The Miners also ranked 19th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Hoefer worked for coach Spike Dykes at Texas Tech from 1994-99, where he coached the Red Raiders' outside linebackers and worked with former Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner. Tech was bowl-eligible every season and played in the Cotton, Copper, Alamo and Independence bowls during Hoefer's tenure. Among his pupils were Marcus Coleman, a first-team All-American in 1995 who plays for the Houston Texans, and Ty Ardoin, who went on to play for the New York Giants. Hoefer also coached All-Big 12 picks Robert Johnson and Jody Brown. The Red Raiders ranked first in the nation for takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

Hoefer had multiple responsibilities as an assistant at Missouri from 1989-93, working his way up from receivers coach to defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. His first term at UTEP, from 1982-88, was capped by a 10-win season and a berth in the 1988 Independence Bowl.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Hoefer stayed in his hometown and played defensive back at McMurry University, graduating in 1973. He was team captain and earned the squad's MVP honor.

Hoefer's first coaching stop was at Tarleton State from 1974-75 as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs. He went on to coach at Big Spring (Texas) High School in 1976 and Abilene (Texas) High from 1977-80. Hoefer coached at West Texas State in 1981 before joining the UTEP staff for the first time.

Hoefer and his wife, Kathy, have three children - married daughter Alison Schupp and sons Tyler and Bennett - and two granddaughters, Sydney and Samantha Schupp. Bennett is a redshirt freshman defensive back on the Baylor football team, while Tyler is a 1st Classman at the U.S. Naval Academy.

ASSISTANT COACHES

HAROLD JACKSON

ASSISTANT COACH/WIDE RECEIVERS
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Harold Jackson, a five-time All-Pro wide receiver and 10-year National Football League coaching veteran, is in his second season as Baylor's wide receivers coach.

In his first year on the BU sideline, Jackson coached All-Big 12 performer Robert Quiroga, who snagged a team-high 42 receptions for 490 yards and four scores, and averaged 31.4 yards on 14 kickoff returns.

Jackson came to Baylor after spending two seasons as Guy Morriss' receivers coach at Kentucky. In his first year at UK, wideout Derek Abney became a first-team All-Southeastern Conference performer, a feat he repeated in 2002 when he also earned first-team All-America honors. Jackson also oversaw the development of Aaron Boone and Tommy Cook, who blossomed as reliable contributors during the 2001 campaign.

He coached receivers for 10 years in the NFL with New England (1985-89), Tampa Bay (1992-93), and New Orleans (1997-99). In his first NFL season as a coach, the Patriots won the AFC championship and played in the 1986 Super Bowl. It was at New England where Jackson became acquainted with Morriss, who played for the Patriots from 1984-87 and was an assistant coach in 1988-89.

From New England, Jackson served as an assistant coach at North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C., during the 1990 season. In 1991, he was the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League before returning to the NFL at Tampa Bay.

Following his two-year coaching stint with Tampa Bay, Jackson spent the 1994 season as the head coach at Virginia Union College in Richmond, Va. He then served as head coach for two seasons (1995-96) at Benedict College in Columbia, S.C., where he helped revive a football program that had been defunct for 29 years, before joining the Saints' staff.

Jackson enjoyed a sterling 16-year NFL playing career with the Los Angeles Rams (1968, 1973-77), Philadelphia Eagles (1969-72), New England Patriots (1978-81), Minnesota Vikings (1982), and Seattle Seahawks (1983). While with the Eagles, one of his teammates was first-year Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. All-told, Jackson played on eight playoff teams as a pro.

His career totals include 579 receptions for 10,372 yards and 76 touchdowns. Jackson had 29 career 100-yard games and three 1,000-yard seasons. He ranks 15th in league history in receiving yardage. Jackson led the NFL in receptions in 1972 and in receiving yardage in both 1969 and 1972.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Jackson played his collegiate football at Jackson State University and is a member of both the Mississippi and JSU Sports Hall of Fames. A 1968 JSU graduate, his hometown of Hattiesburg held Harold Jackson Day and presented him with a key to the city. Over the years, he has been active as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Hattiesburg Department of Recreation.

Harold and his wife, Carolyn, have one son, Brandon.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRIS LANCASTER

ASSISTANT COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Noted for his enthusiasm and intensity on the practice field, offensive line coach Chris Lancaster enters his second year of his third tour of duty with the Bears.

Baylor's 2003 offensive line, which relied on seven underclassmen among its 10-man rotation, helped pave the way for the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in Rashad Armstrong. The Bears' 2003 ground attack ranked as the school's most productive since the 1998 campaign.

Lancaster coached offensive tackles, tight ends, and special teams at Baylor from 1993-96, a stint which included a trip to the 1994 Alamo Bowl. One of his former pupils, offensive tackle Fred Miller, was a two-year All-Southwest Conference performer and currently is the starting right tackle for the National Football League's Tennessee Titans. Lancaster also was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor (1990-91), working with tight ends and linebackers, and the Bears played in the 1991 Copper Bowl.

A native of Fort Rucker, Ala., Lancaster grew up in Atlanta, Ga. He was Clemson's starting fullback from 1985-87 before suffering a career-ending injury. Lancaster finished his career at Clemson as a student assistant coach in 1988-89 and worked with the running backs while earning his management degree in 1989. During his five seasons at Clemson, the Tigers won three ACC championships (1986-88) and played in five bowl games – the Independence, Gator (twice) and Citrus (twice).

After serving as a graduate assistant at Baylor for two seasons, Lancaster returned to Clemson in 1992 as a graduate assistant and worked with the Tigers' tight ends.

Following his second stint in Waco, Lancaster coached the offensive line for two seasons at both Sam Houston State (1997-98) and McNeese State (1999-2000). McNeese State went to the 2000 Division I-AA playoffs and led the conference in both rushing and total offense. Lancaster protégé Wes Hines earned All-America honors and signed a contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

While at Sam Houston State, in addition to guiding the offensive line, Lancaster was the running game coordinator in 1997 and the offensive coordinator in 1998. He coached Bearkat offensive lineman Greg Studdard, who played in the NFL with both Atlanta and the New York Giants.

In 2001, Lancaster began a two-year stay at Kentucky. After coaching the defensive ends for Guy Morriss in 2001, he returned to overseeing the offensive line the following season.

As UK's defensive ends coach, Lancaster mentored Dennis Johnson, named the "Best Defensive Player" in the Southeastern Conference by The Southeastern Post magazine. Johnson led the SEC in tackles for loss, quarterback sacks and fumbles caused, in addition to setting a single-season school record for sacks. Johnson was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL Draft and Kentucky's other starting end, Chris Demaree, signed a free-agent contract with San Diego.

In his final season with the Wildcats, Lancaster's offensive line, led by first-team All-SEC standout Antonio Hall, provided the blocking for Artose Pinner to lead the SEC in rushing.

Lancaster and his wife, Kathi, have two daughters, Kaila and Klemson.

ASSISTANT COACHES

WESLEY McGRIFF

ASSISTANT COACH/CORNERBACKS/RECRUITING COORD.
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

The highly energetic and charismatic Wesley McGriff enters his second season as Baylor's cornerbacks coach after spending the previous two years at Kentucky. The 2004 season will also be his first as coach Guy Morriss' recruiting coordinator.

A defensive coach for most of his career, having served as a defensive coordinator at two schools, McGriff spent the 2001 season coaching the Wildcats' running backs. With his runners leading the way, UK averaged 4.1 yards per carry, the teams' best mark since the 1995 season. The Wildcat running backs did not lose any fumbles to the opponents in 2001.

McGriff spent the 2000 season just a few miles from Lexington as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond. The Colonels ranked fourth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense and ninth in passing yardage allowed. EKU posted four shutouts during the season. McGriff's standout sophomore safety, Yeremiah Bell, was a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick. He also coached the punt return team.

McGriff coached from 1995-99 at Kentucky State University in Frankfort, where he was assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach. His defenses achieved numerous national top 10 statistical rankings, leading the nation in total defense in 1995 and pass yardage defense in 1997. In 1998, he was named the American Football Coaches Association's NCAA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year.

Three of McGriff's players have played in the National Football League including Cletius Hunt (Green Bay), Devin Wyann (New England) and Michael Mason (San Francisco). In addition, Cary Scott was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. While at KSU, he also served as a professor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department.

McGriff began his coaching career at his alma mater, Savannah State (Ga.) University. He was a graduate assistant with the Tigers' running backs in 1990, moved into a full-time role as secondary coach in 1991-92 and added defensive coordinator responsibilities in 1993-94. During the 1994 season, McGriff's unit ranked sixth nationally in total defense. He also was head coach of the school's baseball team for four seasons (1992-95), winning a pair of conference championships and twice being named league Coach of the Year.

A native of Tifton, Ga., McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He began his collegiate playing career at South Carolina State for one year, then transferred to Savannah State, where he started for three seasons as an outside linebacker.

McGriff was team captain, was chosen the team's defensive MVP and was named SSC's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year. In addition to his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Savannah State in 1990, he holds a master's degree in public administration from Georgia Southern University (1993). McGriff graduated with distinction from GSU.

McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. McGriff and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JERRY PICKLE

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
21ST SEASON AT BAYLOR

Jerry Pickle is in his 21st season on the Baylor staff and his 10th as director of football operations. He joined the Baylor program full-time as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1986 under the legendary Grant Teaff.

In his current role, Pickle handles administrative responsibilities for the Baylor football program. A sample of his wide-ranging duties include event scheduling, recruiting administration, admission of student-athletes, eligibility of student-athletes, housing and game-day operations. In 1995, Pickle was honored as one of Baylor's employees of the year.

He began his coaching career at the high school level. Pickle then coached five years in the college ranks in Mississippi and Missouri before coming to Baylor.

Pickle has a bachelor's (1976) and a master's (1980) degrees in health, physical education and recreation from Delta State University in Cleveland, Miss., where he lettered in football and track.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner and has two sons, Matthew (18) and Jonathan (15).

JOE RAULS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Joe Rauls begins his second year as a graduate assistant coach at Baylor, having joined the Bears' staff in June 2003. He'll again work with Baylor's defensive coaches after serving as a graduate assistant running backs coach at Sam Houston State during the 2002 season.

A 2002 SHSU graduate with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Rauls was co-captain of the Bearkats' 2001 Southland Conference championship team. The 2001 Bearkats fashioned a 10-3 record to earn Sam Houston State's highest final NCAA Division I-AA national ranking (seventh) and reach the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Rauls led Sam Houston State in rushing in 1998, 1999 and 2001, and finished with three-year career totals of 2,265 yards and 15 touchdowns on 504 carries. He ranks as Sam Houston State's fifth all-time leading rusher and earned 2001 second-team All-Southland Conference honors.

A leader off the field, too, Rauls was a three-time Academic All-Southland Conference selection and served as president of the Sam Houston State Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as a senior.

A Waco, Texas, native, Rauls was an all-state running back at LaVega High School, gaining 2,756 yards during his three-year high school career.

SCOTT PARR

SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Lone Star native Scott Parr enters his second season as a graduate assistant coach at Baylor and will again tutor the Bears' tight ends after serving three seasons as Abilene Christian University's wide receivers coach. While at Abilene, he was heavily involved with the team's offensive attack. The 2002 Wildcats led the Lone Star Conference in passing offense en route to their first conference title since the 1977 season.

Prior to his ACU tenure, Parr spent two seasons as the running backs coach at Sam Houston State. In 1999, SHSU led the Southland Conference in total offense at 420.9 yards per game. He also earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston State.

Parr played on three Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship teams at Hardin-Simmons University. He began his coaching career in 1997 as a student assistant at his alma mater coaching the quarterbacks.

A 1998 Hardin-Simmons graduate, Parr is married to the former Kyla Flippo. His father, Steve Parr, has been a successful Texas high school head football coach for over 20 years and is currently the head coach at Amarillo's Palo Duro High School.

JOHN WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
THIRD SEASON AT BAYLOR

John Williams Jr. joined the Baylor staff as the school's director of strength and conditioning in May 2002. Williams, who had worked with more than 15 different sports at the collegiate level during previous stops at North Carolina and Oklahoma State, oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning program.

A 1995 graduate of North Carolina A&T, Williams sandwiched two tenures at the University of North Carolina (graduate assistant from 1997-99 and assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2000-02) around a one-year stint as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State University (1999-2000).

While at UNC, Williams directed strength and speed camps and clinics for high school teams. He also was responsible for coordinating the Tar Heels' pro day, which gave NFL scouts a comprehensive look at UNC's draft-eligible student-athletes.

Williams has trained seven first-round NFL Draft picks and over 30 NFL players in his young career.

The native of Greenville, N.C., is married to the former Sherri Taylor of Kinston, N.C., and the couple has a daughter, Christina Josette.

SUPPORT STAFF

MIKE SIMS

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE
24TH SEASON AT BAYLOR

Mike Sims, who is considered one of the country's leading authorities on safety standards for sports equipment, is in his 24th year as a Baylor athletic department staff member.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for such equipment as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks. He has lectured at numerous training conventions and once won the Sam Ketchum Award for outstanding speaking ability at the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association (SWATA) Meeting. Sims has held a number of offices with both SWATA and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). He is a past president of SWATA (1991-92) and the current chair of the NATA Ethics Committee.

Sims, 47, was born and raised in Cedar Hill, Texas. He served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill School, graduating in 1975. Sims then spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1980 and then earned his master's degree in 1982.

Licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, Sims became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that capacity before becoming Baylor's head trainer in October, 1984. Sims was then promoted to his current post as Baylor's director of sports medicine in 1993.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983, and the couple has two children: Jessica (14) and Keith (12). He is heavily involved in amateur radio and is a volunteer with the Office of Emergency Management. Sims is also involved in storm spotting for the National Weather Service.

ELAINE HOLLOWAY
Administrative Assistant
Football Coaches

SHERRI ELWOOD
Administrative Assistant
Football Recruiting

DAVID CHANDLER

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE
17TH SEASON AT BAYLOR

David Chandler, a veteran athletic trainer with an extensive background in the field of injury rehabilitation, has been associated with Baylor University for nearly half his life. Having attended school at Baylor and worked full-time at BU following graduation, Chandler returned to Baylor in 1996 after spending three years on the staff of the Champion Physical Therapy and Sports Health Clinic in Austin, Texas.

Chandler first joined the Baylor staff in 1985 after serving four years as a student trainer. He worked with football and men's basketball in addition to other sports teams until 1993 when he went into private practice. His current duties include working with the football team and supervising the rehabilitation programs for all student-athletes.

In addition to his work at Baylor, Chandler frequently lecturers at Southwest Athletic Trainers Association workshops. In 2000, he was honored with Baylor's Outstanding Staff Award.

The 42-year-old Chandler was a football and golf letterman at Lancaster (Texas) High School and graduated in 1980. That fall, he enrolled at Baylor and began his athletic medicine career as a student trainer. Chandler graduated from Baylor with a B.S. in Education in 1985. He is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Chandler and his wife Amy, a Baylor graduate and softball letterwinner for the Lady Bears, have two sons, Cole and Will.

JEFF BARLOW

EQUIPMENT MANAGER
SECOND SEASON AT BAYLOR

Jeff Barlow is in his second year as head equipment manager for the Baylor football program.

A native of Vicksburg, Miss., Barlow received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Mississippi State in 2002. As an undergraduate, Barlow served as student manager for the Bulldog football team from 1998-2002.

In the summer of 2002, Barlow served a training camp internship with the NFL's Houston Texans.

A 1998 graduate of Vicksburg's Warren Central High School, Barlow is married to the former Laura Woodward.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

Baylor University is committed to absolute compliance with all NCAA and Big 12 Conference rules and regulations. Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental principle of NCAA legislation. It requires each institution to conduct its intercollegiate athletics programs in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA. This responsibility includes ensuring that coaches, staff, and other groups representing the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable rules.

As a result, it is important for prospects, fans, and alumni to have some understanding of the principles governing college athletics. Below are a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic boosters.

NCAA DEFINITIONS

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS (BOOSTER)

A "representative of athletics interests" (booster) is any individual or group that has ever:

- Been a member of an organization promoting Baylor athletics.
- Contributed to the Athletics Department or its booster organizations.
- Assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes.
- Provided benefits (e.g. employment) to prospective student-athletes, enrolled student-athletes or their family members.
- Otherwise promoted the Baylor athletics program.

Keep in mind that it is very easy to meet one or more of these criteria and once you become an athletics representative, you retain this status FOREVER!

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "prospect" is a high school student that has started classes for the ninth grade and also any junior college student. A student that has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospect if the student receives any benefits that the institution does not provide to all prospective students in general. An individual remains a prospect until he or she starts classes at Baylor or reports for practice, whichever occurs first.

STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "student-athlete" is a student whose enrollment was solicited by an athletics staff member with the expectation that the student will participate in intercollegiate athletics. A student not solicited by an athletics staff member becomes a student-athlete when he or she joins an intercollegiate team or reports for practice.

RECRUITING

"Recruiting" is any solicitation of a prospect or the prospect's family by an authorized institutional staff member for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment at Baylor and participation in athletics. Athletics representatives may not be involved in the recruitment of prospects except as outlined in the following section.

CONTACT

A "contact" is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletics representative during which any dialogue occurs.

GUIDELINES AND REMINDERS FOR BOOSTERS

- A booster may not contact a prospect, prospect's family, friends, coach or school administrator in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospect or the prospect's family or friends.
- A booster may not write, make phone calls, or otherwise communicate with a prospect or the prospect's family or friends for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may not contribute funds to a prospect's high school or club team as a form or recruiting inducement or if solicited to do so by a collegiate coach.
- A booster may attend a prospect's athletic events without contacting the prospect or his/her family.
- A booster may send recommendation letters and newspaper clippings about a prospect in their area to Baylor's coaches.
- A booster may continue a pre-existing relationship with a prospect and his/her family as long as the relationship pre-dated the prospect's recruitment or notoriety as an athlete and the nature of the relationship is not enhanced after their notoriety as an athlete. Such a relationship may not be for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may host a current student-athlete or an entire team in their home for a meal, but only on an occasional basis.
- A booster may provide a job for a student-athlete, but the job responsibilities must be legitimate and the pay commensurate for the task.

GUIDELINES FOR EXTRA BENEFITS

An "extra benefit" is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or athletics representative to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or his or her family with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit. Examples of extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Gifts of money, awards or other tangible items.
- Use of vehicles or payment of transportation costs incurred by prospect, prospect's relatives or friends.
- Free or reduced housing arrangements.
- Promise of employment after graduation or employment of prospect's relatives or friends.
- Special discounts or payment arrangements.

RECRUITING GUIDELINES FOR PROSPECTS

LETTERS AND NOTES

Coaches may begin to write notes and letters to prospects beginning September 1 of their junior year in high school (conclusion of sophomore year for men's basketball prospects).

PHONE CALLS

- Prospect Calling: A coach may receive a call initiated by a prospect and paid for by the prospect at any time, including the prospect's freshman or sophomore years. Prospects may call coaches collect or by dialing 800-BAYLORU only after July 1 after their junior year.
- Football: Coaches may call a prospect once in May of their junior year and then begin making regular phone calls September 1 after their junior year. At some times of the year, calls are limited to once per week while at others calls are unlimited.
- Men's Basketball: Coaches may a call a prospect once after June 21 after their junior year, and three more times in the month of July, and then once per week thereafter.
- Other Sports: Coaches may call a prospect once in March of their junior year, then once per week beginning July 1 after their junior year.

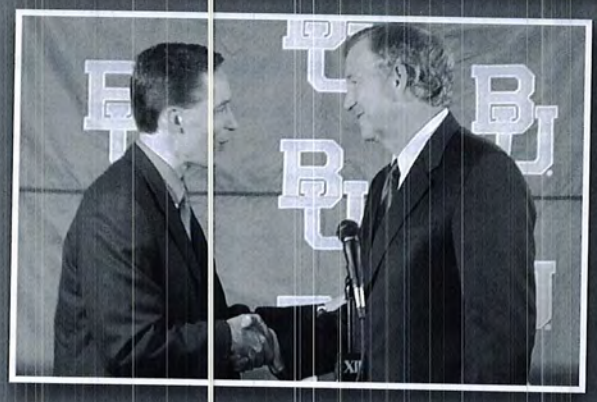
UNOFFICIAL VISITS

There are no limits on the number of unofficial (unpaid) visits to Baylor a prospect may make and no age restriction on who may make unofficial visits. At each unofficial visit, a prospect may receive three (3) complimentary admissions to a home athletic event. No other expenses may be paid by Baylor. At certain times of the year, unofficial visits are prohibited so please coordinate your visit with the coaching staff.

OFFICIAL VISITS

A prospect may only make a total of five official (paid) visits and only one official visit to Baylor. A prospect may not make an official visit until the first day of classes of their senior year (January 1 of junior year for men's basketball prospects). All official visits will be coordinated by the coaching staffs.

For further information regarding NCAA rules, please contact the Athletic Compliance Office at (254) 710-1234 or by mail at 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711.



ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. ROBERT B. SLOAN JR.

Since becoming the 12th president of Baylor University in 1995, Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. has undertaken monumental strides to ensure Baylor's continued success while upholding Baylor's traditions and heritage. His dedicated Christian character and tireless efforts have increased the University's prominence and reputation around the world.

Dr. Sloan's guidance has facilitated growth and promise for the University. His administration has guided the completion of several landmark building projects such as the McLane Student Life Center, the Sheila and Walter Umphrey Law Center, the Baugh-Reynolds Campus of George W. Truett Theological Seminary, the Harry and Anna Jeanes Discovery Center of the Sue and Frank Mayborn Museum Complex, the North Village Residential Community, and the multidisciplinary Baylor Sciences Building. These cutting-edge facilities will give the University an unprecedented environment for equipping students as leaders.

With his leadership, the University also has embraced Baylor 2012 as the primary planning document for the future of Baylor. The 10-year Vision was developed with input from faculty, staff, students, alumni and Regents and reflects Dr. Sloan's desire to see Baylor become a leading university while maintaining its distinctive Christian mission. Among other plans, the Vision calls for a student-faculty ratio of 13:1; recruitment and retention of world-class faculty and students; creation of an Honors College and a School of Communication; strengthening and expansion of the Graduate School; addition of 120 new classes per semester that focus on the "great texts;" construction of additional residential life facilities that will add 1,800 beds; and increasing the University's endowment to $2 billion.

DR. & MRS. ROBERT B. SLOAN JR.

Like Baylor University, Dr. Sloan's life mirrors a pursuit of faith and learning. He earned a BA from Baylor in 1970, an MDiv from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1973 and a Doktor der Theologie from the University of Basel, Switzerland, in 1978. Dr. Sloan, who has written two books and published more than 50 articles and book chapters, was the first dean of George W. Truett Theological Seminary (1993-1995), a professor in the Department of Religion (1983-present) and holds The George W. Truett Chair in Evangelism. He has served as pastor or interim pastor at more than 20 churches in Texas, Oklahoma, New Jersey and Germany.

Dr. Sloan, who chaired the Big 12 Conference Board of Directors from 2000-2002, serves as spokesperson for a group of six major college athletic conference CEOs. He is a member of the Cooper Foundation Board and the Board of Trustees for the Baylor College of Medicine. He was inducted into the Little League Hall of Excellence in 1996 and was named a Baylor Distinguished Alumnus in 2000.

Dr. Sloan and his wife, the former Sue Collier (BA '70) are members of Columbus Avenue Baptist Church of Waco and have seven children: Charissa (BA '95, MA '96, JD '99), Bryan (BA '98), Eraina (BA '99, MSEd and MDiv '02), Michael (BA '02, Texas Tech MA '04), Alathea (BA '03), Sophia (a Baylor junior) and Paul (a high school junior).

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

IAN McCAW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LAURENTIAN, 1985

Ian McCaw assumed the leadership of Baylor's 17-sport, Big 12 intercollegiate athletics program on Sept. 8, 2003.

Baylor enjoyed one of its most comprehensively successful years in 2003-04 including winning the first NCAA team championship in school history along with three NCAA individual titles. The men's tennis team captured the NCAA team championship, while Benjamin Becker won the NCAA men's singles title, Jeremy Wariner won the NCAA indoor and outdoor 400 meter title and the 4x400-meter relay team captured the NCAA indoor and outdoor championship.

Baylor had 10 teams advance to 2003-04 NCAA postseason competition including women's cross country, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, women's basketball, softball, men's and women's golf and men's tennis. An 11th Baylor program, women's tennis, had an individual participate in the national championships.

In the final NACDA Cup rankings, Baylor finished 47th, and seven of its programs were ranked in the nation's top 25 at season's end.

A five-year strategic plan for intercollegiate athletics was developed and implemented inclusive of department goals and objectives. Issues relating to the student-athlete experience, enhanced program competitiveness, equity, diversity, rules compliance, sporting conduct, external support, facility improvements and long-term financial stability were addressed.

McCaw is Baylor's ninth athletic director and came to Baylor from the University of Massachusetts, where he spent the previous year as director of athletics. McCaw was responsible for a 23-sport program and helped develop and implement a five-year strategic plan for UMass athletics.

McCaw also oversaw a $2 million renovation of the men's and women's basketball and ice hockey locker room facilities at UMass. In McCaw's one season in Amherst, UMass captured Atlantic 10 championships in men's soccer, men's swimming and softball. The Minuteman football team finished among the I-AA top 20, and the men's lacrosse and softball programs advanced to NCAA postseason play.

During McCaw's tenure at UMass, the athletic program developed a new Massachusetts Minuteman identity system and branding initiative that received widespread regional and national support and recognition. The NCAA graduation rate for UMass student-athletes was 71 percent, 12 points higher than that of the school's general student population.

McCaw arrived UMass from Northeastern University, where he served as director of intercollegiate athletics and campus recreation from 1997-2002. During his five years at Northeastern, the athletic department benefited from McCaw's reorganization and the recruitment of several new key members to the Huskies' staff. A five-year strategic plan for Northeastern athletics inclusive of department goals and objectives was developed and implemented. Issues relating to enhanced program competitiveness, equity, diversity, compliance, sportsmanship, external support, the student-athlete experience, facility improvements and long-term financial stability were at the core.

Northeastern graduated 65 percent of its student-athletes during McCaw's final year at the Boston institution, 14 points higher than the institutional average. In addition, Northeastern student-athletes achieved a mean GPA of 2.94 in the 2001-2002 academic year. Husky student-athletes also gave back to the community, as each team was required to participate in at least one community service project annually.

The success of the Northeastern athletic program on McCaw's watch extended beyond the classroom as the program captured a school-record six America East conference titles in 2001-2002, and five teams finished among the nation's top 20. In all, nine different programs captured at least one conference title during McCaw's tenure and five earned at least one NCAA bid.

Northeastern's first-ever integrated athletics annual giving campaign, the Husky Athletics Fund, was initiated under McCaw's leadership, and attracted nearly 1,000 donors in its initial year. A formal external affairs plan, which included corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, licensing, merchandising and the creation of a Case Award-winning athletics logo was also developed. From 1997-2002, the Northeastern athletic program saw total revenues in the areas of corporate sponsorship, ticket sales and merchandising increase more than 100 percent.

A $4 million renovation of Northeastern's Cabot Center, which included a refurbishment of the main gymnasium, an expanded speed, strength and conditioning center, a new sports medicine center, expanded and renovated locker rooms, was also completed under McCaw's direction.

Recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics, McCaw was the chairman of the 2002-2003 NCAA Division I men's ice hockey committee. He also served on the Atlantic 10 Football, Hockey East and National Consortium for Academics and Sports executive committees. In addition, McCaw has served on the America East championships, gender equity, men's basketball, sporting conduct and baseball committees. McCaw went to Northeastern from Tulane University, where he served as senior associate athletic director for development and associate athletic director for external affairs from 1992-1997, being named Tulane's co-interim director of athletics in 1996.

Prior to his years at Tulane, McCaw worked with virtually every aspect of athletic administration at the University of Maine from 1986 to 1992. He progressed to the roles of assistant sports information director (1986-1987), sports information director (1988-1990), assistant athletic director for external affairs (1990-1991) and associate athletic director for external affairs (1991-1992).

McCaw earned his master's degree in sport management from UMass in 1987, after receiving a bachelor's degree in sports administration at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, in 1985. McCaw and his wife, Heather, are members of First Baptist Church of Woodway and the parents of four children: Christy, Paul, Callie and Corinne.

WALTER ABERCROMBIE

ASSOCIATE AD/EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR "B" ASSOCIATION
BAYLOR, 1984

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JULY 2004

Walter Abercrombie, one of Baylor University's all-time football greats, joined the athletic department in June as associate athletic director and the first full-time executive director of the "B" Association, the school's 700-member organization of former letterwinners.

In addition to reconnecting with Baylor's 4,000 letterwinners, Abercrombie will serve as the athletic department's liaison and spokesperson with community, church and Christian organizations, assist in furthering relationships with Baylor alumni and special projects.

A standout running back for Baylor legendary coach Grant Teaff from 1978 through 1981, Abercrombie rejoins the Baylor family from the American Football Coaches Association, where he has served as Teaff's Director of Education and Special Projects since joining the organization in 1995. In his AFCA position, Abercrombie has served as the liaison to AFCA members in divisions other than NCAA I-A, while also coordinating the selection of Hula Bowl participants and leading the professional development series at the annual AFCA convention.

Before joining the AFCA staff, Abercrombie worked as an assistant director in Baylor's Office of Student Retention and Athletic-Academic Support Programs from 1992 until joining the AFCA staff in June of 1995.

The Bears' all-time leading rusher with 3,665 yards during his standout career from 1978-81, Abercrombie came to Baylor from Waco's University High School, and helped the Bears to a 26-15 record on the field. He rushed for 207 yards in his first collegiate game, a 24-6 Baylor victory at No. 12 Texas A&M, an NCAA record for rushing yards in a first contest, and a Baylor legend was born. Abercrombie's 1978 performance against the Aggies marked the start of Baylor's only four-game win streak ever over its longtime rivals from College Station. He went on to earn 1978 Southwest Conference freshman of the year honors, despite playing in just six games, and was a consensus All-SWC performer in each of his final three seasons.

Abercrombie led Teaff's Bears to the 1979 Peach Bowl, the 1980 Southwest Conference title and an appearance in the 1981 Cotton Bowl. He garnered 1980 Southwest Conference player of the year honors as a junior.

A member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame, Abercrombie was a first-round draft pick (12th selection overall) by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1982. He played for the Steelers from 1982 through 1987, before spending his final professional seasons (1988-89) with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Walter and his wife, Kim, have three children, Wesley, Warren and Ryann. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Baylor in 1984 and 1992, respectively.

PAUL BRASHAW

ASSOC. AD/COMPLIANCE & STUDENT-ATHLETE WELFARE

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: NOVEMBER 1996

Paul Bradshaw, a Baylor graduate and licensed attorney, is in his ninth year in the Baylor athletic department.

Bradshaw oversees the department's compliance program, is responsible for the supervision of several women's sports programs, the training staff and the strength and conditioning staff. He also serves as the department's liaison with student-athlete services.

Before returning to Baylor, Bradshaw served as associate and assistant commissioner of the Southland Conference from 1994-96. At the Southland, he supervised the conference's compliance program and oversaw competition in men's basketball, baseball, men's golf and track and field/cross country. He also coordinated several conference championships.

Prior to joining the Southland, Bradshaw served as the compliance coordinator for Southwest Texas State for two years.

The Texarkana, Texas, native graduated from Baylor's Hankamer School of Business in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned his juris doctorate from Baylor School of Law in 1988. In 1992 Bradshaw completed a master's degree in sports administration at the University of Texas.

Bradshaw has worked as an attorney in both Tyler, Texas, and San Antonio, Texas. He is married to the former Kelly Meadors and the couple has one son, Luke.

BILL CHAVES

ASSOCIATE AD/MARKETING & SALES
ST. THOMAS [FLA.], 1988

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JUNE 2004

Bill Chaves came to Baylor in June as associate athletic direcor for marketing and sales after spending two years as associate athletic director for development and ticket services at the University of Massachusetts.

While at UMass he was involved in overseeing the ticket office as well as serving as the department's main contact for all donor/season ticket holder's priority point portfolios. Chaves also headed the UMass Athletic Association's annual fund campaign in 2003 as well as handling game day operations in 2002. He also was responsible for all external ticketing initiatives for the 17,000-seat Warren McGurik Alumni Football Stadium and the 9,493-seat William D. Mullins Center (basketball and hockey). During his tenure, he also played a key role in various special events as well as overseeing the first-ever ice hockey sellout in UMass history.

Chaves moved to UMass in the fall of 2002, after spending one year as assistant athletic director for external affairs at Northeastern. He was directly responsible for all marketing, ticketing and promotional initiatives, with Northeastern seeing increases in its men's ice hockey season ticket base and its corporate partner program.

Prior to his time at Northeastern, the Enfield, Conn., native spent two years as assistant athletic director for development at Northern Colorado, overseeing the school's corporate partner program, Blue & Gold Club and Old Bears Club. Before that, he served as a teaching assistant in the UMass Sport Management department in 1998-1999, while completing his master's degree. Chaves also served as director of athletics and intramurals for the Enfield (Conn.) Public Schools from 1995-1998, and was the director of sports information at Quinnipiac from 1990-1995.

Chaves received his bachelor's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas (Fla.) University in 1988, and his first master's degree from Oklahoma State in 1991. He and his wife, Liz, have two children, Erin (4) and Derek (1).

CLYDE HART

ASSOCIATE AD/TRACK & FIELD HEAD COACH
BAYLOR, 1956

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: MAY 1963

Clyde Hart, in his 42nd year with Baylor athletics, holds the dual title of associate athletic director for internal affairs and head track and field coach.

A former state champion high school sprinter in Arkansas, Hart still holds the Baylor record in the 100-yard dash and ran on the Southwest Conference champion 440-yard relay team that tied the world record. He also was a member of BU's 880-yard relay team that won college track's Triple Crown, the Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays.

Hart began his coaching career at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he won five straight cross country and track state championships. Before coming back to Baylor in 1963, Hart had coached Central runners to virtually every state record in Arkansas.

The Bears' men's team has finished as high as third in the NCAA championships four times (1985 indoor and outdoor; 1990 outdoor; 2001 outdoor). In 1989, 1990 and 1991, the Bears were ranked by Track and Field News as the top collegiate relay team in America, based on statistical rankings of all relays.

Hart has coached athletes to All-America honors 449 times. His relay teams have set American, collegiate, conference and junior world records at a variety of distances.

Hart is well known for his tutoring of 400-meter runners. Included in his list of stellar pupils are eight-time All-American Mark Collins, former SWC record holder Zeke Jefferson, 10-time All-American Johnny Thomas and NCAA champions Willie Caldwell, Raymond Pierre, Michael Johnson, Deon Minor, Brandon Couts and Jeremy Wariner. At the 2001 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Bayano Kamani claimed his second 400-meter hurdles national title and teammate Michael Smith finished second, the first-ever 1-2 finish in the event in NCAA history.

Hart's 4x400-meter relay teams have won 15 NCAA titles since 1985 and the men's team has finished in the top five at the NCAA Outdoor Championships for 24 straight years. They also have won the Texas Relays 18 of the last 22 years and the Drake Relays in 10 of the last 13 years. In 1998, Baylor won an unprecedented men's and women's 4x400-meter relays at the same NCAA indoor meet.

A 2001 inductee into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, Hart was recognized by the Texas Sports Writers Association as the state's Senior College Spring Coach of the Year in 1985. The NCAA Track Coaches Association named Hart their 1989 national indoor coach of the year, and he is that group's past president. In 1996, Hart swept conference, regional and national coach of the year honors. He also was named the USOC national track coach of the year.

Hart and his wife Maxine, also a Baylor graduate and professor emeritus of BU's Hankamer School of Business, have two grown sons, Greg and Scott, and three grandchildren.

TOM HILL

ASSOCIATE AD/FACILITIES & EVENT MANAGEMENT

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: DECEMBER 1989

Tom Hill, in his 16th year at Baylor, is a man who wears many hats. Currently an associate athletic director, in his time at Baylor he has worked as a graduate assistant, NCAA compliance director, assistant track coach and assistant athletic director.

In the last four years, Hill has moved from coaching to serving as the athletic department's director of facilities and event management. He was promoted to his current position of associate AD in the summer of 2001.

Hill is responsible for all the athletic department's facilities, event management and customer services efforts. He also fulfills administrative duties with the track and field program.

Hill and his staff oversee the department's community relations, concessions and novelties, auxilary events, maintenance of all athletic facilities and game management for both Baylor and outside events.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Hill oversaw many of the department's capital improvement projects, day-to-day operations and football advanced set-up. In addition to these duties, Hill supervised the track and field capital improvement project, served as meet director for the 1997 and 1999 Big 12 Outdoor Track & Field Championships and coordinated the 1998 fall preseason and postseason WNIT.

A native of St. Mary's, W.Va., Hill graduated from Cedarville College in Ohio with a B.A. degree in math. He was a four-year letterman in both track and cross country, running all distances from the 1,500 meters to the 10,000 meters while earning All-America and one Athlete of the Year award.

After Cedarville, Hill worked at his alma mater as assistant cross country coach. He finished his master's degree in sports administration at Baylor in 1989.

Previously involved in Athletes in Action, Hill competed in several European track and field trips, including stints in Eastern Europe. In addition to serving as the European project coordinator for AIA, Hill directed several activities at the national championships. He also is actively involved in the Waco community, serving on the board of directors of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and the Partners of McClennan County. Previously, Hill also sat on the Waco Parks and Recreation Commission.

In the past three years, Hill led "Baylor on Mission" teams to remote villages along the Amazon River Basin in Brazil.

He is married to the former Kristin Mulliner and the couple has three children, Calvin (8), Cora (6) and Chase (4).

NICK JOOS

ASSOC. AD/MEDIA RELATIONS & BROADCAST PROPERTIES

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: OCTOBER 2003

Nick Joos is in his second year as Baylor's associate athletic director for media relations and broadcast properties.

Joos oversees the media relations and broadcast operations for Baylor's 17-sport intercollegiate athletic department and serves as the primary media contact for the football program. He joined the Baylor staff after a brief tenure at the University of Minnesota, where he was the director of athletic media relations.

Prior to his stint with the Golden Gophers, Joos spent three years directing the media relations office at Massachusetts, where he worked for one year under Ian McCaw. He served two years as assistant athletic director for media relations before being name associate athletic director his final year. At UMass, Joos oversaw all public relations activities and information services for the 23-sport athletic program.

During his UMass tenure, Joos oversaw a successful redesign of the department's website, served as the executive editor of the department's monthly donor publication, The Maroon and White, and was the primary media contact for the men's basketball program. Massachusetts' 2000 and 2001 football media guides received Citation for Excellence awards being judged as the nation's second-best I-AA football media guide by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

A native of West Des Moines, Iowa, Joos called the University of Nebraska home for 13 years before moving to New England. After graduating from Iowa State University in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications and working as a student assistant in the Cyclone sports information office, Joos began his career at Nebraska. He spent one year as an intern (1987-88) in the Husker sports information office, then served as assistant sports information director (1988-94) and associate director (1994-95) for the Cornhuskers.

At Nebraska, Joos served as the media relations contact for men's basketball and men's and women's track & field. He was the secondary football contact during his final two years in the office, and worked with the Huskers' 1994 national championship team. All-told, he assisted with eight Husker football teams which earned bowl bids and 10 basketball teams which captured postseason invitations.

Joos' final five years at Nebraska were spent as the director of men's basketball operations, where his duties included managing the program's budget, coordinating team travel, scheduling and community relations. During his Nebraska career, he also served as the executive producer of the Danny Nee Television Show for 11 years and handled color commentary on Husker men's basketball radio broadcasts for seven seasons. Joos was also a press officer at the 1991 Pan American Games and the 1989 and 1990 U.S. Olympic Festivals.

A member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America committee, Joos is in his second year of a two-year term as an at-large member on the CoSIDA Board of Directors. He and his wife, Jill, are the parents of two children, Christopher and Jenna.

TODD PATULSKI

CENTRAL MICHIGAN, 1990

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: OCTOBER 2003

Todd Patulski is in his second year as associate athletic director for finance and administration, having come aboard in October as the first hire made by new athletic director Ian McCaw.

Patulski arrived at Baylor after five years in the Northeastern University athletic department, the last three and a half serving as associate A.D. for finance and administration. In 2002, he served three months as interim director of athletics at Northeastern, overseeing the entire athletic department.

At Northeastern, Patulski handled the fiscal and administrative duties for the school's 19 Division I athletic programs. His direct responsibilities included financial oversight of athletic revenues, oversight of athletic financial aid resources, and management of all athletic accounts. Patulski was hired at Northeastern in May 1998 as assistant A.D. for business and was promoted to associate A.D. in January 2000.

Prior to his stint at Northeastern, Patulski spent six years (1992-1998) as vice president at West Shore Bank in Scottville, Mich., where he managed consumer loan portfolios, marketed new loan products and collected delinquent accounts.

Patulski is a 1990 graduate of Central Michigan University with a degree in business administration. He was a three-year letterwinner in track and field at Central Michigan, and served as team captain as a senior.

In 1994, Patulski graduated from Central Michigan's Perry M. School of Banking, receiving the Outstanding Student award. Patulski has a history of community involvement, including service with the Boston Police Department youth programs, Big Brothers Big Sisters and Boy Scouts of America.

Patulski and his wife Rachel are the parents of three daughters: Lauren (8), Hannah (5) and Alicja (2).

DOUG SMITH

KENT STATE, 1969

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JULY 1998

After five years as Executive Director of the Baylor Bear Foundation, Doug Smith was promoted to the position of associate athletic director for development in November 2003. He also continues to serve at the Bear Foundation's Executive Director and is now involved in all aspects of fund raising for athletics.

In his six years at Baylor, Doug Smith has made his mark on the Bear Foundation, the athletic department's annual fundraising arm. Recognized nationally for his development of the "team concept" approach to athletic fundraising, his program of involving volunteers has been very successful since its inception in 1999.

Smith came to Baylor in July 1998 with a track record of 27 years of university administration and fund raising to the tune of $47 million in annual funds. He has led efforts at seven other major universities. One of his biggest success stories came at the University of Oklahoma, where he administered the entire athletic development program, which included annual giving, major gifts, special projects, skysuites, deferred giving, gifts-in-kind, marketing and promotions and licensing. Total revenue from that area per year was more than $5 million.

Prior to Baylor, Smith directed athletic fundraising at Rice University, where his team concept tripled previous annual donations. He also has directed highly successful programs at SMU, New Mexico, Pacific, Cal State Fullerton and his alma mater, Kent State.

Named "National Athletic Fundraiser of the Year" in 1990, Smith is a founding member of the National Athletic Fundraising Association and a founding board member of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors.

Smith and his wife, Loraine, are the parents of four children, sons Scott and Lane and daughters Kristen and Nicole. They also have one grandchild, Benjamin.

Jeff Collier is in his fourth year as a member of the Baylor athletic department. He was hired by his alma mater in April 2001 and serves as the department's business manager.

Collier's duties as business manager include being responsible for the day-to-day financial operations of the athletic department as well as overseeing the fiscal budgets for all of Baylor's sports programs.

Prior to returning to Baylor and joining the athletic department, Collier worked as an auditor at Andersen, LLP in Dallas for three years.

Collier earned a dual BBA and MBA from Baylor in 1998. He is a member of Columbus Avenue Baptist Church and is active in the children's and recreation ministries.

MARY FELKNER

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: DECEMBER 1981

Mary Felkner has been employed at Baylor since 1981 and has served as ticket manager since 1995. In that capacity, she supervises all ticket office operations. She is also responsible for the compilation of ticket data and reports, inventory control, printing of tickets and the operation of game day ticket sales.

A native of Canton, Miss., Felkner graduated from Canton High in 1957 and received an associate's degree from Itawamba Junior College in 1974. Prior to coming to Baylor, she worked as an office manager in Tupelo, Miss., and in real estate in Columbus, Miss.

Felkner has twice been honored as Woman of the Year by Beta Sigma Pi (1981 and 1993 as president of the American Business Women's Association). She and her husband Bill have two children, Susan and Billy, and two grandchildren.

MICHAEL COLLINS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS
DRAKE, 1999

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JANUARY 2004

Michael Collins is in his first year as an assistant director of athletic media relations at Baylor, serving as the primary media contact for softball, soccer and cross country. In addition, he is in charge of the design and publication of the Baylor football gameday program.

Prior to his arrival at Baylor, Collins worked as a sports information assistant at Kansas State University where he served as the primary media contact for cross country, track and field and rowing. He also handled a variety of media relations duties for the K-State football team and served as the secondary media contact for the Big 12 Championship game and Fiesta Bowl. In addition, he designed and published the 2003 K-State volleyball media guide, a publication the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) named second best in the district.

He also worked for two years in the Marshall University athletic department as a sports information graduate assistant while working towards a master's degree in journalism. During his time at Marshall, Collins served as the primary media contact for men's soccer, baseball and women's tennis and served as the media director for the 2003 Mid-American Conference men's soccer tournament. CoSIDA named his 2002 men's soccer media guide the second best men's soccer publication in the district.

A Lawrence, Kan., native and a 1999 graduate of Drake University with a degree in journalism, Collins also has served in public relations roles for the Eugene (Ore.) Symphony Association and Dynamac Corporation, an environmental firm based out of Washington, D.C.

LARRY LITTLE

LOUISIANA TECH, 1998

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JULY 2000

Larry Little is in his fifth year as assistant director of athletic media relations/publications coordinator, working as the primary contact for baseball and the secondary contact for football. He also oversees production of publications and graphic design for the athletic department.

During Little's time on staff, Baylor has received several high marks from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 2000 volleyball guide received the Eugene O. Nelson Award for Excellence in Publications from USA Volleyball.

A 1998 Louisiana Tech journalism graduate, Little also has worked at Mississippi State, the University of Virginia and his alma mater. Little has worked numerous NCAA postseason events, including serving as official statistician for the 2002 and 2003 Volleyball Championships. He also has served as official scorer for several baseball and softball conference and NCAA postseason tournaments.

A veteran broadcaster, Little handles radio play-by-play duties for Baylor's softball team and is a substitue for Baylor baseball broadcasts. Previously he handled radio duties for baseball at Virginia and Louisiana Tech. For his dedication to the baseball program at his alma mater, Little was awarded an honorary letter in 1998.

Little, who calls Ruston, La., home, is a member of CoSIDA, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association, the Football Writers' Association of America and the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

ADMINISTRATION

DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE SALES
BAYLOR, 1990

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: MARCH 1999

In his sixth year as the athletic department's director of corporate sales is Baylor alumnus Brad Mayer. His responsibilities include selling advertising for radio, venue signage, game programs and the internet. Mayer also is involved in new client development.

Prior to returning to work for his alma mater, Mayer served as a senior financial analyst for the Intel Corporation from 1995 to 1999. He worked as a treasury analyst for Western Atlas International from 1990 to 1993.

Mayer earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Baylor in 1990. He received an MBA from Indiana in 1995. He and his wife, Shelly, have four children: Connor, Camryn, Jace and Jared.

JOHN MORRIS

DIRECTOR OF BROADCASTING
BAYLOR, 1980

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JUNE 1995

Baylor's Director of Broadcasting is John Morris in his 10th year. Having just completed his 18th year broadcasting Baylor Football, the 45-year old Morris serves as the play-by-play "Voice of the Bears" for football and men's basketball.

A 1980 Baylor graduate, Morris worked as a sports and news anchor on Waco's CBS affiliate, KWTX-TV, for 15 years before joining the Baylor Athletic Department in June of 1995. He worked closely with, and then succeeded, the legendary Frank Fallon as the signature voice of Baylor athletics. In addition to his play-by-play duties for Baylor football and men's basketball, he works with affiliates and radio and television partners and is involved in athletic marketing.

Morris also hosts the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" on flagship station KRZI 1660 AM, daily Big 12 reports, "Guy Talk with Guy Morriss," "State Farm Baylor Hour," and co-hosts the award-winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show.

The Kentucky native has won numerous awards for his broadcasting and in November 2003 was presented the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award by the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife Terri, a 1985 Baylor graduate, have three children: Meagan (15), Maddie (11), and M.J. (8). The Morris' are active members of Highland Baptist Church in Waco.

HEATH NIELSEN

DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: MAY 2000

Heath Nielsen is in his fifth year as Baylor's director of athletic media relations.

In addition to serving as the media contact for men's basketball and assisting with football, Nielsen is responsible for supervising the day-to-day operation of Baylor's media relations office. He served as Baylor's interim assistant AD for media relations from August to October 2003.

Nielsen came to Baylor from New Mexico State, where he spent two years as assistant AD for media relations. At NMSU, Nielsen was responsible for the media relations operation for a 15-sport Division I athletic program.

Prior to New Mexico State, Nielsen spent four and a half years as assistant director of athletic media relations at Mississippi State. At MSU, Nielsen's duties involved serving as the main media contact for the football, baseball and soccer programs. Nielsen is a 1994 graduate of Utah State with a B.A. degree in journalism and a minor in Spanish. He spent three years as a student assistant in USU's sports information office.

A native of Tucson, Ariz., Nielsen has worked 13 NCAA championship events and in 2002 was publicist for the Big 12 Men's Basketball All-Star's tour of Scandinavia. He has received numerous awards for his publications, including his 1996 MSU baseball media guide that was judged "Best in the Nation." He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America, and the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Nielsen is married to the former Deena Thurston of Logan, Utah. They are the parents of three sons, H, Kye and Sayer.

RUSSELL RENEAU

ASST. DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS/INTERNET COORD.
BAYLOR, 1998

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: SEPTEMBER 2003

Russell Reneau is in his second year at Baylor as assistant director of media relations, serving as internet coordinator and the primary contact for volleyball, track and field and golf.

Reneau returned to his alma mater after spending the past two years at Jacksonville University in Florida, where he served as the media contact for baseball, women's basketball and volleyball.

Prior to Jacksonville, Reneau was the media relations assistant at Rice University from 2000 to 2001. He was the primary contact for soccer, swimming and cross country and helped Rice host the 2001 NCAA Baseball Regional.

Reneau was also sports copy editor at the Waco Tribune-Herald from 1998-2000. At the Trib, he was responsible for page layout, editing copy and also wrote columns and features.

While at Baylor, Reneau was a regular play-by-play voice Baylor baseball games from 1996-98 on KWBU and wrote for The Baylor Lariat. He earned his bachelor's degree in journalism in 1998.

PETE ROWE

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY SERVICE
BAYLOR, 1973

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JULY 1996

Pete Rowe is in his eighth year as a member of the Baylor athletic department. He serves as Baylor's director of customer service and is charged with overseeing the athletic department's customer service and auxiliary services.

His duties also include serving as the athletic department liaison for all city, county and state government relations. He also is responsible for coordinating all high school football playoff games at Floyd Casey Stadium and serves as the contact for the Texas High School Coaches Association. Rowe also is involved in many aspects of game management and fund raising and oversees the management of Baylor's concessions and novelties operation. Rowe also works with the Baylor Bear Foundation soliciting gifts-in-kind and was one of the top 12 producers in the 2001 Baylor Bear Foundation Fund Drive.

Rowe joined the department in 1996 as the internal operations manager. A 1973 graduate of Baylor, Rowe spent seven years as a high school coach in nearby Mart, Riesel, Marlin and Red Oak. He led the Mart track team to a state championship in 1978 and was named Texas High School Coach of the Year.

From 1980-97, Rowe served as the facilities manager for Texas Utilities and also acted as a volunteer track coach at Baylor.

Rowe has served as the president of the Mart ISD Board of Trustees for five years after spending three years on the board. He also is a member of the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame.

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING
BAYLOR, 2000

JOINED BAYLOR ATHLETICS: JUNE 2001

Bart Smith is in his fourth year as Baylor's director of marketing, after serving one year as assistant director of marketing for the athletic department. Smith returned to his alma mater to join the athletic department in June 2001.

As the marketing director, Smith is responsible for writing and implementing all promotional and marketing plans for Baylor athletics. His duties include game day production as well as development of all advertising and collateral pieces.

A 2000 graduate of Baylor, Smith worked as a student assistant in Baylor's athletic marketing office for two years. Following graduation, he served as a marketing intern at the University of Arkansas and also interned in the ticket office at the University of Texas. Smith will receive his master's degree in sport management from Baylor in December 2004.

BAYLOR BEAR FOUNDATION

BEAR FOUNDATION FUND DRIVE
THE 18TH TEAM

The primary method of raising funds for athletic scholarships at Baylor is done by conducting an annual "fund drive" each spring. The fund drive utilizes the "team concept" whereby alumni and friends of the athletic department are organized into teams of volunteers to raise money. The volunteers work in a friendly, competitive environment soliciting memberships in return for achieving individual and team honors for their efforts.

The fund drive runs for about six weeks beginning in early spring each year. The campaign coincides with the membership year of all Bear Foundation memberships. Volunteers are asked to make contact with friends, family members, businesses and other alumni who are interested in joining the Bear Foundation to help support scholarships for student-athletes at Baylor.

More than 250 volunteers across the state of Texas and in outlying states raised more than $2.0 million dollars for athletic scholarships in 2004. Volunteers have the opportunity to attend numerous Baylor athletic events as well as meet the Baylor coaches and student-athletes during the fund drive each year. Anyone with an interest in Baylor athletics can become a volunteer.

For more information about the 2005 Fund Drive and how you can become a part of The 18th Team, contact the Baylor Bear Foundation office at (254) 710-2582 or email us at bearfoundation@baylor.edu.

YOUNG ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Young Alumni Program, in its second year within the Baylor Bear Foundation structure, offers the opportunity for young alumni and recent graduates to become involved or continue to be involved with Baylor athletics. At the same time, these new members help support the education of our student-athletes through scholarship assistance.

For only $8.33 per monthly, the Young Alumni Program of the Baylor Bear Foundation gives seniors and graduates within the past five years all the benefits that regular members of the Bear Foundation pay at least $300 to receive.

Check out these exciting benefits YOU could enjoy this year!

- 38% discount on football season tickets or 3 game mini-ticket package
- Eligibility for priority seating at home football and basketball games
- Reserved parking at home football games
- Insider newsletter subscription to follow the latest news on all Baylor teams
- Membership card and decal
- Game program recognition
- Invitations to special events for young alumni
- Special events for Baylor seniors each semester
- Complementary pre-game meals hosted by the Bear Foundation in the Bear Zone before home football games

PREFERRED ADVERTISERS CLUB

The Baylor Athletic Department's Preferred Advertisers' Club (PAC) represents a large group of business advertisers that have chosen to invest in a variety of individualized advertising packages. Included in the wide range of benefits offered to advertisers are scoreboard recognition, program ads, marquee messages, season tickets, signage and promotional opportunities at Floyd Casey Stadium, The Ferrell Center, The Baylor Ballpark and Getterman Stadium.

Three levels of corporate involvement are available. Diamond PAC members have made advertising investments in excess of $10,000, while Gold PAC advertisers take advantage of package benefits of $3,000 or more. Green PAC members are involved in commitments over $2,000.

The Baylor Athletic Department appreciates these businesses and their direct involvement and relationships. The individuals represented here are more than advertisers – they are friends. Please thank these friends of Baylor!

THE UNIVERSITY

BAYLOR

TEXAS' OLDEST EXISTING UNIVERSITY

Chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas through the efforts of Baptist pioneers, Baylor University is the state's oldest institution of higher learning in continuous operation.

While remaining true to its Christian heritage, Baylor welcomes students from all 50 states and some 90 countries. Its nationally recognized academic divisions offer 164 baccalaureate degree programs, 72 master's degree programs, 19 doctoral degree programs and five professional degree programs.

Baylor's 735-acre campus is on the banks of the Brazos River in Waco, Texas, a metropolitan area of 213,000 people.

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming its distinctive Christian mission. Visit www.baylor.edu/vision to discover the progress toward and benefits of the Vision.

ACADEMICS

Baylor consists of 10 academic units. Baccalaureate programs are offered through the College of Arts and Sciences, Hankamer School of Business, Louise Herrington School of Nursing, the Honors College and the Schools of Education, Engineering and Computer Science, and Music. At the graduate and professional levels, Baylor houses the Graduate School, Law School and George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

The College of Arts and Sciences offers a comprehensive range of programs for Baylor students through its 26 academic departments. Students have the opportunity to pursue a variety of degrees through the College. Most students take courses within the College as part of their core curriculum requirements for degrees from other schools at Baylor.

Students in the College routinely qualify for prestigious academic awards. During the past few years, Baylor students have received Fulbright, Goldwater, Truman and Marshall Scholarships and Howard Hughes Predoctoral and National Science Foundation Fellowships.

The Hankamer School of Business has prepared its graduates to succeed in the highly competitive climate of the world economy. The School's undergraduate curriculum, which leads to the bachelor of business administration degree, encompasses the liberal arts and sciences, a professional business core and 19 major fields of study. Hankamer also offers a graduate business program with 10 fields of study, including executive education programs and specializations in health care administration, international business and customer relationship management.

U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's undergraduate business programs in the top 16 percent in its 2005 guide to "America's Best Colleges," while ranking the graduate entrepreneurship program 28th in the nation. Entrepreneurship magazine ranks Baylor's entrepreneurship program in the top tier, and The Princeton Review includes Hankamer's MBA program in its "Top 80 Business Schools in America." The School's Executive MBA program is ranked 20th by U.S. News & World Report. The Executive MBA in Dallas was rated as the top program in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, the 14th in the U.S. and 25th in the world by Financial Times.

The programs in the Honors College enrich the University's academic programs. Established as part of Baylor 2012, the College's programs are designed for those with both superior academic qualifications and a high degree of intellectual curiosity and motivation. The Honors, University Scholars, Great Texts and Baylor Interdisciplinary Core programs are found in the College.

The School of Education, accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), offers six degrees with more than 60 specializations. State Board for Educator Certification data indicates Baylor students and graduates earn greater than a 97 percent passing rate on state examinations for teachers, counselors and administrators. The School's network of professional development schools and Center for Educational Technology places it as a leader in the use of technology for improving teaching and learning. The Baylor University/Waco Independent School District Partnership Council is implementing 10 professional development schools (PDS) in Texas and establishing a mentoring program which will assist local teachers. In 2001, School of Education Dean Robert Yinger was elected to the board of directors of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE), a national association of colleges and universities with programs that prepare professional educators.

UMPHREY LAW CENTER

The School of Engineering and Computer Science combines traditional liberal arts and challenging technical programs to provide its graduates skills including communication, ethics, teamwork and technical competency. The School offers undergraduate degrees in five majors and a master's degree in computer science. In its 2003 guide to "America's Best Colleges," U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's engineering program 20th in the nation among those focused on the needs of undergraduates. For the seventh consecutive year, 100 percent of Baylor's engineering students who have taken the Fundamentals of Engineering examination administered by the Texas State Board of Registration for Engineers have passed the exam. Baylor computer science graduates command top compensation and acclaim from diverse employers. The School's bioinformatics major – a specialization that combines molecular biology and computer science – is one of the first of its kind in the world. The development of a Baylor laboratory housing the database from the human genome project is giving bioinformatics students unparalleled laboratory and research experiences. Opportunities for further enrichment include study abroad programs, engineering design projects, summer intern work experience in computer science, and residence in the Engineering and Computer Science Living-Learning Center within the under-construction North Village Complex.

The School of Music offers students a thorough background of music training and high-quality performance experience in its curriculum. Performing groups in the School of Music include the Baylor Symphony Orchestra, Golden Wave Marching Band, A Cappella Choir, Opera Theater, Baylor ShowTime! and numerous other ensembles. These groups have performed at prestigious conventions, including the American Choral Directors Association, the American Bandmasters Association and the American Guild of Organists. The School presents more than 300 programs each year by students, faculty and guest artists. Annual highlights include the President's Concert and the Dean's Honor Concert. The School's weekly radio program, "Music at Baylor," is broadcast on National Public Radio affiliate KWBU-FM. The School's students also will be highlighted in "Christmas at Baylor," a television special that aired on PBS stations across the country during the 2003 holiday season. Students of the School have achieved national recognition, including fellowships to the Blossom Music Festival, Aspen Music Festival and Tanglewood Festival. The most significant national event in the field of church music, the Hearn Symposium, is held biannually at Baylor.

The Louise Herrington School of Nursing offers upper division (junior and senior) baccalaureate and master's programs on the Dallas campus at the Baylor University Medical Center. Undergraduate nursing students pursue the bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) degree and prepare for the registered nurse (RN) licensure. The School also offers the master of science in nursing (MSN) degree in three areas: nursing administration and management, family nurse practitioner (FNP) and neonatal nurse practitioner (NNP), as well as a joint BSN/MSN program for RNs. U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's master's programs as 58th in the nation in its 2003 "Best Graduate Schools" listing. Nearly 100 percent of Baylor nursing graduates who seek employment upon graduation find a position within one month and most are employed upon graduation.

Many of the programs in Baylor's Graduate School consistently receive high national rankings, including entrepreneurship, music, religion, clinical psychology, speech pathology, physical therapy, health care administration and nursing. With more than 1,200 graduate students on campuses in Waco, Dallas, San Antonio and West Point, Baylor awards more than 600 master's degrees and 60 doctoral degrees each year. The clinical psychology program at Baylor, the oldest and longest accredited university PsyD program in the country, has a national reputation for producing outstanding practicing clinical psychologists. Baylor has the only PhD programs in the nation in church-state studies and applied sociology. Doctoral programs include biology, biomedical studies, chemistry, church-state studies, education (administration, curriculum and instruction, psychology), English, geology, mathematics, neuroscience, philosophy, physical therapy, physics, religion, sociology and statistics.

Baylor Law School, the oldest law school in Texas, draws its students from across the nation. Entering credential levels for students are in the top 15th to 20th percentile nationally. In a recent edition of The Princeton Review, Baylor is described as "the Marine Corps of law schools." The publication notes that "the Baylor University School of Law is very small, very affordable, and very difficult to get into. For students lucky enough to gain admissions, Baylor's unique, ultra-intense, and 'tough' Practice Court Program is arguably the best training ground in the nation for practical lawyering." The school's mock trial and moot court teams are perennially successful in interscholastic competition on state, regional and national levels. Baylor Law School also has an unparalleled record of success on the Texas Bar Exam and an enviable placement rate. About 82 percent of the approximately 400 students

One of the nation's fastest growing theological schools, George W. Truett Theological Seminary is an accredited member of the Association of Theological Schools. Since welcoming its first class in fall 1994 with one Master of Divinity program, Truett Seminary now offers an MDiv in three concentrations, plus an MDiv/Master of Social Work, an MDiv/Master of Music, an MDiv/MSEd and a Doctor of Ministry. Truett has joined with the College of Arts and Sciences' School of Social Work as a co-founder of the Baylor Center for Family and Community Ministries with the goal of strengthening the capacity of families and communities to nurture faith through the ministry of congregations. In spring 2002 the first classes were held in Truett's Baugh-Reynolds Campus, an $18 million Seminary complex on the Baylor campus, which features classrooms, a student life suite, a prayer room, community spaces, the Paul and Katy Piper Great Hall, the Robert B. Sloan Jr. Teaching Chapel and the Paul Powell Chapel. More than 270 Truett graduates are serving in churches and mission fields throughout the world.

U.S. News & World Report ranked Baylor in the top 130 national universities in its 2003 college guide. And, Baylor is one of 43 public and private colleges and universities nationwide listed as a "Best Buy" in the 2003 edition of The Fiske Guide to Colleges.

Baylor's costs remain below the average tuition for private institutions in Texas and well below the national average of private peer institutions in the first and second tiers of the U.S. News & World Report guide.

Ten-Year Vision: 2002-2012

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold, 10-year vision called Baylor 2012. Baylor's vision for the future, though continuous with its cherished past, aspires to what few institutions, if any, have ever achieved. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming and deepening its distinctive Christian mission. Go to www.baylor.edu/vision for the full text of the vision.

The following 12 imperatives, which reflect Baylor's foundational assumptions and core convictions, are designed to push the University to a new level of excellence, and will propel it into the ranks of the nation's Tier One colleges and universities.

IMPERATIVE I • Establish an environment where learning can flourish

IMPERATIVE II • Create a truly residential campus

IMPERATIVE III • Develop a world-class faculty

IMPERATIVE IV • Attract and support a top-tier student body

IMPERATIVE VI • Guide all Baylor students, through academic and student life programming, to understand life as a stewardship and work as a vocation

IMPERATIVE VII • Provide outstanding academic facilities

IMPERATIVE IX • Enhance involvement of the entire Baylor family

IMPERATIVE XI • Emphasize global education

BAYLOR SCIENCES BUILDING

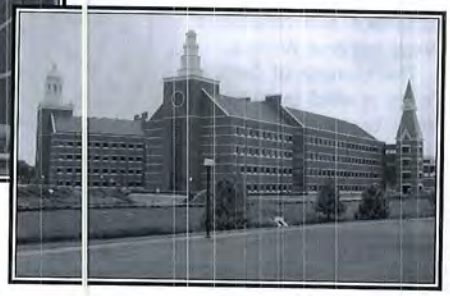
SCHEDULED OPENING: Fall 2004

The four-story, 500,000-square-foot facility will be the largest academic center on campus, four times the size of the Sheila and Walter Umphrey Law Center (128,000 square feet) and almost eight times the size of the 64,000-square-foot George W. Truett Theological Seminary. Construction cost is $103 million. The design includes three wings that will span out toward University Parks Drive; a 300-seat auditorium and a variety of classroom sizes, from 150 seats to numerous smaller, 12-person classrooms; and a four-story atrium designed to promote student interaction.



NORTH RESIDENTIAL VILLAGE

SCHEDULED OPENING: Fall 2004

The North Residential Village, a joint project of Campus Living & Learning and the School of Engineering and Computer Science, will open next fall as the university's first residential facility to be constructed in 40 years. Approximately 180 spaces of the 600-bed North Village residential complex will be reserved for Engineering and Computer Science students; the other 400 beds will be available for sophomores and up from across academic disciplines. The facility is the first of four projected residential villages to be built over the next decade.

WACO

THE HEART OF TEXAS

With a population of 213,000 the Waco metropolitan area is located in the heart of Central Texas and within driving distance of most major urban centers in the state -- approximately 100 miles from Dallas and Austin and 180 miles from Houston and San Antonio. Airline service to Dallas/Fort Worth and Houston is available through the expanded and renovated Waco Regional Airport.

The climate of Central Texas is mild year-round. High temperatures range from the upper 90s at the peak of the summer to the 30s and 40s in the winter. Housing is affordable, and part-time jobs are easy to find.

Outdoor recreational opportunities in the Waco area include 7,000-acre Lake Waco and the 416-acre Cameron Park, one of the state's largest municipal parks which offers hiking and mountain biking trails, a championship disc golf course and the natural habitat Cameron Park Zoo. There are a total of 35 parks in the city.

Annual events include Baylor Homecoming, the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo and outdoor concerts held along the banks of the Brazos River.

A city of museums and galleries, Waco's local offerings include the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Art Center, the Dr Pepper Museum and a number of sites on the Baylor University campus, including two art galleries, Armstrong Browning Library, the Mayborn Museum Complex and the Governor Bill and Vara Daniel Historic Village.

Waco is home to a variety of fine restaurants, many located in the city's revitalized warehouse district downtown. The area features an eclectic mix of restaurants, specialty shops and loft and office space.

WACO HISTORY

Waco is named after the Waco Indians, the first inhabitants of the area surrounding a natural spring on the Brazos River. The tribe lived in beehive-shaped huts and had hundreds of acres of land planted with corn, beans and other vegetables. The tribe was generally considered a peaceful one, but occasionally, when threatened, the Wacos became protective of their territory. Part of their village was located on the banks of the Brazos where the Suspension Bridge was later built.

In 1837, the Texas Rangers arrived intending to build a fort -- Fort Fisher -- at the Waco village, but the expedition was short-lived and plans for the outpost were canceled. A trading post was established near Waco Village in 1844, and a year later a rugged Scot named Neil McLennan established the first frontier settlement in the area. In 1848, three years after Texas became a state, the Mexican land grant surrounding the old Waco Village site was sold to a group of businessmen from Galveston. In 1849, surveyor George Erath laid out the first streets of Waco, and lots were sold for $5 each. The City of Waco was incorporated on Aug. 29, 1856, and serves as the county seat of McLennan County.

In 1870, the 475-foot Suspension Bridge opened as the first pedestrian/wagon bridge across the Brazos River, providing easier access for numerous travelers as well as cattle herds being driven along the Chisholm Trail. The Waco and Northwestern Railroad reached Waco in 1871, and the city was soon a hub of commerce for Central Texas.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS

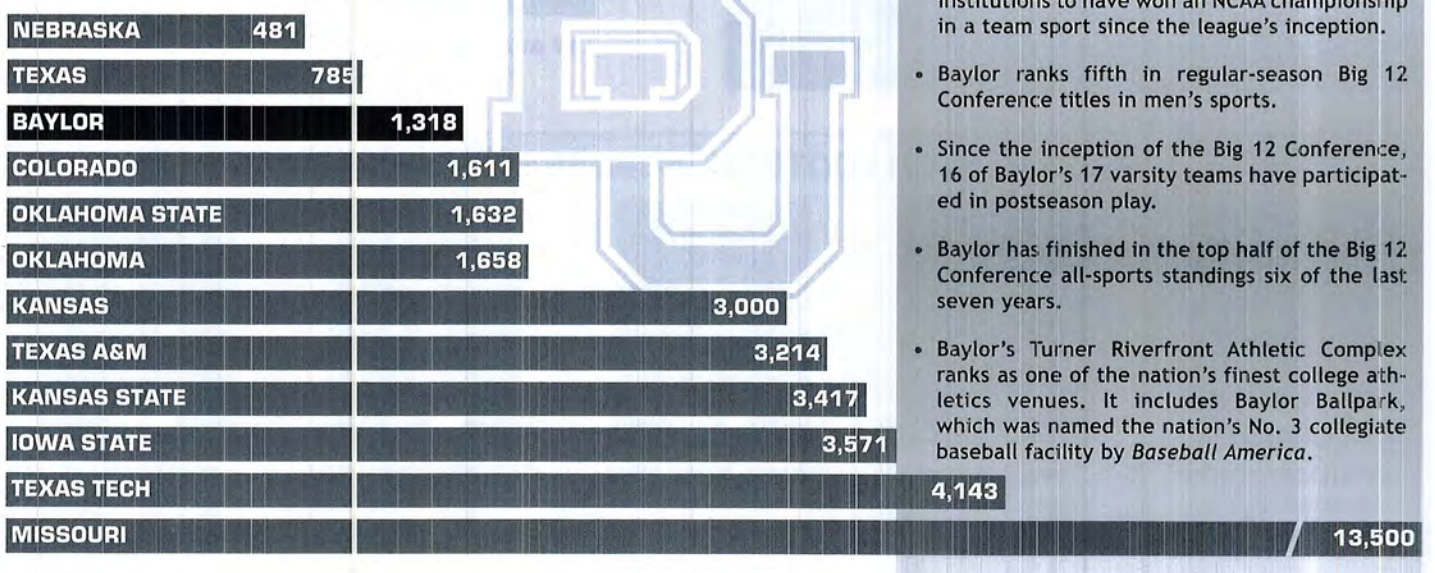
based on 2003-2004 enrollment figures



FACTS & FIGURES

- Baylor is one of only six Big 12 Conference institutions to have won an NCAA championship in a team sport since the league's inception.
- Baylor ranks fifth in regular-season Big 12 Conference titles in men's sports.
- Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, 16 of Baylor's 17 varsity teams have participated in postseason play.
- Baylor has finished in the top half of the Big 12 Conference all-sports standings six of the last seven years.
- Baylor's Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex ranks as one of the nation's finest college athletics venues. It includes Baylor Ballpark, which was named the nation's No. 3 collegiate baseball facility by Baseball America.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS 2003-2004 HIGHLIGHTS

SEPT. 24, 2003 – FERRELL CENTER
Baylor's volleyball team upset ninth-ranked Kansas State in four games, marking the highest-ranked opponent the Bears have ever beaten. It proved to be one of only five losses on the season for eventual Big 12 champion Kansas State.

OCT. 3, 2003 – BETTY LOU MAYS FIELD
Tiffany Boshers and Kandayce Farr scored goals 36 seconds apart as Baylor's soccer team upset 14th-ranked Nebraska 2-1. Baylor's defense limited the high-powered Huskers to only three shots on goal, all coming in the second half.

OCT. 4, 2003 – FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

OCT. 31, 2003 – SPICEWOOD, TEXAS

FEB. 24, 2004 – COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
Matt Sayman scored eight points in overtime as Baylor's men's basketball team defeated Texas A&M 67-61. Overtime was possible thanks to a last-second shot by Terrance Thomas. The victory completed the season series sweep of the Aggies.

MARCH 13, 2004 – FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
Jeremy Wariner won the 400 meters, and the 4x400-meter relay team won in dramatic fashion as Baylor's men's track team finished a program-best sixth at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Three months later, Wariner and the relay team repeated titles at the Outdoor Championships with a seventh-place team finish.

MARCH 22, 2004 – ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.
A 16-2 run midway through the second half propelled Baylor's women's basketball team to a 91-76 victory over Florida in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, sending the Lady Bears to their first ever Sweet 16 appearance.

APRIL 17, 2004 – AUSTIN, TEXAS
Michael Griffin's leadoff home run in the top of the 10th inning gives Baylor's baseball team a 4-3 victory over top-ranked Texas. It was Baylor's first recorded victory over a team ranked first nationally.

MAY 8, 2004 – NORMAL, ILL.
Josefin Svenningsson shot a final-round 71 to finish third invidually at the NCAA Women's Golf Central Regional. The Lady Bears finished fifth as a team, clinching the program's first trip to the NCAA Championships.

MAY 20, 2004 – GETTERMAN STADIUM
Cristin Vitek established more than a dozen NCAA, Big 12 Conference and Baylor records with 28 strikeouts in Baylor's 16-inning, 1-0 victory over North Carolina in the program's first ever NCAA Softball Regional game. The performance earned Vitek a spot on ESPN's SportsCenter.

MAY 25, 2004 – TULSA, OKLA.
The return of Matias Marin's serve sailed long, giving Baylor the first team national title in school history as the men's tennis team blanked UCLA 4-0 in the national championship match. The Bears lost just one match en route to the national title. Six days later, Benjamin Becker claimed the national singles title.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

Beautiful Floyd Casey Stadium is home to the Baylor Bears football team. The stadium is continually upgraded to give Baylor a facility necessary to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

This season, Baylor unveils a new synthetic turf playing surface at Floyd Casey Stadium. After six seasons of play on SportGrass, the natural surface was replaced with the newest generation of artificial turf on the market, the Prestige System playing surface.

Stadium renovations have been constant recently at Floyd Casey. In 2002, Baylor added a 23-by-31-foot LED video screen going in the south end zone. The project included the addition of a state-of-the-art sound system and new digital scoreboards in both end zones.

Finishing touches on Grant Teaff Plaza also came in 2002 with a statue honoring the Bears' long-time head coach. The plaza opened in 2001 and is located at the base of the press box.

Baylor's locker room got a face lift in 2001, when a $2 million facility, the largest in the Big 12, was completed.

Baylor added a state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure on the West side in 1999. One year prior, the team meeting room area also underwent a complete remodeling.

In 1995 the entire façade was sandblasted and painted. In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

The Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Center now houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio and meeting facilities.

The state-of-the-art facility was opened in 1991. Other renovation projects continue as the stadium enters its 55th year of service to Baylor.

After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey.

The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 50,000-seat stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was Nov. 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. The largest crowd to see at home was the 1995 A&M game when 51,218 fans jammed the stadium to watch the Aggies top the Bears 24-9.

Many improvements and additions have been made to the stadium over the years.

From 1972 to 1997, the Bears played on an AstroTurf surface at Floyd Casey Stadium.

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received a facelift in 1995.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher was finished in 1981.

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility.

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35.

The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

THE RESURFACING OF FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

In March 2004, the natural grass surface at Floyd Casey Stadium was replaced with the newest generation of artificial turf on the market, the Prestige System playing surface. Floyd Casey Stadium featured a natural grass playing surface from 1950 through 1971, then utilized various artificial surfaces from 1972 through 1997 before returning to grass in 1998.

BAYLOR BALLPARK

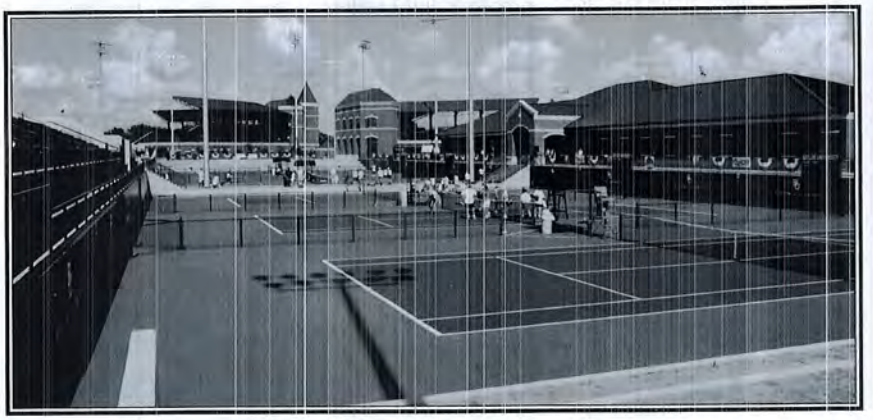
OPENED: Feb. 26, 1999
CAPACITY: 5,000

Baylor Ballpark, the No. 3 collegiate park in the country according to a January 2003 Baseball America survey, is a beautiful facility constructed of red brick and exposed green steel beams that complements the attractive architecture already found on the Baylor campus. With seating for 5,000, including 3,200 chairback seats, the stadium was designed to ensure outstanding sightlines and comfort for the fans. Baylor Ballpark is one of three baseball stadiums in the Big 12 Conference to sport a video board, added in 2003 adjacent to the existing scoreboard. On-site amenities include an indoor batting cage and 1,200-square-foot locker room.

BAYLOR TENNIS CENTER

OPENED: April 24, 2001
CAPACITY: 1,200

Home of the 2004 NCAA Men's Tennis National Champions, the 1,200-seat Baylor Tennis Center opened just in time for Baylor to host the 2001 Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis Championships. The main part of the facility features six outdoor courts with grandstand seating plus three stadium courts. Also completed in the summer of 2001 was an adjoining clubhouse, which houses locker rooms, meeting rooms and coaches' offices for tennis and softball.



BEAR RIDGE GOLF CLUB
BAILEY GOLF CENTER

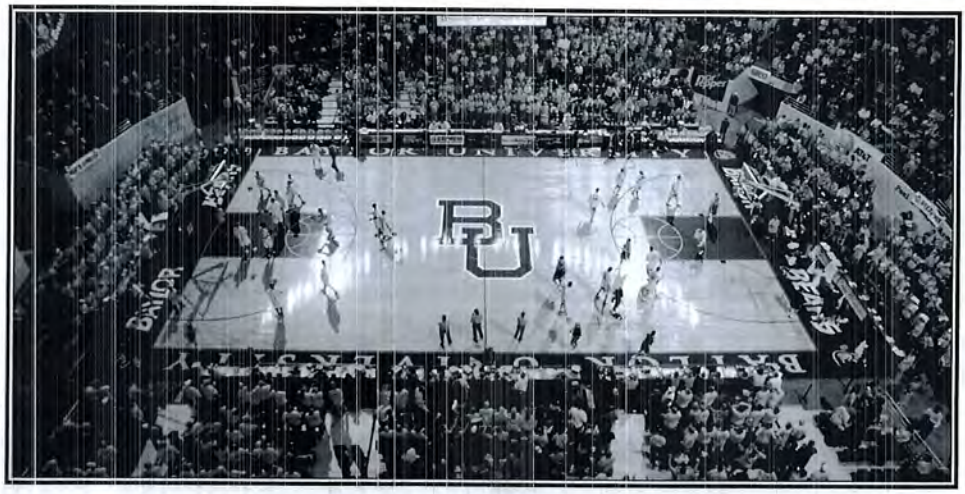
OPENED: November 2001

Beautiful Bear Ridge Golf Club opened in November 2001. Designed by PGA Tour veteran Peter Jacobsen and Jim Hardy, Bear Ridge runs along the ridges atop the Middle and South Bosque Rivers on hilly terrain with several stone-filled streams cutting between large oak trees. A central feature to the course is the Bill and Roberta Bailey Golf Center, the clubhouse for Baylor's men's and women's golf teams. The center includes team locker rooms, coaches' offices and an indoor practice area.

BETTY LOU MAYS SOCCER FIELD

OPENED: Sept. 3, 1999
CAPACITY: 1,000

The 2004 season marks the sixth year for the Baylor soccer team at Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field. The former Baylor Soccer Stadium was retitled during the 2000 season in honor of the late Betty Lou Mays of Amarillo, Texas. Mrs. Mays was the wife of Troy Mays, a 1945 graduate of Baylor; the two were longtime supporters of Baylor athletics.



FERRELL CENTER

OPENED: Nov. 29, 1988
CAPACITY: 10,284

The Ferrell Center, home to Baylor's basketball and volleyball programs, received a new permanent floor and new scoreboards/videoboards for the 2002 season. The renovation follows other recent upgrades, including refurbished locker rooms, new coaches' offices and an improved weight training facility. Built in 1988, the gold-domed Ferrell Center holds 10,284 for sporting events and can seat up to 12,000 for conventions, concerts, graduation exercises and convocations.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

CAPACITY: 50,000

Stadium renovations have been a constant recently at Floyd Casey Stadium, home of the Baylor football team. Recent improvements to the facility have included the installation of the Prestige System playing surface, a new video board and overhauled team areas, including expanded locker, weight and training room; the new locker room alone is over 8,000 square feet. The Grant Teaff Plaza, which greets visitors to the stadium's west side, honors Baylor's 2001 College Football Hall of Fame inductee and former coach.

GETTERMAN STADIUM

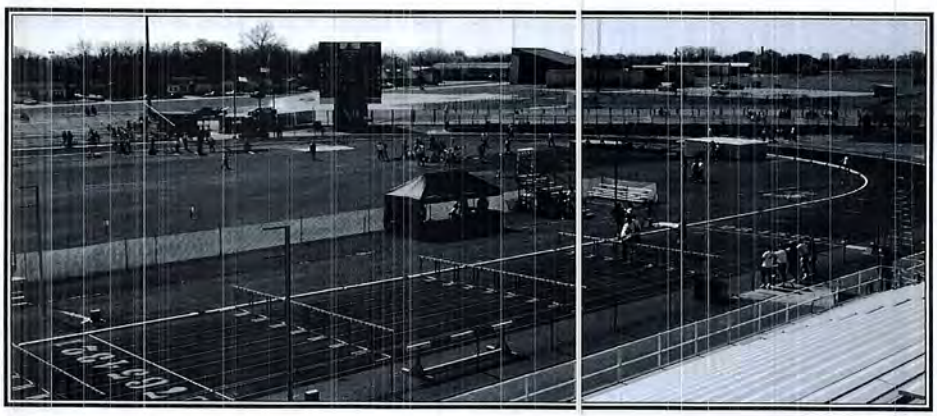
OPENED: May 1, 1999
CAPACITY: 1,230

The nation's premier collegiate softball facility, Getterman Stadium recognizes the largest single donation ever to Baylor women's athletics. The stadium features 430 chairback seats and 800 bleacher seats, most of which are covered. It also boasts a press box with two radio booths, a VIP booth with theatre seating, a television booth and a two-level press room. Coaches' offices and locker rooms are located in the adjacent tennis clubhouse. In 2003, Getterman became the nation's first college softball stadium with a videoboard.

HART-PATTERSON TRACK & FIELD COMPLEX

OPENED: Spring 1960
CAPACITY: 5,000

One of the nation's finest collegiate track and field complexes, the Hart-Patterson Track Complex hosted the inaugural Big 12 Conference Outdoor Championships in 1997. Named for two legendary Baylor track coaches, Jack Patterson and Clyde Hart, it has hosted six conference championship meets, including the 1999 Big 12 Championships. In 2001, the facility added the 3,600 square-foot Winston Wolfe Clubhouse on-site.



BAYLOR TRADITION

THE BEAR NICKNAME AND MASCOT

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and Doyle Thrailkill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylordom."

Although Baylor adopted "Bears" as its official nickname in 1914, it was not until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University.

The first live bear was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Camp MacArthur in Waco during World War I.

The bear, named Ted, made his first appearance at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the unit got its orders to move on, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department. Since then, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become as much a fixture as the players, cheerleaders and bands.

A series of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College, who came to Baylor through the work of Bill Boyd, then a Baylor student. Boyd bought the bear from a zoo that went broke at the Cotton Palace in Waco. He then approached Baylor's president, Pat Neff, and offered to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the deal and the tradition of live bears as mascots has continued since.

In 1974, the student body voted to name all the bears "Judge" followed by a surname in honor of the university's namesake, Judge R.E.B. Baylor. Baylor's current mascots are "Joy," named in honor of the wife of President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Lady" named after Sue Sloan, wife of President Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr.

The bears attend several Baylor athletic events, schools, community centers, churches, and any other educational outreach.

The bears may also be seen at the Steve Hudson Memorial Bear Plaza located in the center of the Baylor campus. "The Pit" as it is known on campus was built in 1976 and is classified as a Class 'C' Exhibitor Zoo. It is licensed to hold up to three North American Black Bears and is regulated and licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"SIC 'EM BEARS" AND THE BEAR CLAW

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal – made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw – and the "Sic 'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

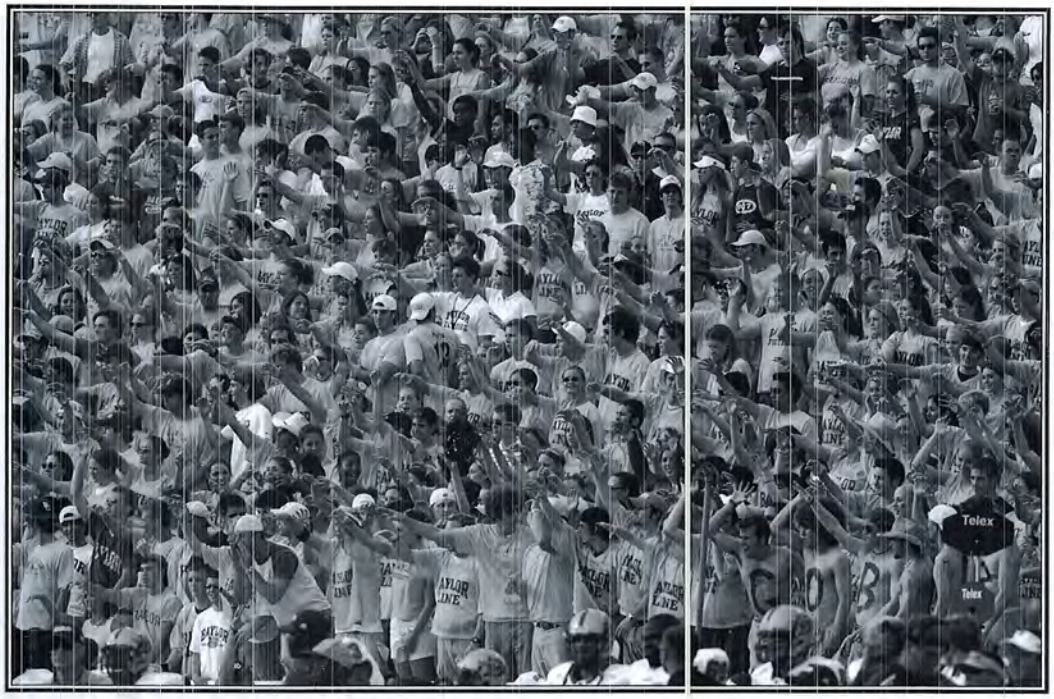
"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:
That good old Baylor Line!



THE BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-SMU football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas.

During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in postseason contests including the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Jeff Grogan, marches approximately 250 members.

THE IMMORTAL TEN

Baylor has many traditions and a rich history as a university that has been in existence for over 150 years. One of the events that has had a lasting impact on the University and its athletic department is the story of the Immortal Ten.

a game at the University of Texas. This was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship. The trip was not a pleasant one, as rain had poured over Central Texas for the majority of the day and continued as the team departed for Austin.

That hampered the vision of the chartered bus driver as debris from the road sprayed the windshield of the bus. At Round Rock, Texas, just miles from the team's arrival in Austin, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. A speeding train from the I&GA Railroad Company rammed into the side of the bus at a railway crossing near the center of the city. Ten of the 21 players, coaches and fans of the Baylor party that traveled on the bus that day were killed.

RALPH WOLF

Baylor remembers the story each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. Baylor students and alumni are raising funds to have a statue honoring the Immortal Ten erected on campus.

There was a hero of the accident, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Kelly, who was captain-elect of the 1927 football team, saw the train just before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washman, out of the bus' window. Kelly is credited with saving the life of his best friend at the greatest expense to himself. Kelly was one of the 10 who died in the collision.

Wesley Bradshaw, who is still in the top 10 on the Baylor football career scoring list, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C.S. Bean, Keifer Strickland (an All-SWC selection), John Kane, Dave Cheavers (former Baylor journalism department chair) and coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washman and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of the tragedy, the remainder of the 1927 season was canceled, and the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed in Round Rock.

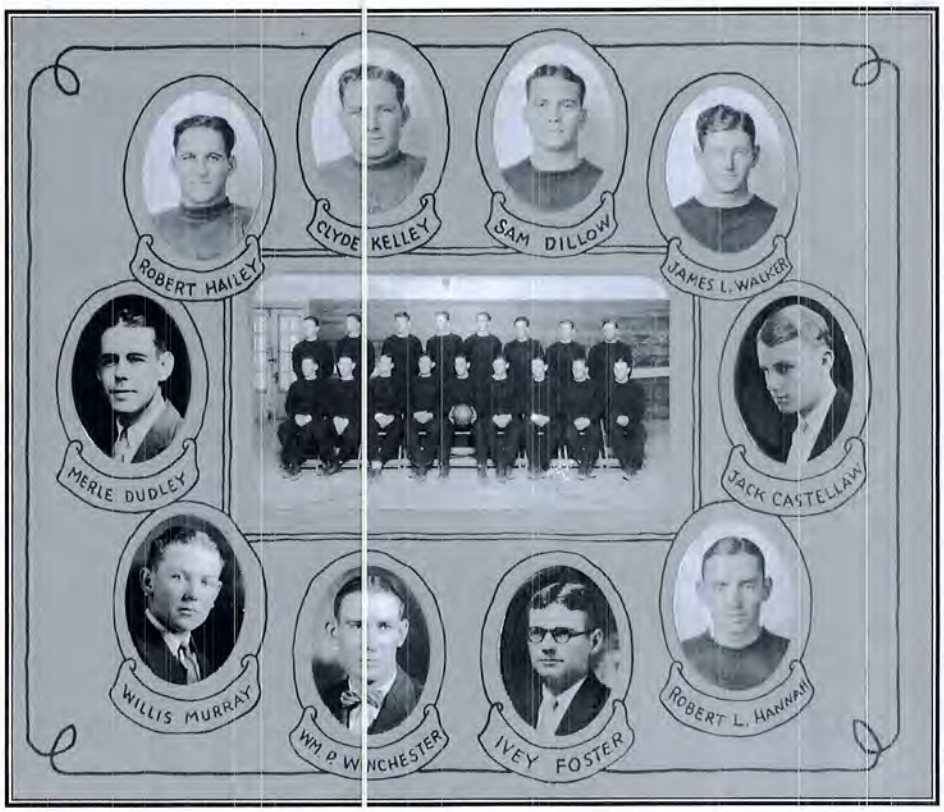
THE MEDAL OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men — Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane — won the award for their service in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and was one of the survivors of the bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students in 1927. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania, in 1943.



CHRISTIAN ATMOSPHERE

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty — a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor You youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

FRANK FALLON

Radio waves throughout the Baylor family fell silent the evening of April 30, 2004, upon the passing of the legendary Frank Fallon.

Best known as the former "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Fallon's face and voice were synonymous with Baylor athletics.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. Fallon began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18. Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, he joined Waco's KWTX and had a 28-year association with the station.

FRANK FALLON

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer and "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," as well as doing television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN.

A broadcast journalism professor at Baylor in his latter years, Fallon received many prestigious awards during his career. In August 2001, he was presented the Chris Schenkel Award, honoring lifetime excellence and community contributions. Fallon was the recipient of the 2001 Baylor Communications Award. He was honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times. Fallon was a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He also was voted one of the top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sportswriters Association.

DAVE CAMPBELL

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the nation's prototype regional sports publications. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.

DAVE CAMPBELL

Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

However, retirement did not last long; Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider Report, a publication of the Baylor Bear Foundation devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past president of the FWAA, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given the Baylor University Distinguished Alumnus Award. Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club.

Campbell has served as Southwest Sectional Director of the Heisman Trophy selection. He is a member of the Honors Court selection committee of the National College Football Hall of Fame, and he also serves on the executive board and as the chairman of the selection committee for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. Campbell is a member of the board of directors for the Texas High School Football and Texas Tennis halls of fame, as well.

In August 1999, Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rapoport, longtime friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyd Casey Stadium.

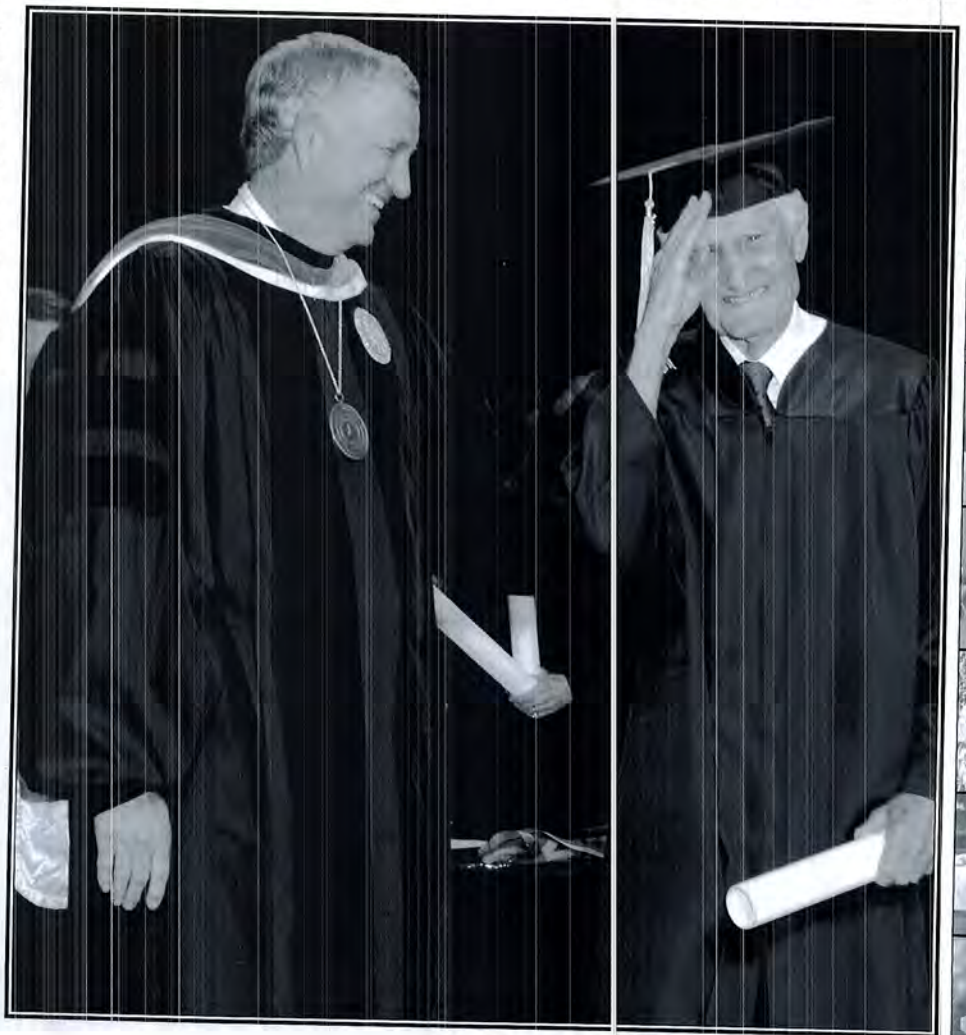
Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 52 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. David (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

WELDON BIGONY

Baylor's own Weldon Bigony gained national attention with a story that exemplifies the spirit and loyalty taught at the University.

Bigony returned to Baylor in the fall of 2002 to complete his business degree — 61 years after he had left school to join the Navy for World War II. The Texas native originally came to Baylor in 1938 on a football scholarship.

Bigony left Baylor in the middle of his senior year to enlist for WWII; after the war, he married, had children and spent 40 years as a pilot. When he returned to Baylor, his story was picked up by the national media, and



DR. SLOAN AND WELDON BIGONY

THOMAS EVERETT

Bigony was profiled by People Magazine, USA Today, "The Today Show" and "Oprah."

Taking advantage of an offer to resume his athletic scholarship, Bigony finished off the final 24 hours for his degree, and at age 83, became one the oldest graduates in school history when he received his diploma on May 17, 2003.

GRANT TEAFF

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl – Teaff's last game as a head coach – he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-15[illegible]-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games.

He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 first-team All-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins, third-ranked coach for games in the SWC, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

He coached 12 postseason all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. The other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure at Baylor. He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Major and Hayden Fry.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And the organization's driving force is Coach Teaff.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 21-year stint as the head coach of the Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

DEFENSIVE BACK EXCELLENCE

DUAL SPORTS

Is he a football player who competes in track or a track athlete who plays football? That's an often-asked question at Baylor because the Bear football and track programs have a long history of cooperation.

Throughout the years, men competing both ways have contributed greatly to Baylor's nationally recognized track team.

The nearly 100 former Bear greats who have competed in both sports include:

- Reyna Thompson, high hurdle conference champion and all-American, NFL All-Pro football player.
- Johnny Thomas, eight-time track All-American and 12-year NFL veteran defensive back.
- Bruce Davis, conference 100-meter champion, junior world record holder (indoor 60), NFL wide receiver.
- Ricky Thompson, conference champion long jumper, seven-year NFL veteran.
- Gerald McNeil, All-America sprinter, NFL All-Pro kick returner.
- John Simpson, All-America sprinter, Liberty Bowl MVP wide receiver.

DOMINIQUE ZEIGLER

- Del Shofner, member of world record relay, NFL All-Pro footballer.
- Marvin Lewis, All-America shot putter (3rd in NCAA), nose tackle.
- Mike Robins, conference champion hurdler, starting defensive back.
- Darnell Chase, eight-time All-American, football wide receiver.
- Davy Duncan, All-America hurdler (2nd in NCAA), defensive back.
- Robert Quiroga, All-America 400 meters and 4x400-meter relay, All-Big 12 kick returner.
- Braelon Davis, NCAA qualifier 200 meters, defensive back.
- Dominique Zeigler, All-Big 12 long jumper, wide receiver.

MIKE SINGLETARY

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late 1970s and early 1980s. His Baylor statistics are still astounding: He holds records for most tackles in a career with 662 (second place is 370), most tackles in a season with 232 (the next closest is 144) and most tackles in a game with 33. Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 31 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. After Singletary made 30 tackles against Alabama, Coach "Bear" Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for Singletary to wear.

Singletary earned All-Southwest Conference honors four times. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Twice he won the Davey O'Brien Award as the best football player in the Southwest United States. He was named All-America three years and unanimous All-America two years. He was named to Baylor's all-decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s. He was Baylor's defensive player of the decade in the '80s and was named to Baylor's All-Half Century Football Team.

A 1990 Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductee Singletary was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 1994. One year later, he was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95.

In 1995, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL defensive rookie of the year, and was honored as an All-Pro an amazing 10 times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Singletary graduated from Baylor in four years with a degree in business administration.

SERIES NOTES

- Last year's 52-14 defeat at the hands of the Mean Green marked the first time Baylor had ever lost to North Texas.
- Baylor still owns an 11-1 edge in the series and has shut out North Texas five times over the course of the series.
- Baylor and North Texas have only met twice since 1940 in Waco, with the Bears claiming a 21-17 victory in 1982 and defeating UNT 23-10 in 1999.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE: BUILDING THE TRADITION

As the Big 12 Conference approaches the end of its first decade of intercollegiate activity, dedication to several tenets of the finer points of athletics helps in the continued establishment of a strong tradition.

The Big 12 reached the 10-year mark of its founding – Feb. 25, 1994 – in 2004 and celebrates student-athletes, top-flight competition, academic reform measures, scholarship, sportsmanship, and competitive success with equity as it comes closer to the 10th anniversary of intraconference activity on Aug. 31, 2006.

Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M, and Texas Tech combined forces in 1994 and formed the Big 12 Conference – a league covering seven states and encompassing over 40 million people (2000 U.S. census).

The conference pays particular attention to sportsmanship and a level field of play for the 4,500-plus student-athletes in 21 sports. Those competing and coaching in the Big 12 seek maximum training on the fields and courts as well as in the classroom and community.

Along with this competitive excellence, scholarship has been and continues to be a point of emphasis with the Big 12. There are 19 academic honor teams (first and second units), and the semiannual Commissioner's Honor Roll salutes student-athletes who have achieved 3.0 averages (4.0 grading scale) in the semester previous to the announcement. Annually, as many as 50-60 student-athletes from the league make these teams with perfect 4.0 grade point averages.

Each member institution also nominates a male or female student-athlete for one of the prestigious Big 12 Conference postgraduate scholarships at the end of the academic year. A total of 100-plus (88 in the first seven years of the program) aspiring scholars have received more then $500,000 in postgraduate financial aid during the first eight years of the program.

Sportsmanship has been an item high on the Big 12 agenda since Commissioner Kevin L. Weiberg became the league's third chief executive in Dec., 1998. The Conference developed and has maintained a Sportsmanship Statement which applies to all student-athletes, coaches and administrators throughout the league. The Big 12 also honors one male and female student-athlete each year as Big 12 Sportspersons of the Year.

The level playing field for participants in all Big 12 sports also figures into competitive equity. This does not deny the potential for national team or individual champions in any sport but seeks to provide an avenue in which up-and-coming student-athletes can display their top individual talents within the framework of Conference and NCAA sports' guidelines.

Big 12 schools and the Conference office seek to provide national-class facilities for all levels of league championships, postseason tournaments and NCAA venues. They utilize Big 12 campus sites as well as buildings such as Kansas City's Kemper Arena, Arrowhead Stadium and Municipal Auditorium, Houston's Reliant Stadium, San Antonio's Alamodome, St. Louis' Edward Jones Dome, Irving's Texas Stadium, Oklahoma City's SBC Bricktown Ballpark, The Ballpark in Arlington, Dallas' American Airlines Center, and Reunion Arena, among others. The Conference also has agreements with eight bowl entities for 2004-05 – the Bowl Championship Series, SBC Cotton, Pacific Life Holiday, MasterCard Alamo, MainStay Independence, EV1.net Houston, PlainsCapital Fort Worth, and Mazda Tangerine Bowls.

Not only has the Big 12 fostered a spirit of conviviality and excitement with newfound rivalries, but the Conference organization has given rise to several related, cooperative ventures – Big 12 cities, libraries, campus security organizations, Chambers of Commerce, tourism/visitors' bureaus, information exchanges, sports medicine associations, and campus public information offices, among others.

The solid athletics' traditions at the 12 schools are evident as student-athletes/alumni have claimed more than 900 NCAA crowns and over 170 national team championships through July, 2004. Commissioner Weiberg, acting in accord with the Big 12 Board of Directors, first contracted most major championship sites and dates through the 2004-05 academic year in 1999. The Big 12 also continued the process of determining future championships' dates and sites beyond the 2004-05 term during the 2003-04 academic year.

The league office also has negotiated critical media (television/radio/print) contracts and ongoing bowl agreements in recent months. Added in 2002-03 were agreements with TBS Superstation to carry Big 12 football games in prime time slots, with College Sports Television (CSTV) for more regional and national telecasts, and expanded video streaming opportunities for several Olympic sports within the league with Fox Sports Net and FoxSports.com.

Almost six million fans who attended championships or tournaments in Big 12 postseason activity since 1996 can attest that they are viewing some of the nation's finest student-athletes, coaches and officials. Through television financial agreements, high levels of competition, postseason play, football bowl, and NCAA invitations, the Big 12 has distributed over $550 million to its members since the 1996-97 fiscal year.

Commissioners of the conference have included Steve Hatchell from March 1995 to May 1998, Dave Martin (interim) from May 1998 to December 1998, and Kevin L. Weiberg from December 1998 to present.

2004 BIG 12 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game will be held in Kansas City, Mo., in 2004. The ninth annual football title game will be Saturday, Dec. 4 at Arrowhead Stadium, the home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs and the MLS' Kansas City Wizards. This will mark the third time Kansas City has hosted the event, having previously hosted in 2000 and 2003. In 2003, Kansas State defeated Oklahoma 35-7 before a crowd of 79,451. The 2000 championship also matched the Wildcats and the Sooners. Before a record crowd of 79,665, Oklahoma defeated the Wildcats 27-24 en route to claiming the national championship.

The game will feature the winner of the Big 12's North and South divisions. Kickoff is to be determined, but the contest will again be televised nationally by ABC Sports. The winner of the contest receives the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

BAYLOR 19

Darrell Hackney connected with Nick Coon on a 50-yard scoring pass with 40 seconds left as UAB spoiled Guy Morriss' debut, 24-19, before 28,732 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

The loss overshadowed an outstanding performance by Rashad Armstrong, who ran for 152 yards on 25 carries and caught one pass for 39 yards. It was Armstrong's third straight 100-yard game, the first Bear to accomplish that since 1997 and only the fourth ever.

Armstrong's rushing total ranks 19th all-time at Baylor and was the most by a Bear back since 1999.

Baylor drove 80 yards in nine plays on its opening possession, taking a 7-0 lead when Karas hit Robert Quiroga for a 10-yard TD. On their second drive, the Bears gained 65 again before Karas fumbled while eluding a pass rush.

UAB then scored 17 straight points, going ahead 17-7 when Bo Moncur scored on a 2-yard run with 5:10 left in the third quarter. That came just three plays after a 15-yard personal foul penalty gave the Blazers a first down instead of fourth-and-5 from midfield.

The Blazers tied the game 7-7 when Hackney threw a 4-yard TD pass to Dan Burks with 10:21 left in the second quarter to end a 44-yard drive on which Moncur had a 33-yard run. UAB took the lead Nick Hayes kicked a 32-yard field goal on the final play of the first half.

After Hackney's two-pass TD drive, Baylor had one more chance. Karas' fourth-down pass from the UAB 45 on the final play of the game dropped incomplete in the end zone.

Maurice Lane led the defense with 12 stops.

GAME NOTES

- This was the first-ever meeting between Baylor and UAB.
- It was just the fourth August game in Baylor football history.
- The game was Baylor's 102nd season opener, as the Bears fell to 65-32-5 in such games.
- Baylor fell to 75-22-5 all-time in home openers. The Bears dropped to 37-17 in home openers at Floyd Casey Stadium.
- Rashad Armstrong became the first Bear since 1997 and only the fourth ever to rush for 100-plus yards in three straight games.
- Armstrong's 152 yards rushing ranked 19th all-time at Baylor and was the best rushing performance by a Bear since 1999.
- James Todd's blocked punt was Baylor's first since 2000 and it produced Baylor's first safety since 1998.

NORTH TEXAS 52

North Texas turned six first-half Baylor turnovers into 17 points, then scored on its first five possessions of the second half in a 52-14 victory before a stadium-record 29,437 fans at Fouts Field.

Patrick Cobbs ran for 131 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown, Roy Bishop had 107 yards and three, third-quarter touchdowns and James Mitchell had a 28-yard touchdown run as the Mean Green beat the Bears for the first time in 12 tries.

Baylor's first series ended with quarterback Aaron Karas fumbling and UNT defensive tackle Brandon Kennedy returning it 24 yards for a touchdown. The next drive ended with John Martin fumbling after making a catch for a first down. Cobbs' long TD run came on the next snap.

North Texas then turned an interception into a 32-yard field goal but failed to capitalize on the next three turnovers — a fumble and two more interceptions.

Down 17-0 heading into the second half, the Bears lost the opening kickoff and North Texas' Johnny Quinn jumped on it at the 13. Bishop ran it in from there two plays later to make it 24-0.

Kevin Moore had a 2-yard TD run early in the fourth, then Mitchell scored one play after a blocked punt. North Texas' final drive was the only time it didn't score in the second half.

Baylor scored on a 9-yard pass from Karas to Jonathan Evans after a blocked punt midway through the third quarter that made it 31-7. The Bears added a 1-yard touchdown run from Anthony Krieg in the closing minutes, Krieg's first scoring plunge since 2001.

Rashad Armstrong had 89 yards on 18 carries, only one in the second half, to end his streak of consecutive 100-yard games at three. Armstrong was bidding to become the first Bear to ever break the century mark rushing in four straight contests.

SHANE WILLIAMS

GAME NOTES

- In the 12th meeting between the two programs, North Texas posted its first victory in the series. The Bears are 11-1 all-time against the Mean Green, 1-1 at Denton.
- Rashad Armstrong saw his bid to become the first Bear to rush for 100-plus yards in four consecutive games end as he left the game with a rib contusion early in the third quarter. He had 89 yards on 18 carries at the time.
- Baylor's six turnovers were the most since it recorded seven miscues against Houston in 1989.
- J Fields established then-career highs for catches and yards receiving.
- Shawn Bell, Jonathan Sisk, Chad Smith and Dominique Zeigler saw their first collegiate action.

BAYLOR 10

Rashad Armstrong's 4-yard touchdown run on Baylor's first second-half drive gave the Bears the winning margin as they beat SMU 10-7 in front of 30,256 at Floyd Casey Stadium for their first win under head coach Guy Morriss.

The Bears had just 182 total yards, their second-lowest output in a win since 1956. Meanwhile, Baylor held SMU to 206 total yards, the fewest allowed since holding Arkansas State to 172 in a 2001 victory.

Baylor has won eight straight games against the Mustangs, though the old Southwest Conference rivals were playing for the first time since 1995, that league's last season.

Baylor's first drive of the second half started at the SMU 35 after Willie Andrews' 22-yard punt return. Aaron Karas' 19-yard pass to Robert Quiroga and a facemask penalty against SMU set up Armstrong's TD run.

Kenny Webb, who kicked a 47-yard field goal in the first half, missed a 51-yard attempt on Baylor's next possession.

After the missed field goal, SMU managed only one first down before punting and got into Baylor territory only one other time. Chris McMurtray was wide left on a 38-yard field goal attempt with 8:32 left.

John Garrett, who was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week by the Dallas Morning News, opened the fourth quarter with sacks on consecutive plays. Baylor held SMU to just 47 total yards in the final period.

Chris Cunningham's 22-yard punt return late in the first quarter set up the Mustangs at the Baylor 33, and they needed nine plays to score. Kincade had seven carries for 18 yards, twice converting third-and-short, before Richard Bartel's 5-yard TD pass to Matt Rushbrook.

Armstrong reached the half-century mark for the seventh consecutive game. Garrett finished with four tackles, two behind the line, and a forced fumble.

JOHN GARRETT

GAME NOTES

- SMU leads the all-time series 36-34-7; however, Baylor has won eight straight against SMU, dating back to 1989. That matches SMU's run of eight straight wins from 1966 to 1973 for the longest by either team in the series.
- This was the first meeting between the two teams since 1995, the final season of the Southwest Conference.
- Rashad Armstrong extended his streak of consecutive games with at least 50 yards rushing to seven.
- Derrick Cash's blocked punt in the first quarter was his first of the 2003 season and the second of his career.
- Willie Andrews' second-quarter interception was his first of the season and the second of his career.

Rashad Armstrong ran for 125 yards and scored two touchdowns as Baylor defeated Division I-AA Sam Houston State 27-6 for the Bears' 500th victory. The game was played in front of a crowd of 27,842 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Armstrong notched his second 100-yard game of the season and the fourth of his career. He is the ninth player in school history to amass four or more 100-yard games.

Aaron Karas completed two long passes to position Baylor for touchdowns and a 17-6 halftime lead, and Armstrong's 39-yard third-quarter touchdown run put the game away.

Karas' 30-yard first-quarter pass to Trent Shelton helped set up a 7-yard scoring pass to Robert Quiroga.

Karas also broke out of an attempted tackle on a blitz and nailed tight end Shane Williams with a 25-yard pass to the Sam Houston 5-yard line. Armstrong scored on the next play.

Backup quarterback Wade Pate got the Bearkats on the board late in the first half. After running 39 yards on a bootleg to the Baylor 20, Pate hit Bernard Campbell for a 20-yard touchdown pass on the next play. The extra-point attempt hit the right upright and bounced back.

Baylor recovered a fumble by Pate in the fourth quarter, setting up Kenny Webb's 38-yard field goal.

Willie Andrews and Justin Crooks led the Bears' defense with eight tackles and seven tackles, respectively. Crooks had two stops behind the line, forced a fumble and had two quarterback hurries.

Baylor began playing football in 1899 and the program is 500-475-43. It was only the second meeting with Sam Houston, both won by the Bears.

JAMES WASHINGTON

GAME NOTES

- This was only the second meeting between the programs. Baylor won the first contest 13-9 in 1990 at Floyd Casey Stadium.
- Baylor improved to 10-0 all-time against Division I-AA teams.
- Rashad Armstrong reached the 1,000-yard plateau for career rushing yards, the 29th Baylor player to achieve that feat.
- Armstrong also rushed for at least 50 yards in the eighth consecutive game.
- Robert Quiroga registered a reception for the 19th consecutive game.
- Armstrong's 53-yard TD reception was the longest pass play of the year for Baylor.
- Baylor's Aaron Karas had the pleasure of playing against his younger brother, Adam, a quarterback at Sam Houston State.

COLORADO 30
BAYLOR 42

Baylor scored 21 points in a four-minute span in the third quarter, and Rashad Armstrong rushed for a career-high 166 yards as the Bears stunned Colorado 42-30 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

As a result, the Bears won a third consecutive game for the first time since opening 3-0 in 1996. Baylor also won its Big 12 opener for the second year in a row.

Armstrong, who turned in the 13th-best single-game rushing performance in school history, had 115 yards on 15 carries and both of his touchdowns in the game's final 21:35. The senior running back finished with 37 totes, tied for the second-most in the program's history.

Colorado opened the second half with a seven-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a Brian Calhoun 3-yard scoring run. That touchdown extended the Buffaloes lead to 23-14.

However, that is when the tide began to turn. Aaron Karas capped Baylor's ensuing seven-play, 74-yard drive with an 8-yard scoring pass to Shane Williams. Just over a minute later, Derrick Cash sacked CU signal caller Erik Greenberg and jarred the ball loose. Jamaal Harper picked up the fumble and returned it seven yards for a touchdown.

After another Colorado fumble, this one recovered by Justin Crooks, Baylor pushed its lead to 35-23 thanks to a 3-yard Armstrong plunge.

Late in the third, Colorado pulled to within five when Greenberg hit Derek McCoy from 29 yards out following a botched Baylor punt. Baylor fumbled on its ensuing possession, giving the Buffaloes good field position again. Colorado drove to the Baylor 1, but John Garrett, Crooks and Maurice Lane combined to stuff Calhoun at the 3.

Baylor then drove the ball 97 yards, all on the ground. The drive culminated with a career-long 55-yard touchdown run by Armstrong.

James Todd and Maurice Linguist provided interceptions on Colorado's next two drives to preserve the victory.

GAME NOTES

- Colorado leads the all-time series 8-5, including a 3-2 advantage in Waco.
- This was Baylor's first three-game winning streak since 1996.
- The victory marked the second consecutive season in which Baylor won its Big 12 opener after defeating Kansas in 2002.
- Rashad Armstrong posted the 13th-best rushing day in school history and the best since 1995. His 37 carries ties for second all-time at Baylor.
- Jamaal Harper's fumble recovery for a TD was Baylor's first since Stephen Sepulveda accomplished the feat against Nebraska in 2001.
- Robert Quiroga posted the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- Derrick Cash was named Defensive Player of the Week by The Dallas Morning News.

BAYLOR 10
TEXAS A&M 73

Reggie McNeal threw three touchdown passes, including a 91-yarder to Jamaar Taylor, and ran for two more scores as Texas A&M snapped Baylor's three-game winning streak with a 73-10 decision in front of 73,030 at Kyle Field.

The Aggies used a 28-point second quarter to build a 38-10 halftime lead and never looked back. A&M kept rolling with a big-play third quarter that included a 1-yard TD run by McNeal, the 91-yard pass from McNeal to Taylor, and Courtney Lewis' 86-yard run for his second TD of the day.

It was the third-worst loss in Baylor history, the worst since a 77-0 defeat at Texas in 1913. In the process, the Bears allowed a school-record 719 yards of total offense.

McNeal was 9-of-14 for 199 yards with no interceptions, and ran eight times for 61 yards. The Aggies had double 100-yard rushers as Lewis ran for 158 yards on 12 carries and Derek Farmer had 117 yards on 11 carries.

Rashad Armstrong, the Big 12's leading rusher, gained 22 yards on 18 carries.

The Aggies did not get warmed up until they got 28 points on Jaxson Appel's 64-yard interception return for a score, McNeal's 2-yard TD run, a 1-yard touchdown dive by Lewis and McNeal's 8-yard touchdown pass to Taylor.

Taylor's TD catch came with 20 seconds left in the half and quickly answered Baylor's only touchdown of the game, a 37-yard pass from Aaron Karas to Marques Roberts moments earlier.

McNeal hit tight end Andy Matakis with a 6-yard touchdown pass and Todd Pegram kicked a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter and the Bears got a 46-yard field goal from Kenny Webb.

The Bears had sustained a long drive until they reached A&M's 35 as the second quarter started. On the second play of the quarter, Baylor's Karas threw a pass intended for Jonathan Evans but it went right to Appel, who ran untouched for his first career interception TD return.

GAME NOTES

- This was the 100th game in the Baylor-Texas A&M series. The Aggies lead the series 62-29-9.
- It was the third-most points ever allowed by a Baylor team and the most since a 77-0 loss at Texas in 1913.
- Stephen Sepulveda registered his second career fumble recovery.
- Rashad Armstrong saw his streak of eight consecutive games with at least 50 yards rushing end.
- Robert Quiroga extended his streak to 20 games with at least one reception.
- Marques Roberts extended his streak to eight games with at least one reception.
- Daniel Sepulveda averaged 47.8 yards on nine punts, a school-record average in a game with at least eight punts. He also had career highs in punts and yards (431).

BAYLOR 21
KANSAS 28

Bill Whittemore hit Mark Simmons for the go-ahead touchdown as Kansas fought from behind to beat Baylor 28-21.

Baylor held a 14-7 lead in the first quarter and went into the third period tied 14-14. It was the first time Baylor had not trailed at halftime in a road game since Oct. 6, 2001, at Texas A&M.

The Jayhawks took the lead with 12:33 left on Whittemore's 40-yard pass play to Simmons, who caught the ball on the 28, sidestepped two defenders and scored.

After John Randall's 12-yard scoring run put Kansas on top 28-14 with 8:47 to go, the Bears marched 80 yards in eight plays, capped by Aaron Karas' touchdown pass to Marques Roberts on third-and-goal from the 15.

Baylor had one last shot but Banks Floodman intercepted Karas' pass deep in Bear territory with less than two minutes to play.

The Jayhawks had scored 35 or more points in a school-record five straight games, but managed only one touchdown the entire first half until Whittemore connected with Charles Gordon on an 18-yard scoring pass with 1:12 to go.

Kansas moved 61 yards on nine plays with its first possession, with Clark Green scoring on a 17-yard run.

The Bears tied the score when Michael Boyd blocked Curtis Ansel's punt and James Todd fell on the ball in the end zone. It was the second blocked kick of the season for the Bears. Todd blocked a punt against UAB in the season opener that resulted in a safety.

The Bears took advantage of a confused Kansas defense to score its go-ahead touchdown in the second quarter. Karas dropped back into the shotgun at the last minute and tossed a soft screen pass to Rashad Armstrong, who scored from 23 yards out.

GAME NOTES

- Baylor leads the all-time series 4-3; the series is tied 2-2 as Big 12 foes.
- The Bears produced their third blocked kick (all punts) of the season, the most by a Baylor team since the 1998 team had six blocked kicks.
- Marques Roberts caught a TD pass for the second consecutive game.
- Robert Quiroga (21 games) and Roberts (nine games) both extended streaks of games with at least one reception.
- Rashad Armstrong moved to 16th on Baylor's single-season rushing yardage list and 19th on the school's career list.
- Daniel Sepulveda became the first Baylor punter with a punt of at least 60 yards since Ty Atteberry kicked a 61-yarder in 1999. Sepulveda had punts of 60 and 61 yards against the Jayhawks.

BAYLOR 0

Vince Young ran for 101 yards and two touchdowns as 19th-ranked Texas posted a 56-0 win over Baylor at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Young and Longhorns set the offense on cruise control from the start, rolling to a 35-0 halftime lead. It was Texas' first shutout of the season and its second in a row over Baylor. It was Baylor's first shutout since losing 41-0 at Texas in 2002.

Texas outgained the Bears 477-260 despite missing starting tailback Cedric Benson. He did not make the 99-mile trip from Austin after being charged earlier in the week with misdemeanor criminal trespassing.

The Longhorns did not miss him in front of a crowd of 42,118, the largest Floyd Casey Stadium crowd since 1998. Senior Brett Robin got his first career start and he and Selvin Young combined for 93 yards and three touchdowns on 17 carries.

Young finished with 166 total yards and set up Robin's second score with a weaving 64-yard run inside the Baylor 1 in the third quarter.

After the Bears moved the ball into Longhorn territory on the game's opening drive, Aaron Karas fumbled on a sack. Robin scored four plays later and Young added his rushing touchdowns from 1 and 2 yards. Young's second TD came on first-and-goal when he rolled right, backtracked to his left and split two defenders who appeared to have him nailed at the goal line.

Karas finished with 169 yards on 16-of-29 passing. Rashad Armstrong was limited to 66 yards rushing on 18 totes, but he also had three catches for 24 yards.

JOE SIMMONS

GAME NOTES

- This was the 93rd meeting between the Longhorns and the Bears. Texas leads the series 67-22-4.
- The game also marked the 81st consecutive season in which the teams have played.
- The crowd of 42,118 was the largest at Floyd Casey Stadium since 1998 and the fourth-largest Baylor home crowd of the Big 12 Conference era.
- Robert Quiroga extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 22 games.
- Marques Roberts caught four passes, a season high and his best outing since snagging four passes against UT in 2001. He also extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 10 games.

KANSAS STATE 38

Baylor battled heavily favored Kansas State tooth-and-nail for 50 minutes before a pair of long Darren Sproles runs midway through the fourth quarter set up touchdowns that allowed the Wildcats to pull away in a 38-10 K-State victory before 44,885 restless fans at KSU Stadium/Wagner Field.

Kansas State took a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter, answering a 28-yard Kenny Webb field goal with a 22-yard pass from Ell Roberson to James Terry. Baylor answered quickly, though, as Robert Quiroga took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards down the left sideline for a touchdown. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown by a Baylor player since 2001, and it tied for the third-longest kickoff return in school history.

The Wildcats recaptured the lead in the waning seconds of the second quarter on another Roberson-to-Terry scoring pass, this one from 14 yards out.

That momentum carried over into the second half for Kansas State. Joe Rheem split the uprights from 44 yards away with 11:08 remaining in the third, and Roberson found Terry for a third touchdown pass, this one covering 39 yards, with 6:54 remaining in the quarter.

Kansas State put the game away in the fourth. After holding Sproles to 33 yards on his first 16 carries, the Bears watched the Big 12 rushing leader gallop 73 yards on his 17th tote. That set up a 1-yard Ayo Saba scoring plunge with 8:25 to play. After a Baylor three-and-out, Sproles burst 52 yards, again to the Bears' 1, setting up a Roberson 1-yard keeper.

Baylor drove to the K-State 1 on the game's final drive, but the Bears were denied the end zone on a fourth-and-goal dive by Brandon Whitaker.

RASHAD ARMSTRONG

GAME NOTES

- This was just the fifth meeting between the two programs. Kansas State has won all five meetings.
- Rashad Armstrong became Baylor's career rushing leader among two-year players, passing Steve Beaird.
- Marcus Venus registered his first career reception, a 43-yard up-and-out pattern on the game's first play.
- Justin Crooks finished with nine tackles, including a career- high five tackles for loss with a fumble forced and another recovered.
- Brandon Whitaker tallied 33 yards rushing on seven carries, both career highs.

BAYLOR 14

Texas Tech scored 48 unanswered points out of a 14-14 tie, pulling away from Baylor for a 62-14 victory in front of 33,102 Homecoming fans at Floyd Casey Stadium.

B.J. Symons threw for 428 yards and seven touchdowns. Symons completed 32-of-47 passes, throwing his last two TD passes in a 74-second span of the third quarter after returning to the game limping noticeably on a sore left knee.

Baylor led just two plays into the game after a 54-yard Rashad Armstrong touchdown run. It was the quickest score for the Bears since 1995.

Tech scored on its next two possessions to take a 14-7 lead. However, the Bears tied the game 14-14 on Robert Quiroga's 100-yard kickoff return with 6:27 left in the first quarter. It was Quiroga's second consecutive game with a kickoff return for a touchdown, becoming only the second player in Big 12 history to accomplish the feat.

Symons had five touchdowns by halftime, then on the opening series of the second half stayed down on the ground after getting hit by linebacker John Garrett on an incomplete pass. Symons put no pressure on his left leg while being helped off the field.

But Symons was back on the next series, which ended with a perfectly thrown 32-yard TD over a defender to Mickey Peters.

Armstrong finished with 124 yards on 15 carries, moving into sixth place on Baylor's single-season rushing yardage chart. It was Armstrong's sixth career 100-yard game, tied for fourth all-time at Baylor.

ROBERT QUIROGA

GAME NOTES

- Baylor leads the all-time series 32-29-1; however, the Red Raiders have won the last eight meetings.
- Maurice Lane made 23 tackles against Texas Tech, most by a Baylor player since Mike Singletary had 23 stops against Tech in 1979. Lane became the first Bear with at least 20 tackles in a game since Le'Shai Matson had 20 against Georgia Tech in 1992.
- Robert Quiroga extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 24 games.
- Quiroga became just the fifth player in Big 12 history with two career kickoff returns for touchdown and only the second to have two in one season.
- Rashad Armstrong's 54-yard TD run was Baylor's second longest rush of the season.

1 OKLAHOMA 41

A season-long run of dominance by top-ranked Oklahoma was interrupted by Baylor's strongest defensive showing of the season in the second half. However, 31 first-half OU points were too much for the Bears' offense to overcome as the Sooners took a 41-3 victory before 82,117 quiet fans at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

Sooners' quarterback Jason White hit the turf again and again after vicious hits. He slowly got up off the ground and trotted to the sideline as a chorus of boos could be heard from the restless crowd.

White threw for 307 yards and four touchdowns, and the Sooners' defense did not allow a touchdown for the third straight week. But Baylor, which entered as a 56-point underdog, gave OU its best game in more than a month.

White, the nation's leader in passing efficiency, had all of his touchdown passes in the first half as the Sooners rolled up 260 yards of offense and took a 34-3 lead.

From there, however, Baylor slowed down Oklahoma's vaunted offense with a steady diet of blitzes that appeared to confuse the Sooners.

The Bears' defense sacked White five times, knocked him down several more times and held the Sooners to just seven first downs and 104 yards in the second half. Oklahoma had allowed 12 sacks all season entering the game.

Oklahoma was limited to a season-low 56 yards rushing, the lowest tally allowed by a Baylor squad since holding SMU to 30 yards in 1994.

The Sooners raced out to a 24-0 lead with three scores and a field goal in the first half. However, the Bears opened the second quarter with an 18-play, 66-yard drive that lasted more than eight minutes. Kenny Webb capped the drive with a 28-yard field goal.

Oklahoma's offense was never the same after that drive, the longest of the year by Baylor's offense or allowed by the Sooners' defense.

Baylor was held to 183 yards of offense, still more than three times as many yards as Texas A&M tallied against OU the week before.

GAME NOTES

- This was the 13th meeting between Baylor and Oklahoma. The Sooners have won every meeting.
- Baylor fell to 0-10-1 all-time against opponents ranked No. 1 nationally by the Associated Press.
- Baylor held Oklahoma to 56 yards rushing, a season-low for the Sooners and the lowest opponent total for a Baylor team since holding SMU to 30 yards in 1995.
- Shawn Bell made his first career start.
- John Garrett moved into second place on Baylor's single-season sacks list with his ninth of the year.
- Baylor did not allow a sack for the first time this season.
- Robert Quiroga extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one catch to 25 contests.

BAYLOR 21

Oklahoma State used a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to pull away from Baylor as the 24th-ranked Cowboys took a 38-21 victory in front of 23,763 fans at Floyd Casey Stadium.

With OSU leading 24-21 with 12:37 to play, Shawn Willis punched in his second 2-yard touchdown run of the day. On its next drive, OSU got a key fourth-down conversion and later capped the drive with a Vernand Morency 35-yard scoring run that put the game away.

Despite the loss, Baylor gave the Cowboys all they wanted. The Bears first got on the board midway through the first quarter when Willie Andrews scooped up a fumble and returned it 30 yards for a score. The Cowboys answered with consecutive Josh Fields touchdown passes, opening up a 21-7 lead.

But Baylor did not go away. Shawn Bell found Robert Quiroga in the end zone with 15 seconds remaining in the half, swinging the momentum back to the Bears' sideline.

The game was tied 7-7 until Fields threw touchdown passes on consecutive drives in the second quarter. The second was a timing pass to Woods for a 16-yard TD to cap a 92-yard drive with 1:48 left in the half.

Morency set up Fields' first TD with a 72-yard run, breaking a tackle at the line and eluding defenders with nifty moves before being run out of bounds at the 11. After Fields tried twice to throw to Woods, he found Billy Bajema for the go-ahead touchdown.

The Cowboys got the ball back after Daniel Sepulveda's 62-yard punt, which landed out of bounds at the 8. Four plays later, Woods made an incredible one-handed catch near midfield, turning around and grabbing the ball with his outstretched right hand along the sideline.

Rashad Armstrong rushed for 84 yards on 22 carries and became Baylor's sixth 1,000-yard rusher, the school's first since 1995. He also finished second on Baylor's single-season rushes list with 258 carries on the year, nine shy of the school mark.

HISTORY

By DAVE CAMPBELL

Although the Baylor Bears have repeatedly fallen short in their quest for successful football seasons in the relatively young Big 12 Conference, anyone familiar with the university's 102-year history of football has to be encouraged about the signs and portents of the coming season.

Explanation: Approaching is the 2004 season, and more often than not those seasons ending with a "4" have been significant ones for Baylor.

Baylor first joined an athletic conference in 1914. Baylor won an undisputed football championship (the Southwest Conference title) in 1924. Baylor spent 1934 rebuilding after a second-place finish (ending up one game out of a tie for the top) in 1933, but the rebuilding paid off in an 8-3 record in 1935. Baylor dropped out of football competition in 1943 and '44 because of World War II, but in 1954 the Bears were 7-4 and played in the Gator Bowl. That season they came awfully close to sharing the flag. They lost by a single point (21-20) to conference champion Arkansas in Fayetteville, and in their regular season finale they got down to Rice's 6-yard line late in the game while bidding for the touchdown that would have given them a victory and a share of the league championship.

After a star-spangled season in 1963, one that saw them go 8-3 for the full campaign and finish one game behind national champion Texas in the league's title chase (Texas beat them, 7-0, in a game that saw the Longhorns preserve their hard-fought victory by intercepting a Baylor pass in the UT end zone with less than 25 seconds left in the game after the Bears had moved to the Texas 19), the Bears dropped back to 5-5 in 1964. But that year they did hand Kentucky the only defeat the Wildcats were to suffer that season, and they wound up the campaign by winning their last three games.

All through those years, going back to their last championship season in 1924, they had come close to the throne-room a number of times, they had won great victories and sent stellar players to the pros, but they had not won another crown. When the 1974 campaign arrived, their championship drought was moving in on 50 years.

And then in one golden season of improbable finishes and incredible upsets, they hit the jackpot. They became the talk of all of college football while producing what has become famous as "The Miracle on the Brazos," a saga that saw them rebound from a last-place finish in 1973 to win the conference crown and earn their first trip in history to the Cotton Bowl. Again, that unforgettable season unfolded in a year that ended with a 4.

The season of 1984 was not that kind to them. After putting together a 7-4-1 campaign that carried them to the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston to play Oklahoma State at the end of 1983, they fell back to a 5-6 year in '84. But as it turned out, they were putting in the foundation for teams that would post consecutive 9-3 seasons in 1985 and '86 and win bowl games in back-to-back seasons for the first and only time in Baylor history.

And then in 1994 the Bears carved out a 7-5 record overall and 4-3 in league play, not great by any measure but good enough to get a five-way share of the Southwest Conference championship because Texas A&M, the team with the best record (10-0-1), was on probation and ineligible to participate in the league's race for the crown.

So certainly in one manner of speaking, a year ending in 4 has been a bountiful year for Baylor football. Or if not bountiful, then noteworthy.

That was not true in 1904. But in 1904 the school had not even adopted the bear as its official mascot yet. That historic moment did not come until 1914 – again, there's that season ending in a 4 – when Baylor students decided the bear was the animal they wanted representing them rather than the buffalo, the antelope, the frog or the ferret.

Baylor first began playing football in 1899 and started putting together a history that was not all that bad considering the times. Baylor's first five teams all finished with better than .500 records. After 14 years of football, and there was one season (1906) when Baylor did not field a team, the university was on the topside of the scoreboard with an overall mark of 50-44-11 while being tutored by 10 different head coaches. It had not won any conference championships but then there was no way it could do so; it did not compete in a conference.

However, several outcomes prior to formation of the Southwest Conference should be mentioned by anyone exploring a history of Baylor football.

In that first year of Baylor football, the University's gridiron representatives played TCU to a 0-0 tie. The game was played in Waco and for an excellent reason. Both schools were located in Waco. However, TCU in that era was known as "AddRan" College; the school's name was not officially changed to "Texas Christian University" until 1902, and by then the team's nickname was already "Horned Frogs." When the two schools met in 1901, Baylor won a 39-0 victory on Nov. 23 and later that season defeated TCU (or AddRan), 42-9.

TCU finally defeated Baylor for the first time in 1904, 5-0, but in 1907 came the strangest verdict of all. The TCU record book shows a victory for the Frogs, 11-10. But for a number of years the Baylor record book listed that outcome as a victory for Baylor, 10-9. In his history of the Southwest Conference ("Football, Texas Style") published by Doubleday & Company in 1964, Kern Tips, the man widely regarded as the greatest radio voice SWC football ever knew, offered this explanation:

"At issue is whether or not TCU actually tackled a Baylor ball carrier in his own end zone for a safety late in the game. Reports say that the officials disagreed among themselves, as the goal line had disappeared in the dusty action, and were still debating the issue while the teams and spectators went home to supper with their own convictions about the final score."

Another interesting Baylor-TCU outcome (and remember, at this time both institutions were located in Waco; TCU did not move to Fort Worth until 1910 after the school's main building in Waco had burned) came in 1908. TCU had already won the first two games played between the two schools that season. They decided to play a third one on Nov. 26 (Thanksgiving Day). TCU led at halftime, 8-6. Baylor, by then downright hungry for a victory over the Frogs, did an unusual thing. John Fouts, Baylor's star left end, put on blue stockings (blue was then a TCU color) but kept on his Baylor gray jersey. Then, according to the Kern Tips accounting, "after the second-half kickoff he raced to the sidelines, snatched off his gray jersey and was revealed in a blue one that, like his stockings, matched TCU's uniforms. As he rejoined his mates on the field, it

1915

In its first season in the Southwest Conference, Baylor wins the league title. The Bears went 7-1 overall, 3-0 in the SWC and outscored its opponents 188-22.

1922

THE HISTORY OF BAYLOR FOOTBALL

appeared that TCU had provided Baylor with its eleventh man.

"TCU objected; Baylor's captain Babe Gantt smilingly observed there was no law against it, and demurred. With its 'wild card' from the coloring book in the game, Baylor rallied to win the game, 23-8, amid what was reported to be 'bitterness and confusion' on the part of the TCU team and its supporters. The city of Waco was a little noisy that evening. This, by the way, is a report from the files of TCU. No reference to Mr. Fouts strip act is to be found in the Baylor book."

One more Baylor game from that era demands attention. In 1910, Baylor met Texas in Waco. Baylor was coached by Ralph Glaze, a former All-America end at Dartmouth. Texas had a new coach, William S. ("Billy") Wasmund, a former quarterback at Michigan for Fielding "Hurry Up" Yost. The Baylor and Texas coaches clashed fiercely before the game about which of the officials should be the referee and run the game. Wasmund won the argument and his choice was Vanderbilt ex Dan Blake, who had played for a coach at Vanderbilt who also was a Hurry Up Yost product.

The game was tied at 6-6 in the first half but as Baylor players and their coach saw it, Blake was giving Texas all the better of it in his calls. On one occasion, Baylor had a chance to score and go ahead after getting a Texas fumble. But Blake got in the way of the Baylor player who appeared to be touchdown bound and slowed him up just enough for a Texas player to run him down from behind at the UT 18. Later in the game, with Texas in possession at the Baylor 12, Texas quarterback Arnold Kirkpatrick dropped the ball while trying to pass and Baylor end Riley Hefley picked up the ball and started to run with it. According to a history of Longhorn football written by longtime Austin American-Statesman Lou Mayself, "Referee Blake jumped in and stopped him, declaring the play was dead because the ball had struck Blake. Two of the other three officials sided with Baylor but Blake stuck to his decision, whereupon Glaze refused to let his team continue and eventually took it off the field."

Or as Tips puts it in his history, "Owing to a rank decision by an official, Coach Glaze refused to continue and took his team off the field, ending the game."

Texas went home with a victory now officially recorded as a 1-0 win although the Baylor record book for years listed it as a 6-6 tie. But a postscript is worth noting. Baylor had a mighty lineman that season, a future Rhodes Scholar named E.T. Adams, better known as "Bull" Adams. He had scored Baylor's only touchdown in that game when he grabbed a Texas fumble and ran 20 yards with it. When Glaze decided to take his team off the field, the raging and defiant Adams initially refused to go. As folklore has it, he challenged Texas to run its future plays only between the tackles. If the Longhorns would do so, he would take on the visitors by himself.

Texas declined and went home with its 1-0 victory. And Baylor was left with its only defeat that season.

Glaze would not enjoy another winning season before turning the football program over to Norman Payne for one season (1913). Payne in turn gave up the reins the next season to C.P. "Bubs" Mosley, who had been an outstanding player in his own right for Baylor. Mosley, who was inducted into the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame in 1964, thus took over in 1914 as the team was becoming known as Bears and Baylor itself was becoming part of a new conference, the Southwest Conference.

The new league was formed on May 6 of that year with football competition scheduled to begin in 1915. Baylor, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Texas A&M, Oklahoma A&M and Southwestern University were charter members. Rice was accepted provisionally and did participate in 1915, but then backed out for 1916 and 1917 before joining the league to stay in 1918.

Mosley did not have a good season in his inaugural year as head coach in Baylor's final season as an independent. Indeed, his team was only 3-5-2. Perhaps his inheritance was not all that great. The previous season the team tied as many games as it won (three). So Mosley's first season was hardly an accurate signal of things to come. He stayed around as head coach for six seasons, guiding the Bears through the 1919 campaign, and his overall record was 30-18-4. His winning pace of 62.5 percent would be exceeded by only his successor, Frank Bridges (66 percent) and by George Sauer (1950-55) who won at a 64 percent rate.

But Mosley did something that would become a rarity in Baylor football coaching circles; he won a share of the conference championship in 1915 while leading the newly-named Bears to a 7-1 record overall and a 3-0 mark in league play. Unbeaten Oklahoma had much the better overall record (10-0) but the Sooners also were 3-0 in league competition and thus Baylor and Oklahoma were declared the new league's co-champions.

Alas, that decision did not stand. Baylor officials did some checking and discovered one of their players was a transfer from another college and thus not eligible to have played that season. According to Tips' history, Baylor offered to turn back the title but Oklahoma, "knowing this, made no effort to claim the title in dispute for itself; and aside from the fact that, for want of a second to Baylor's offer to quit-claim the championship, the conference did then and still does list the Bears as the first conference champions."

RUSSELL BLAILOCK: BEARS' FIRST TWO-TIME ALL-SWC SELECTION (1921 & 1922)

However, while the two teams continued to be listed at the top of the 1915 standings, the roster and record book published by the SWC in later years noted that "Baylor forfeited claim to co-championship for using ineligible player."

It was a zany start for the new league.

The following season brought another zany development. Texas was 5-1 for league play and 7-2 overall. Baylor was 3-1 in conference competition (the lone loss being to Texas A&M, 3-0), but 9-[illegible] for the season. The league decided no champion would be recognized.

Baylor would not enjoy another really banner season until the early 1920s and by then the Bears were under the direction of Frank Bridges, of whom it was written (by the longtime regional sports editor of the Associated Press, Harold V. Ratliff, in his book, "I Shook the Hand"): "Cocky little Frank Bridges qualified as the puck of sportdom. His bag of tricks in football brought championships and humorous incidents; his mischievousness not only gave others laughs but sometimes got Frank into predicaments ...

The Bears claim their third Southwest Conference title in the school's first 10 years of league membership, going 4-0-1. A 7-7 tie at SMU was the only blemish.

1926

Baylor hires Morley Jennings as head coach. Jennings amasses 83 victories, which stands as a school record for nearly 50 years.

1939

With a 7-3 record, Baylor posts its fifth consecutive winning season. The season included a 20-0 blanking of Texas.

THE HISTORY OF BAYLOR FOOTBALL

Bridges came into the Southwest Conference to bewilder opponents with such shenanigans as the hidden ball trick and the kickoff from the sidelines, and to bring to football the eight-man offensive line and the spin play."

And, Ratliff wrote in his book (published in 1948), "He won the only conference championships Baylor University ever knew in football. They still talk about his tackle-around play and they still chuckle at the old ivy-covered school at the colorful antics of this half-pint with the tart tongue."

Of course, this is 2004 and Baylor is no longer an ivy-covered school. And the University has won other football championships than the ones Bridges brought to the school in 1922 and 1924. But, no question, he was something special as a coach in his day, and his teams were something special. As was noted in a book concerning the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and its members, "Name all the trick plays you've ever heard about. Frank Bridges almost certainly used them first."

They still laugh about the time in 1924 when Baylor was playing SMU, trailing 7-0, and desperately needing a touchdown late in the game to tie the score and sew up the championship. Bridges kept sending in players with instructions to call for the use of Baylor's famed spread formation. They kept failing to do so. So finally Bridges called time, walked out on the field himself, and said: "Now, Mr. Referee, when we spread out we want the fans to be quiet so we can hear the signals." The referee assured him the fans would be kept quiet. The Baylor quarterback got the hint, called a play using the spread, Baylor scored, tied the game and won the title.

Bridges' first title came in 1922 and featured a sensational back named Wesley Bradshaw (5-11, 170). Bradshaw came to Baylor from Burleson College in Greenville, and made all-conference in both 1921 and '22. In 1922 he became a one-man gang. He scored 30 points against Arkansas in one game and that year he scored 119 points, a total that still ranks as the Baylor record. He lettered in four sports: football, basketball, baseball and track. Hall of Fame coach Warren Woodson once called him "the greatest open field runner I have ever seen perform."

Baylor was undefeated in league play in 1922 and 8-3 overall. Bears other than Bradshaw who won consensus All-SWC recognition that year included tackle Russell Blailock, guard Cop Weathers and back John Tanner.

By 1924 Bradshaw was gone but Bridges was undeterred. His Bears won the championship again, posting a 4-0-1 record (7-2-1 overall), beating out SMU which had a 2-0-4 mark. That Baylor team had such consensus All-SWC players as guards Jack Sisco and Bear Walker and backs Ralph Pittman and Bill Coffey, but mainly it had sophomore tackle/end/back Sam Coates (6-2, 225), a remarkable athlete who first played at Waco High and then moved across town to the Baylor campus and became one of the first players in league history to win consensus All-SWC recognition for three straight seasons.

According to Kern Tips, on Baylor's drive for a tying touchdown against SMU in 1924, Coates gained 10 yards on a tackle-around play, moved to end and caught a pass for a 50-yard gain, and then a few plays later, in the role of ball carrier, swept SMU's end for the tying touchdown. "Somebody else kicked the tying point, though," wrote Tips.

Two conference championships in a span of three years, those were heady times for the Baylor Bears. But they didn't last. Bridges resigned following the 1925 season after becoming involved in a dispute with the university's president, Samuel P. Brooks. Also, there were reports in various newspapers that claimed Bridges had turned down two $10,000-a-year coaching jobs. Brooks called Bridges in and told him he could never expect to make that much at Baylor. "Why, I only receive $10,000," Brooks is said to have told Bridges. "That's all right, Doc," the puckish Bridges is quoted as replying. "I'll get you a raise."

Brooks laughed at the remark, "but that was the first inkling I had that he didn't like me," Bridges later said.

He left after compiling a six-year record of 35-18-6. Morley Jennings, who had compiled an impressive record of his own while coaching at Ouachita College in Arkansas, succeeded him, and stayed around for 15 years, guiding the Baylor program through the challenging times brought on by the Great Depression, compiling an overall record of 83-60-6, coming close to capturing the crown three times (second-place finishes in 1926, 1930 and 1933), tutoring perhaps the greatest lineman in Baylor history (Barton "Botchey" Koch) and giving Waco some of the most exciting times it had ever experienced in 1937.

Botchey Koch's greatest season came in 1930 when he became the first Southwest Conference player in history to win consensus All-America recognition. Koch was 5-11 and 220, and in the words of Hall of Fame coach Ray Morrison, "I've never seen a guard who could spend as much time in his opponents' backfield as Koch does." Koch's time at Baylor coincided with that of back Jake Wilson, a mighty mite of 5-10 and 147, a two-year all-conference selection and a true triple threat. Wilson and Koch made the Bears a strong team in 1930, but their 3-1-1 mark in SWC play finished a half-game behind Texas' 4-1-0 mark.

The Bears were good again in 1933 (4-2-0 mark in SWC play) with such all-conference selections as end Jim Tom Petty, guard Harold Clem and back Joe Jack Pearce, but again they finished as a runner-up to Arkansas. They were 6-3-1 and tied for third in the SWC race in 1936 as Lloyd Russell won all-star honors.

But it was in 1937 that they got Baylor ranks and the Central Texas population buzzing in a way not seen in decades. SMU and TCU had set the stage in 1935, both remaining undefeated until they clashed for the national championship on Nov. 30 in a game that commanded the presence of big-name sportswriters from all parts. SMU won that game and received an invitation to become the first Southwest Conference team ever to play in the Rose Bowl.

Baylor finishes the season ranked nationally for the first time ever. The Bears reach as high as No. 6, finish the season 8-2 and place 20th in the final AP poll.

1950

Baylor plays its first game at Floyd Casey Stadium, then known as Baylor Stadium. The Bears defeat Houston 34-7 before a crowd of 24,000.

1951

Ranked nationally from wire-to-wire, Baylor plays in its first New Year's Day bowl at season's end. The Bears drop a 17-14 heartbreaker to Georgia Tech.

THE HISTORY OF BAYLOR FOOTBALL

When Baylor won its first six games in 1937, defeating defending champion Arkansas and well-armed TCU and A&M, the Bears zoomed up to No. 4 in the Associated Press poll. Talk broke out all over the state: "Baylor to the Rose Bowl." Coming up next was Texas, destined to finish in the cellar that season in the SWC.

The Bears in that era were playing their games in Waco's relatively new Municipal Stadium, which had a capacity of 12,000, or maybe 15,000 if the place was jammed. It was jammed on that Saturday afternoon of Nov. 6 when Bears and Longhorns lined up for the kickoff. Also jammed was the radio booth where the ranks of broadcasters had been increased by the presence of a famous sports voice from New York.

Before the game a representative of the Baylor Lariat, the campus newspaper, approached the famed visitor and asked him how he thought the game would go. "Young man, I get paid for my opinions," the visitor loftily replied. Standing nearby and hearing the conversation was Jinx Tucker, famed in his own right as longtime sports editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald. "Hal, here," said Tucker, fishing in his pocket and coming up with a nickel. "Give him this and let's find out all he knows."

If anyone in the vicinity thought Texas was going to score a shocking upset that day, he kept such an opinion to himself. But the Longhorns did, ambushing the Bears, 9-6, and not only ending all that Rose Bowl talk but also puncturing the Bears' dreams of winning the conference title. They wound up a 3-3 team in league play.

But not even defeat could diminish the brilliance of Baylor's famed twosome of back Billy Patterson and end Sam Boyd. Both were two-year consensus All-SWC selections, both were early Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductees, and both had NFL career possibilities until World War II intervened.

Patterson was especially outstanding by any measure. He had been outstanding as a high school player at Hillsboro. "In all my years of coaching, I guess the boy I wanted most and didn't get was Billy Patterson," famed TCU coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer once said. Meyer couldn't complain, of course. He did get the likes of all-time college great Sammy Baugh and the first Heisman Trophy winner from west of the Mississippi, Davey O'Brien.

Patterson wound up at Baylor although some of the civic leaders in Hillsboro had him primed to go to Texas. As Patterson told the story later, "Jack Chevigny was the coach at Texas and I had an appointment to meet him one day at the old Andrews Café in Hillsboro. I waited around awhile and he never showed up. When we (Baylor) went to Austin my sophomore year and beat Texas by scoring 21 points in the fourth quarter, and I was fortunate enough to make a few big plays, a delegation from Hillsboro went to Chevigny en masse after the game and told him, 'The kid who did so much in that last drive to beat you is the one you stood up in Hillsboro.'"

THE CLASS OF 1956: BAYLOR'S FIRST NINE-WIN TEAM

Patterson showed his true ability when Baylor upset Arkansas in 1937. He ran 71 yards for a touchdown, he threw a pass for 71 years and another touchdown, and he intercepted a pass and then threw for the winning touchdown as the Bears beat the defending champions, 20-14. Three Saturdays later he threw a long pass to Boyd for the touchdown that beat a powerful TCU team that was led by O'Brien, 6-0.

Morley Jennings had good teams in 1938 and '39. The Bears finished well above .500 both seasons (7-2-1 in '38 and 7-3 in '39). If the situation then had been what it is today, they would have gone to bowls both years. But instead they stayed home as first TCU and then Texas A&M won national championships with teams that were unbeaten and untied and seldom challenged. Then the 1940 campaign marked the end of the Jennings era. Morley, widely admired, seldom blessed with the resources or talent of his adversaries, posted a 4-6 record that year as the Texas Aggies remained No. 1 in the national polls and stretched their long winning streak to Thanksgiving Day before Texas upset them, 7-0, and knocked a Rose Bowl invitation right out of their hands.

Meanwhile, Texas Tech, which had been campaigning for several years for membership in the Southwest Conference, hired Morley Jennings at the end of the 1940 season to leave Baylor, move to Lubbock and head up the Red Raiders' athletic program and the school's bid for a place in the SWC. Baylor hired Frank Kimbrough, older brother of A&M's All-America fullback John Kimbrough, to succeed Jennings.

Jennings' tenure stretched over six years but included only four football seasons because of the school's decision to withdraw from football competition for the 1943 and 1944 seasons because of World War II. His second season (1942) produced encouraging results (6-4-1 overall, 3-2-1 in conference play) but it was his first season that produced one of the biggest shockers in the history of Baylor football.

The SWC had produced a mythical national champion (SMU) in 1935, the year before the annual Associated Press poll was started, and the AP's national champion in both 1938 (TCU) and 1939 (A&M). Then A&M came within the late season loss to Texas of repeating its national championship in 1940. So conversation about national titles was becoming old hat to SWC fans. When Texas won its first six games in 1941, and all the victories coming by at least a 28-point margin, the Longhorns took over first place in the AP poll and critics labeled coach D.X. Bible's masterpiece the greatest team in Southwest Conference history.

Baylor, on the other hand, was far from a masterpiece. When injuries sidelined the Bears' outstanding back, Jack Wilson, coach Frank Kimbrough's team became less than ordinary. It lost to Texas A&M, 48-0, and the following week it lost to TCU, 23-12, and experts saw no hope for the Bears against mighty Texas. Waco Tribune-Herald sage Jinx Tucker predicted a 50-0 Baylor defeat and advised fans to get to the game early, otherwise they would miss UT's first touchdown.

Playing in the same stadium where Texas had snuffed out Baylor's Rose Bowl talk in 1937, the Bears got their revenge. Their revved-up defense, paced by tackle Bubo Barnett, held Texas' superb breakaway back Jack Crain to a net gain of three yards for the afternoon.

But with two minutes to play, Texas held a 7-0 lead, thanks to a Baylor punt that had slanted out of bounds on the BU 10-yard line. Then, with time running short, the Bears took over on their own 23 and started moving downfield, mainly with the passes of Jack Wilson's substitute, sophomore Kit Kittrell. The product of nearby McGregor High School, Kittrell drove the Bears to the Texas 18, where it was fourth-and-four with 18 seconds left. Kittrell, the tailback in Kimbrough's single wing formation, took the snap and began to roam around. His primary target, Willie Coleman, all 5 feet 8 inches and 155 pounds, suddenly emerged in the clear from a crowd of Longhorns. Kittrell's pass was high but Coleman leaped and came down with the ball and the Bears had a touchdown. And then Wilson, adhesive tape covering his sprained ankle, hobbled onto the field and kicked the extra point that gave the Bears a 7-7 tie that was almost universally hailed as a victory.

Two decades later, a panel of Texas sports writers voted that 7-7 tie "the greatest upset in Southwest Conference history." Incidentally, Texas was so staggered the Longhorns lost their next game, too, to TCU. End of Rose Bowl talk, end of championship hopes. But the Longhorns, who eventually lost out on all the bowls, did leave the state talking, slaughtering Oregon, 71-7, in their season finale on Dec. 6. The next day the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and people quit talking about both the Longhorns and the Rose Bowl.

Baylor resumed football competition in 1945 with a team that finished 5-5-1 but when Kimbrough's 1946 team could win only one game in nine tries and none in league play, a hue and cry arose that a coaching change had to be made.

Exit Kimbrough, enter Bob Woodruff. And as former Baylor athletic faculty rep then president and finally chancellor Abner McCall once said, it was only then, in 1947, that Baylor really got serious about football.

Woodruff, who had been one of Bobby Dodds' principal assistants at Georgia Tech, brought with him a former Georgia Tech standout named Frank Broyles to help him, and in their second year on the job they got the Bears respectable, highly competitive and into a bowl, Baylor's first. That 1948 team, sparked by junior college transfer quarterback Adrian Burk and all-conference linemen Buddy Tinsley and Bentley Jones, finished in a tie for third in the conference race, 6-3-2 overall, and beat Wake Forest, 20-7, in the "Dixie Bowl" in Birmingham, Ala. Tinsley, at 6-3 and 240 (and later a super star in Canadian football), was the heaviest man on the consensus all-conference team, and Jones, a 5-10, 165-pound guard, was the lightest.

The 1948 Baylor team was a good one. The 1949 team was great, one of the greatest in Baylor history. It won its first six games, got up to No. 6 in the AP poll (before losing to Texas), finished second at 8-2 behind an outstanding Rice team that was unbeaten in league play, and became the catalyst for the drive that resulted in 1950 in Baylor building the 50,000-seat stadium it now occupies.

That 1949 Baylor team had a superlative end named J.D. Ison, an all-conference guard named Don Mouser, and quarterback Burk, who both punted and passed in an All-America manner. Burk led the nation in passing that season, completing 57.6 percent of his 191 throws for 1,428 yards (which ranked second in SWC history at that time) and 14 touchdowns. He was never better than he was on Nov. 19 of that season when Baylor beat SMU for the first time since 1936.

SMU that season was led by Hall of Fame coach Matty Bell and featured such stars as former Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker, future All-Pro Kyle Rote and other Mustangs who had been instrumental in SMU winning the conference crown the two previous years. The game was played at the Cotton Bowl (by then SMU's home stadium) before a crowd of 63,337, the biggest crowd ever to watch the Bears play up to that time. Burk threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to back Dudley Parker on the first play from scrimmage, and after that the game just got wilder and wilder.

Baylor assistant Frank Broyles, the excitable sort, was in a scouting booth in the press box, watching the teams exchange touchdowns in rapid fire order. Finally the time arrived for him to leave his place in the scouting booth and go to ground level to be with the team at halftime. He caught the slow-moving press box elevator, and as it made its way downward, Broyles heard a huge roar coming from the stands. Upon reaching the ground, he ran up the nearest ramp, grabbed a fan and demanded, "What happened, what happened?"

Came the exasperated reply: "Those guys scored again."

Unenlightened, Broyles quickly posed another question: "Yes, yes, but which ones."

Baylor had the last word (and last score) in that game, winning a 35-26 verdict and moving back up to No. 9 in the AP poll. Doak Walker caught a touchdown pass in that game while lying on his back in the end zone. But alas, the Bears lost to Rice in their final game, 21-7, and shortly after that Woodruff accepted Florida's offer to come coach the Gators. And he took Broyles with him.

Baylor's response was to hire George Sauer, who had coached with great success at Kansas and then with some success at Navy. Sauer, a former All-America fullback at Nebraska, coached six years at Baylor and gave the Bears some of the most exciting football the school has enjoyed in its 102 years of playing the game.

"That was our Golden Era," declares Gale Galloway, a co-captain of the 1951 team and an outstanding linebacker who probably would have made it big in the pros if it had not been for the Korean War. Instead, he wound up as chief executive officer of several Fortune 500 companies and became one of Baylor's major benefactors. Galloway would include the 1949 team when making that "Golden Era" assessment.

Sauer arrived just in time to direct the Bears in their new stadium. His first team (1950) was a fine one, posting a 7-3 record and finishing second in the SWC title chase; his second team was even better. It finished a half game out of first place after being upset by eventual champion TCU. But it also wound up in Baylor's first "major" bowl, the Orange Bowl, where it lost to Georgia Tech, 17-14.

Those were teams featuring the wondrous wizardry of quarterback Larry Isbell (All-America in 1951 and generally recognized as the finest quarterback in Baylor history), the pass catching of All-America Stan Williams and Harold Riley, the running of fullback Richard Parma and the defensive work of Galloway, tackle Ken Casner and guard Bill Athey. The 1951 Bears finished ninth in the AP poll, the highest ever for a Baylor team.

Sauer's Bears were back knocking at the door again in 1953, finishing a game out of a share of the title after winning their first six games and attaining the highest ranking ever for a Baylor team -- No. 3 in the AP poll before beating TCU and again before losing by a single point to Texas in Austin. That team featured what became known as the "Fearsome Foursome" backfield comprised of Cotton Davidson at quarterback, Jerry Coody and L.G. Dupre at the halfbacks and Allen Jones at fullback. They formed an explosive package, but after getting upset by Texas the Bears lost their focus. Still ranked No. 9, they went down with a thud to Houston (37-7) and finished the season by losing to Rice, 41-19.

1963

5-1 Baylor goes toe-to-toe with No. 1 Texas in a 7-0 loss at Austin. The Bears go on to win eight games, including a 14-7 victory over LSU at the Bluebonnet Bowl.

1972

The Grant Teaff era begins with a 5-6 record. The five wins matched the Bears' tally in their previous 34 games.

1974

After an 0-2 start, Baylor pulls off the unthinkable with its first Southwest Conference title in 50 years. The Bears plays in the program's first Cotton Bowl.

THE HISTORY OF BAYLOR FOOTBALL

1963 BLUEBONNET BOWL

But even as the season fell apart, the Baylor freshman team, quarterbacked by lethal passer Doyle Traylor, was rampaging through its schedule unbeaten and winning praise as the greatest Baylor Cub team in history. When the 1954 season rolled around, the players from that team moved up to augment the varsity, making for another elite Baylor team.

It started with a bang, avenging its 1953 loss to Houston by trouncing the Cougars, 53-13, in its season opener. That truly was a revenge game for the Bears. The year before, Houston millionaire Hugh Roy Cullen had given the Cougars a multi-million dollar gift for upsetting Baylor, and in 1954 the Bears proved they had not forgotten.

Guided by All-SWC quarterback Billy Hooper and bolstered by All-America tackle Jim Ray Smith, they got up to No. 10 in the AP poll before losing back-to-back road games to Miami (19-13) and Arkansas (21-20), but then they reeled off five victories in a row. After beating conference leader SMU, 33-21, before 47,000 in Dallas, they returned home to take on Rice. A victory over the Owls would give them a share of that elusive crown. They didn't get it. Although Baylor's terrific sophomore back, Del Shofner, got loose on a run that carried to the Rice 6-yard line late in the game, the Bears were unable to cash in. They lost, 20-14, leaving them tied with Rice for third. Their consolation prize: an invitation to play Auburn in the Gator Bowl. And in Jacksonville, Fla., the Tigers of Auburn stomped them, 33-13.

But they had one of their greatest seasons in Baylor history two years later. By then Sauer had become athletic director only, turning the football reins over to assistant coach Sam Boyd, the 1937-38 Baylor hero. And Boyd's team, blessed with the talent and depth few Baylor teams have ever had, quickly made waves. They won their first four games while surrendering only a total of 13 points, and they were ranked No. 8 in the land when they took on coach Bear Bryant's No. 7-ranked Aggies at Baylor Stadium.

The result was the biggest crowd I personally have ever seen at that stadium. Although the crowd was officially announced as 49,500, the stands were full, both end zones were full, and dozens of fans were standing on the field just beyond the end zone. The result also was a game that was bitterly fought and physical to an extreme. Bryant later said: "The Baylor-A&M game in 1956 was the bloodiest, meanest, most brutal game one of my teams was ever in."

The Aggies, led by future Heisman Trophy winner John David Crow, won the game, 19-13, and Baylor fans left the stadium talking darkly about a critical call made by one of the officials, a controversial call that overturned the Baylor recovery of an A&M fumble late in the game. Then the next week the Bears, still waiting for their offense to develop, went to Fort Worth and lost to TCU, 7-6.

After that game their offense came alive. They did not lose again. They mauled Nebraska, 26-7; blanked SMU, 26-0; and just wore out old nemesis Rice, 46-13. Those scores caught the eye of the Sugar Bowl, which invited them to play No. 2-ranked Tennessee on Jan. 1 in New Orleans.

By then the Bears were truly a powerhouse featuring the likes of do-it-all back Del Shofner, quarterbacks Bobby Jones and Buddy Humphrey (Doyle Traylor had become one of Baylor's hard-luck stories of all time, twice losing seasons because of broken bones), ends Jerry Marcontell and Earl Wayne Miller, and such superlative Bears up front as All-America Bill Glass, Clyde Letbetter, Charley Horton and Bill Parsley. But Tennessee had tradition, a perfect record, that No. 2 ranking, and All-America tailback Johnny Majors.

The Volunteers were strongly favored. The Bears won the game, 13-7, Baylor's greatest bowl victory of all time.

Boyd in his first year at the Baylor football helm had reached the highest point he would attain. Lacking Shofner's speed and most of that muscle up front, his 1957 team finished in the SWC cellar, and his 1958 team, although exciting because of the power running of fullback Larry Hickman and the throwing of Buddy Humphrey (No. 1 nationally in number of completions), finished last again.

John Bridgers, who had been an assistant coach on the staff of the NFL champion Baltimore Colts, was brought in to replace Boyd as head coach and Sauer as athletic director. He brought with him the Baltimore Colt offense, which generated plenty of excitement, pass completions and a strong presence in the headlines, but only near-misses in runs at the SWC championship.

The 1960 team, featuring Ronnie Bull, Ronnie Goodwin, Tommy Minter and Ronnie Stanley in the backfield, beat 1958 national champion LSU in Baton Rouge and eventual SWC champion Arkansas in Fayetteville, and got up to No. 7 in the polls before losing to TCU, 14-6, in Fort Worth, and 12-7, to Texas in Waco. The Bears finished with an 8-2 record, one game behind Arkansas, but then got nosed out again in the Gator Bowl, losing to Florida, 13-12.

Injuries ruined the 1961 team, which had been one of the pre-season favorites, but the Bears still made it to the new Gotham Bowl played at the old Polo Grounds in New York City. In that game they soundly defeated a Merlin Olsen-led Utah State team, 14-9.

The bowl's promoters were novices at such things, and when informed the day before the game that it was customary for a bowl to present the players and coaches involved with some kind of momento -- a blanket, a wristwatch or such -- they scurried around and came up with a special gift for all concerned: a shoeshine kit.

Baylor's 1963 team would challenge the '61 team as Bridgers' masterpiece. It featured an All-America battery of quarterback Don Trull and wideout Lawrence Elkins, it had an offensive line that provided great pass protection for Trull, and it had an underrated but effective defense. It won five of its first six games and was unbeaten in league play when it went to Austin on Nov. 9 to take on No. 1-ranked, undefeated Texas.

The Longhorns won that game, 7-0, but coach Darrell Royal's team had to withstand a withering Baylor challenge that carried inside the Texas 20 in the final seconds before quarterback Duke Carlisle, left in the lineup for defensive purposes on Baylor's last big drive, dashed across the end zone and intercepted a pass that Elkins all but had in his eager mitts. Such a reception would have left Baylor in position to tie the game and claim priority on going to the Cotton Bowl as the league's co-champion.

Left frustrated in Austin, the Bears won the remainder of their games, accepted an invitation to play LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl, and there they beat the Bengal Tigers more decisively than the 14-7 final score indicated.

Bridgers was never able to get the Bears better than 5-5 during the remainder of his 10-year tenure, but the 1966 season did provide two special highlights. The first came in the Bears' opening game which was nationally televised. Meeting a Syracuse team that was armed with both Floyd Little and Larry Csonka in the backfield, the underdog Bears just romped and stomped. Final score: Baylor 35, Syracuse 12.

A month later, the Bears went to Fayetteville to take on an Arkansas team that had won back-to-back SWC titles and boasted a long regular season winning streak. But it lost that day. The Bears, led by All-America defensive guard Greg Pipes, shut out the favored Hogs, 7-0.

When Bridgers' contract ran out after the 1968 season, Baylor decided not to renew it. Instead, Bill Beall was brought in from LSU. Beall had been an assistant under Jess Neely at Rice and then Charlie McClendon at LSU but he was not the answer at Baylor. His teams only won three games in three seasons and Baylor's decision makers decided a change had to be made.

By then a revered name from Baylor's past, Jack Patterson, who had won three SWC track and field championships over a four-year span for the Bears before accepting a similar post at Texas, agreed to return to Baylor as the school's new athletic director. When Beall was fired, Patterson was put in total charge of the hunt to find an acceptable successor. His choice after several disappointments: Grant Teaff, the head coach at Angelo State.

Baylor's choice of Teaff was questioned on several fronts and ridiculed on others. But the scoffing stopped the first year. Teaff coached the tissue-thin Bears to a 5-6 record and won Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors. And his fine defensive end, Roger Goree, won consensus All-America recognition. But when his 1973 team sought to produce a suitable encore, it fell flat. The Bears finished 2-9 and failed to win a single conference game.

So when 1974 rolled around, Baylor was the popular choice to finish last or next to last again. The team had a young offensive line, a quarterback who had a speech impediment and a tailback who was about 5 feet 7 inches tall. But when the 43-point underdogs went to Norman to open their season against No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, and wound up giving the Sooners about all they could handle (OU led by only a 7-5 score going into the fourth quarter) before losing, 28-11, even Oklahoma coach Barry Switzer came to their dressing room after the game to tell them what a great game they had played.

They let victory slip through their fingers the next week against Missouri, but when they returned to Waco and beat No. 8-ranked Oklahoma State the following Saturday, everyone knew Neal Jeffrey was quite a quarterback, Steve Beaird was a real dynamo at tailback and never mind his short stature, and the Bear defense was for real.

The season became one Baylor fans will never forget. True, they stumbled against Texas A&M in a 20-0 game but they did not stumble again. After getting behind by 17 points at halftime against Texas, against a coach (Darrell Royal) that Baylor had never beaten, and then forging a mighty second-half comeback that produced 27 unanswered points and a resounding 34-24 victory, the Bears put together a Miracle on the Brazos that would not be denied.

When great Baylor football victories are discussed, the Baylor-Texas game of 1974 usually tops the list. Royal came to the Baylor locker room after the game to congratulate the Bears and urge them to go on now and win that long-sought conference crown. And Oklahoma's Switzer sent Teaff a telegram, telling him the rest of the country now was finding out what OU found out in that season opener.

Baylor let the scoreboard lights burn all night after that remarkable victory, and several members of the Baylor administration, along with at least one regent, secured their bedrolls and spent the night at the stadium.

When the Bears beat Rice amid blizzard-like conditions at Baylor Stadium on Nov. 30, they nailed down something no other Baylor team had managed in 50 years: an undisputed SWC football championship.

That feat took them to the Cotton Bowl to play Penn State, and while they lost that game by a 41-20 score (after leading at halftime), Baylor fans hardly noticed. They had finally made it to Big D on New Year's Day, that was all that mattered.

Linebacker Derrel Luce and center Aubrey Schulz won All-America honors that season; Jeffrey, Beaird and defensive back Ron Burns won All-SWC recognition; and Teaff was named National Coach of the Year. The Bears had come from last to first in one short season. And Beaird had become the first Baylor back ever to rush for a thousand yards (actually, 1,104) in a season.

They had a good season in 1976 (7-3-1) but a bowl invitation escaped them. Although four-touchdown underdogs, they scored the most points any Baylor team had ever scored against Texas in 1978 while beating the Longhorns, 38-14.

The next season they pieced together an 8-4 season that was flavored by a 24-18 Peach Bowl victory over Clemson, and then in 1980 they pushed all the right buttons again. They won their first seven games, climbed to No. 10 in the national polls, and after allowing themselves to get upset by San Jose State they won the

The key victory was a thrilling comeback win over SMU (32-28) but one that old Baylor fans still like to talk about was the 46-7 trouncing of Texas A&M at College Station in a game that was played in a monsoon.

They actually wound up their regular season by blanking Texas, 16-0, and that Nov. 22, 1980 whitewashing is the very last shutout that has been suffered by the Texas Longhorns. You can look it up.

While no Baylor team will ever replace the 1974 Bears in the hearts of Baylor fans, that 1980 team surely ranks No. 1 in terms of pure accomplishment. It not only won the crown by three full games, it led the league in both total offense and total defense and put no fewer than eight players (a record for a Baylor team) on the consensus all-conference team. And it put on the field the player who has become the most decorated player in Baylor's football history: linebacker Mike Singletary.

Singletary joined wideout Lawrence Elkins as the only two-year consensus All-America selections ever to wear the green and gold. They both have been inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame. But Singletary also was a three-year All-SWC choice (Elkins made the honor team two seasons), and he went on to be chosen on the Football Writers' 25-year All-America team (one of only three players to win the honor from the SWC, the other two being offensive lineman Jerry Sisemore of Texas and Tony Franklin of A&M), and to become a multiple All-NFL choice in the NFL while playing with the Chicago Bears. Truly, Mike Singletary was one of a kind.

He was one of those eight Bears who won consensus All-SWC recognition in 1980. The others were offensive guard Frank Ditta (also named All-America), quarterback Jay Jeffrey (younger brother Neal), running backs Walter Abercrombie and Dennis Gentry, defensive linemen Charles Benson and Joe Campbell, and defensive back Vann McElroy.

Abercrombie, who led the league in rushing that season with 1,187 yards, would become Baylor's all-time leading rusher before winding up his college career the following season and then becoming a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Baylor's domination of the league in 1980 paid off in a trip to the Cotton Bowl to play Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide. That game became a defensive struggle for the longest time before the Bears finally cracked and Alabama went home with a 30-2 victory.

The Bears had a good season in 1983 (7-4-1), winning their way to the Bluebonnet Bowl to play Oklahoma State (they lost, 24-14), but that was but a prelude for the excellent teams they fielded in 1985 and 1986. They tied for second both seasons after breaking in front early, and they climaxed both seasons with bowl victories — 21-7 over LSU in the Liberty Bowl in '85 and 21-9 over Colorado in the Bluebonnet the following season.

1979 PEACH BOWL CHAMPS

Those teams also featured some favorite Baylor names starting with quarterbacks Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke. In 1986, on Oct. 18, the Bears met a Jackie Sherrill-coached A&M team in a game that was later voted the SWC's best game of the decade. Baylor roared out to a 17-0 lead in that game but the Aggies came back to have the last word in a 31-30 stem-winder. That verdict knocked the Bears out of the championship and kept them out of the Cotton Bowl.

The Bears struggled to stay on the topside of .500 for the remainder of the decade but they punctuated a 5-6 season in their final game of the 1980s by going to Austin and beating Texas by the historic margin of 50-7. In doing so they gave Grant Teaff the victory on UT turf that he had always declared he would win before he ended his Baylor coaching career.

The Bears stirred hopes that they would become something special in 1991, winning their first five games (including a 16-14 victory over defending national champion Colorado on the Buffaloes' own turf in Boulder, ending what had been an impressive CU winning streak there) and rising to No. 8 in the national polls. But then they lost to Rice and A&M in succession, and later to Texas Tech. The final result was an 8-3 season that yielded a trip to the Copper Bowl, but there they went flat, losing to Indiana, 24-0.

Before the 1992 season started, Teaff let it be known that the coming season would be his last one. And the Bears, sparked by quarterback J.J. Joe, made it a memorable one for him, beating visiting Georgia Tech in an intersectional game, nosing out Texas in their final regular season game, and then upsetting Arizona, 20-15, in the Sun Bowl.

His offensive coordinator, Chuck Reedy, succeeded him, and in 1994 coached the Bears to a 7-4 record overall and a 4-3 mark in conference play. The 4-3 mark, oddly enough, proved to be good enough to give the Bears a piece of the five-way split of the championship after A&M, unbeaten but ineligible for title consideration because of rules violations, was left in limbo. The Bears, led by such All-SWC players as tackle Fred Miller on offense and LaCurtis Jones and Adrian Robinson on defense, wound up their season by losing to Washington State, 10-3, in the Alamo Bowl.

Reedy's 1995 team was 7-4 overall and 5-2 in conference play, good enough for a three-way share of second place, but the entire season was overshadowed by a more momentous development. The Southwest Conference was breaking up. Baylor was joining A&M, Texas and Texas Tech in a new league that would be known as the Big 12. Athletic relations going back to the early years of the 20th century were about to be severed.

The Big 12 has been a difficult challenge for Baylor.

But with the 2004 season approaching, Morriss and his players do have a season of Big 12 play under their belts.

1994 — Baylor claims its sixth Southwest Conference title and earns a bid to face Washington State at the Alamo Bowl in San Antonio.

1996 — The Guy Morriss era begins as he is named the program's 24th head coach. In his first season, Baylor upsets two-time defending Big 12 North champion Colorado.

2003 — Along with Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech, Baylor leaves the Southwest Conference and joins the newly formed Big 12 Conference.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

BARTON KOCH

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1974 after being named to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.

JAMES RAY SMITH

Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

LAWRENCE ELKINS

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. Elkins was a two-time consensus All-American (1963-64). In 1963 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame 1993.

BILL GLASS

Bill Glass was a consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He was voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass become one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985 and two years later went into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

MORLEY JENNINGS

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-1. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE SINGLETARY

Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro 10 times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement. Inducted into both the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

GRANT TEAFF

2001 Hall of Fame inductee Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach from 1972-92, compiling a 128-105-6 record and leading the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings. Selected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

HAYDEN FRY

Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner for Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 Associated Press rankings in 1949 and 1950. He made his most-notable mark on the college football world as a coach, spending 20 seasons as the head coach at Iowa. Fry was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2003 and was honored by the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Baylor's Hall of Fame, organized in 1960, recognizes and honors persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. Athletes are required to wait 10 years after completing eligibility before being eligible for the honor.

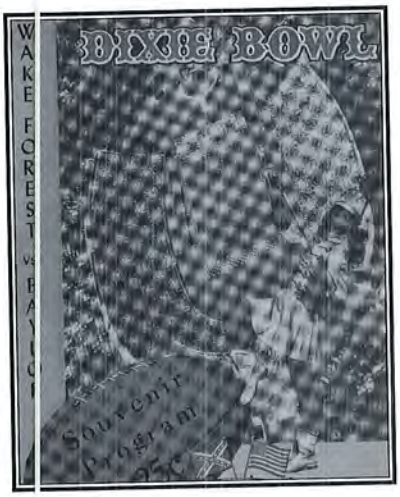
BAYLOR 20
WAKE FOREST 7

JAN. 1, 1949 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.
LEGION FIELD



Although edged in the final statistics, coach Bob Woodruff's Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school's history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second and final Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor's 212, fell behind 20-0 at halftime to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors. Bear defender George Sims recorded the game's first turnover when he intercepted a Wake Forest pass on its first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Deacons' eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by Pierce's 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter, who had attempted only seven passes during the regular season, passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American quarterback Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two of the completions going to Riley. James Parker, who also hauled in a Burk pass for 23 Baylor yards, led the Baylor rushing attack with 43 yards on eight carries.

1952 ORANGE BOWL

BAYLOR 14
GEORGIA TECH 17

JAN. 1, 1952 • MIAMI, FLA.
ORANGE BOWL STADIUM

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 22-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give No. 5 Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over No. 9 Baylor in Miami's Orange Bowl contest.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers' effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-2-1 Bears. BU fullback Dick Parma scored the game's first touchdown from a yard out and the legendary C. O. Brocato added the PAT as Baylor led 7-0 in the first quarter.

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody's five-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team's leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd's Tech squad used Rodgers' and Martin's last quarter heroics to take its comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor's second of the 1951 season, the first coming at the hands of TCU 20-7. Larry Isbell, who threw for 1,430 yards during the regular season, attempted 18 passes against Tech, completing eight for 93 yards. Parma was the contest's top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

All-American end Stanley Williams, who caught 37 regular season passes for six touchdowns, and Harold Riley each caught three Isbell passes. And defensive back Robert Reid, who established a school interception record with 11 regular season swipes, intercepted one pass from Tech quarterback Darrell Crawford.

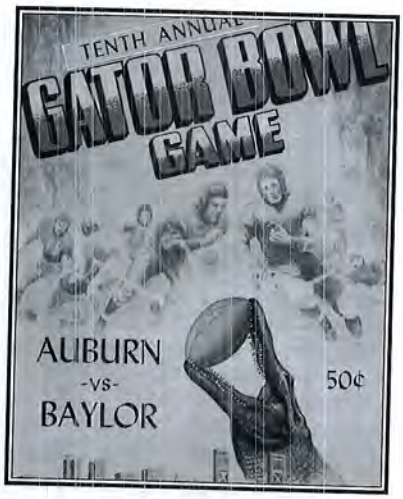
AUBURN 33

DEC. 31, 1954 • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
FAIRFIELD STADIUM



Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times it touched the football on its way to a 33-13 thrashing of No. 18 Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Bear all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the Bear 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Fob James' 43-yard run broke a 7-7 tie and gave Auburn the lead for good with 9:20 left in the second quarter and Bobby Freeman tossed a six-yard scoring strike to Jimmy Long to push the Tigers' halftime advantage to 21-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading rusher with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run on AU's first drive of the second half to make the score 27-7 with 7:13 left.

Baylor All-America halfback L. G. Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the Tigers' lead to 27-13 with 4:25 to play in the third period. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season, finished as his team's top rusher against the Tigers with 69 yards. Freeman completed the scoring with a five-yard third quarter run Hooper, an all-conference honoree, finished with nine completions in 15 attempts for 112 yards, with four of the aerials going to Smith. Dupre returned three Auburn kickoffs for 85 yards.

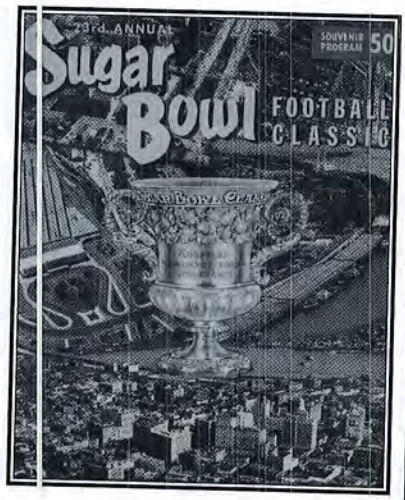
BAYLOR 13
TENNESSEE 7

JAN. 1, 1957 • NEW ORLEANS, LA.
TULANE STADIUM



Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee All-America halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and No. 11 Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated and second-ranked Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for coach Sam Boyd's 10-2 Bears. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontell in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, while completing better than 60 percent of his passes and punting for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6.

After the Volunteers held Baylor on its first fourth quarter possession, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

Shofner, running behind an offensive line headlined by All-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 rushing yards on 14 carries and also intercepted a Volunteer pass. For his play, Shofner, who scored 10 touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing and 54 yards in kickoff returns for Baylor while Saage added 39 rushing yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Marcontell.

Baylor's win over the No. 2 Volunteers marked the highest ranked opponent the Bears had ever beaten to that point in the program's storied history.

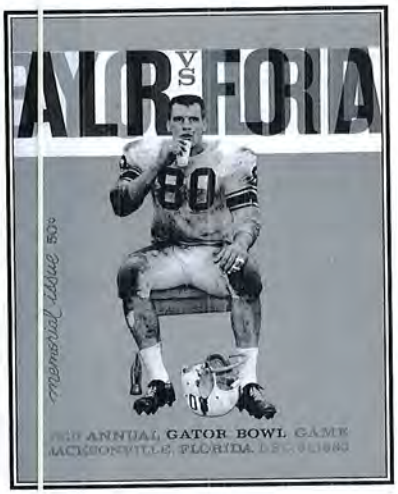
FLORIDA 13

DEC. 31, 1960 • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
FAIRFIELD STADIUM



Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the No. 18 Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

On the Bears' first second quarter possession, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to All-America halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three yards for the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half. Coach Ray Graves' squad extended its lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for a quick six points. Florida traveled 20 yards for its two scores while Baylor went 139 yards for the same results. Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the No. 12 Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Ply threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, which capped a 71-yard, nine-play drive. With 1:01 remaining, Ply, who threw four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed passes. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three yards for the score. But, the two-point conversion attempt from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

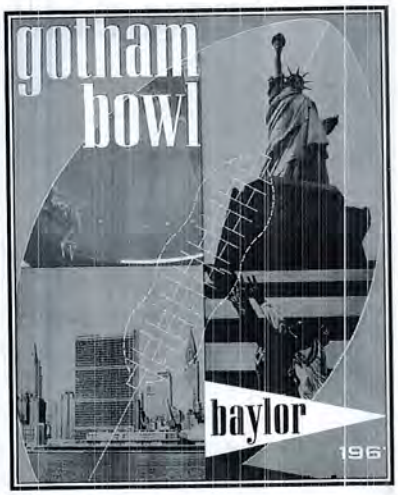
BAYLOR 24
UTAH STATE 9

DEC. 9, 1961 • NEW YORK, N.Y.
THE POLO GROUNDS



Eight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the historic Polo Grounds.

Baylor recovered its first of five Utah State fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 all-purpose yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 14 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak covering two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions. Utah State, which entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: All-America tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

Many observers felt the game's highlight came at halftime when the New York City Sanitation Department Band performed in a driving snowstorm. As a souvenir of their trip to New York City, members of both teams were given shoe shine kits.

DEC. 31, 1963 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
RICE STADIUM

The fifth annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-America quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over LSU.

Trull, voted the game's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the contest's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 79 plays to LSU's 37 and racking up 385 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, which ended its season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored its first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in 10 plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, which lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by All-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

PENN STATE	41

JAN. 1, 1976 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL STADIUM

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in No. 7 Penn State's 41-20 decision over No. 12 Baylor.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the storied Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead on Steve Beaird's four-yard blast with 41 seconds remaining in the opening period. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goa closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard run, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 14 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, David Hicks attempted an onside kick only to watch the Lions' Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's Most Outstanding Defensive Player. DB Tom Turnipseede added 11 tackles for the Bears, who finished 14th in both the final AP and UPI polls.

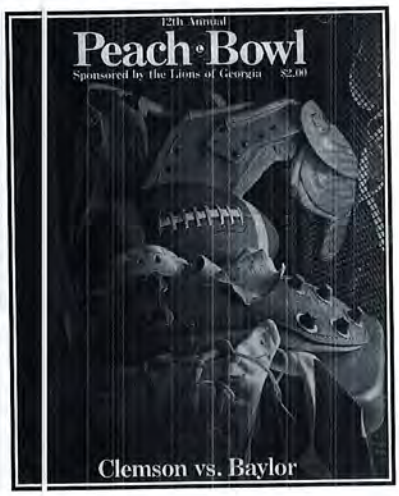
CLEMSON 18

DEC. 31, 1979 · ATLANTA, GA.
ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM



Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the 19th-rated Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over the 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The victory vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place in the Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all of whom were ranked in the top 10 at kickoff.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. The Bears forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final 10 points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards. Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

1981 COTTON BOWL

BAYLOR 2
ALABAMA 30

JAN. 1, 1981 · DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL STADIUM

Paul "Bear" Bryant's No. 9 Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated No. 6 Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl en route to a 30-2 rout of the Southwest Conference champions.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth nationally during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, which closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety were the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC rushing champion Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by a stout Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-America middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

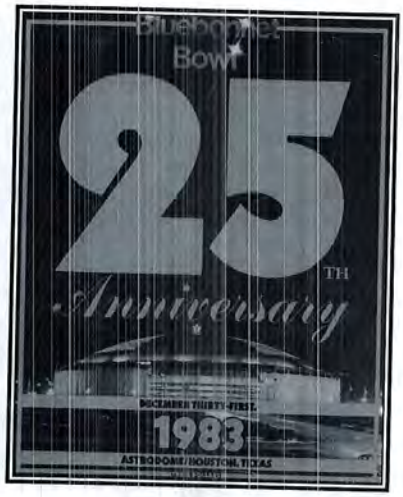
BAYLOR 14
OKLAHOMA STATE 24

DEC. 31, 1983 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
THE ASTRODOME



Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off No. 20 Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 16 seconds left in the half.

OSU signal caller Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked out by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:07 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 remaining at the OSU 45.

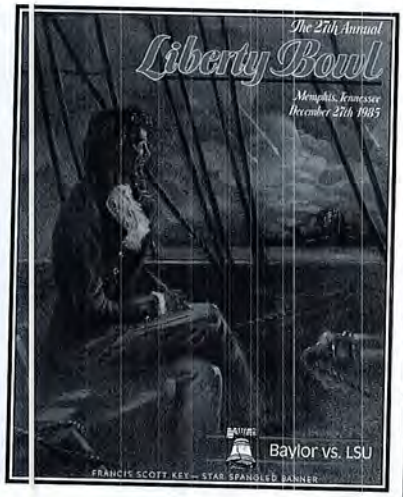
BAYLOR 21
LSU 7

DEC. 27, 1985 • MEMPHIS, TENN.
LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM



Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-91), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half that LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 total-offense yards on nine plays.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and that turned out to be the Tigers only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 23-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

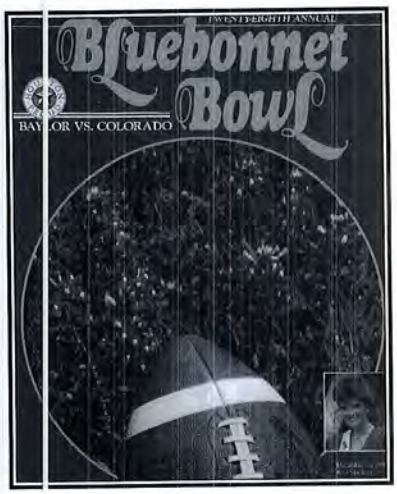
BOWL RECAPS

1986 BLUEBONNET BOWL

BAYLOR	21
COLORADO	9

DEC. 31, 1986 • HOUSTON TEXAS
THE ASTRODOME



No. 14 Baylor's defense, led by MVP Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffs to 194 total yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defense. The Buffs managed only a field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offside penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch.

QB Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot form Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

1991 COPPER BOWL

INDIANA	24

DEC. 31, 1991 • TUCSON, ARIZ.
ARIZONA STADIUM

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient and balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III at Tucson, Ariz.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished with 106 yards and the game's MVP honor. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the end zone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set the tone for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and just when it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup, the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining in the half and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with BU having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the end zone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never connected on a handoff.

The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march covered 60 yards in 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category, but not to the extent which the final score would indicate. The Hoosiers rushed for 147 yards, compared to Baylor's 138. They passed for 176 yards while BU had 131. The time of possession chart favored Indiana 32:55 to 27:05.

But the real story for Baylor seemed to be lost opportunities and mental lapses which Indiana did a fine job of exploiting.

1992 JOHN HANCOCK BOWL

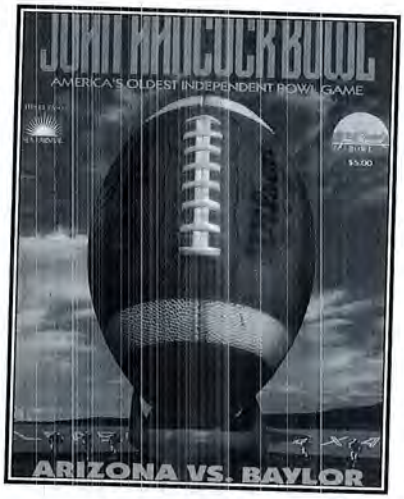
ARIZONA 15

DEC. 31, 1992 • EL PASO, TEXAS
SUN BOWL STADIUM



The Grant Teaff era at Baylor ended in grand style as the Bears used big plays to hold off No. 22 Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, outgained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had TD passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and twice held UA to field goals.

UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after Baylor's defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malauulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. Baylor struck near the end of the half with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 to go. UA came back quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal.

It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when quarterback J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a defensive battle. The day's highlight came when Arizona moved the ball to the Baylor eight only to be stopped at the one after four attempts.

BU managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir, and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety. Baylor's defense held twice again late, stopping drives on its 22 and 28. The final stand came with time running out and Malauulu passing into the end zone. Maston was brilliant as he led all tacklers with 11 stops, five solos.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

BAYLOR 3
WASHINGTON STATE 10

DEC. 31, 1994 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
THE ALAMODOME

The second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until 30 seconds remained.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only touchdown. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as Kevin Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding WSU on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed the Cougars to retain possession.

WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and it played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the Cougar 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke field goal which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. WSU ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0. The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikia Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. With 3:57 left the Bears got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 seconds left Watson's pass into the end zone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

KYLE WOODS TRUST

Family has long been a part of Baylor University, especially in athletics. This has never been more evident than with Kyle Woods.

During a preseason practice at Floyd Casey Stadium in 1979, Woods sustained a neck injury that left him as a quadriplegic. It was a turn of luck that would have left many bitter, but not Woods, who from day one remained in high spirits.

"I've known a lot of courageous and tough people in my life," said Grant Teaff, Woods' coach at Baylor. "But I've never known anybody that surpassed Kyle Woods for his positive attitude, his determination, his faith and his will to make something of his life, which had been devastated physically."

The Baylor family did not forget Woods. Last fall, a team of former players and coaches kicked off a fund-raising project designed to raise funds to build a new house for Woods.

A committee led by Teaff, Baylor professor L.M. Dyson and former teammates Radar Holt and Scott Smith attempts to raise $250,000 for the project. The house will be built in South Dallas, complete with all amenities to service Woods, who has been confined to a wheelchair since the injury.

It may appear that the committee is doing a favor for Woods, but Holt points out that it is Woods who has done the favor, inspiring teammates and many others with his positive attitude and spirit.

"There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about what happened to Kyle and the situation that he's in," Holt said at a press conference prior to Baylor's game against Texas last October.

"What happened to him could happen to any one of us. And if I was in his situation, I know I would not have the strength to go on like this young man. He has no idea how much I love him and respect him for who he is and what all he's done for us."

President Robert B. Sloan Jr. presented the committee with a check for $60,000 on behalf of the university.

"We want this home to be a start of good things the Lord has for you in the future," Sloan said.

Woods has found ways to use his disablement as a positive force in his life. He serves as a counselor for physically handicapped students at Mountainview College in Dallas, helping to instill in others the same positive energy that has driven him for the past two-plus decades.

"Kyle has been an inspiration to all of us who have known him," said former Baylor running back Walter Abercrombie. "He never let that bother him. He took his injury as part of the deal of playing football."

Three former teammates, Robin Jones, Neal Jeffrey and Le'Shai Matson, presented a check in the amount of $10,000 on behalf of Friends of Baylor University. Another former teammate, NFL Hall of Famer Mike Singletary, has committed $5,000, and Teaff said other former players have committed another $20,000.

"The importance of this project cannot be measured," Teaff said. "To literally change someone's living environment is immeasurable."
